AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to findings of the state board of parole necessary for discretionary release of incarcerated persons on parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 130 of the 3 laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

(A) [Discretionary release on parole shall [not] be granted [merely as a reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability that, if such inmate is released, he will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that his release is not incompatible with 9 the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of his 10 crime as to undermine respect for law] to any incarcerated person 11 appearing before the board who is eligible for release on parole, unless 12 the parole case record demonstrates there is a current and unreasonable risk the person will violate the law if released and such risk cannot be 14 mitigated by parole supervision. In making the [parole release decision]
