AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to establishing a joint commission on public transparency and sexual harassment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public officers law is amended by adding a new section 75-b to read as follows:

3 § 75-b. Commission on public transparency and sexual harassment. 1.
4 When used in this section the following terms shall have the following 5 meanings:

6 (a) "statewide elected official" shall mean the governor, lieutenant 7 governor, comptroller, or attorney general;

(b) "state officer or employee" shall mean:

9 (i) heads of state departments and their deputies and assistants who 10 serve at the discretion of the statewide elected official; and

11 (ii) officers and employees of statewide elected officials who serve 12 at the discretion of the statewide elected official;

13 (c) "legislative employee" shall mean any officer or employee of the 14 legislature; and 15 (d) "legislative member" shall mean a senator or member of the assem-16 bly.

172. There is hereby established within the department of state a18commission on public transparency and sexual harassment which shall

19 consist of nine members and shall have and exercise the powers and the duties set forth in this section with respect to statewide elected offi-1 2 cials, state officers and employees, legislative employees, and legisla-3 tive members. This section shall not be deemed to have revoked or rescinded any regulations or advisory opinions issued by the legislative 4 5 ethics commission, the commission on public integrity, the state ethics б commission, or the state office for human rights in effect upon the effective date of this section to the extent that such regulations or 7 opinions are not inconsistent with any law of this state, but such regu-8 9 lations and opinions shall apply only to matters over which such commis-10 sions had jurisdiction at the time such regulations and opinions were 11 promulgated or issued. The commission shall undertake a comprehensive review of the current sexual harassment policies in the legislature and 12 13 executive agencies. The commission shall, before February first, two 14 thousand twenty-two, report to the governor and the legislature regard-15 ing this review and recommendations for any regulatory or statutory 16 guidance for consistency and transparency. 17 3. The commission shall consist of nine members of whom one shall be appointed by the governor, four by the chief judge of the court of 18 appeals, and one each by the speaker of the assembly, the temporary 19 20 president of the senate, the minority leader of the senate, and the 21 minority leader of the assembly. Of the four members appointed by the 22 chief judge of the court of appeals, no more than two shall be enrolled in the same political party, two shall be attorneys licensed to practice 23 law in this state, and two shall not be attorneys. No member of the 24 25 commission shall hold any office in any political party. Members of the 26 commission shall be appointed based on their actual experience in the 27 establishment of institutional policies, sexual harassment claims, and 28 legal matters regarding sexual harassment issues, sex crimes, and reporting. Appointing authorities shall coordinate appointments to 29 30 include, but not be limited to, an attorney actually employed in the area of sexual harassment litigation and similar legal matters who has 31 32 demonstrated outstanding service and contributions to this legal area, a 33 human resources or labor relations representative who has demonstrated actual service in the establishment of effective sexual harassment poli-34 35 cies in the workplace, a member of law enforcement who has work experi-36 ence in relation to sex crimes and harassment, and a member of the judi-37 cial branch who has had experience in the consideration of civil claims 38 related to sexual harassment and sex discrimination. In the event that a vacancy arises with respect to a member of the commission first 39 40 appointed pursuant to this section by a legislative leader, the legislative leaders of the same political party in the same house shall appoint 41 42 а member to fill such vacancy irrespective of whether that legislative 43 leader's political party is in the majority or minority. No individual shall be eligible for appointment as a member of the commission who 44 45 currently or within the last three years is or has been a member of the 46 New York state legislature or has been a legislative employee, or a 47 statewide officer or elected official or a commissioner of an executive 48 agency appointed by the governor, or has held judicial office. Members 49 of the commission shall be residents of the state. 4. Members of the commission shall serve for terms of five years; 50 51 provided, however, that the member first appointed by the governor shall 52 serve for three years and the members first appointed by the temporary 53 president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, and the minority 54 leaders of the senate and assembly shall serve for four years. 5. Members of the commission shall designate a chair from the member-55 56 ship thereof for a term of two years or until his or her term expires,

1	whichever period is shorter. The chair or a member of the commission may
2	call a meeting.
3	6. Any vacancy occurring on the commission shall be filled within 4	thirty days of its occurrence in the same manner as the member whose
5	vacancy is being filled was appointed. A person appointed to fill a
б	vacancy occurring other than by expiration of a term of office shall be 7	appointed for the unexpired term of the member he or she succeeds.
8	7. Members of the commission may be removed by the appointing authori-
9	ty solely for substantial neglect of duty, gross misconduct in office,
10	violation of the confidentiality, inability to discharge the powers or
11	duties of office or a violation of this section, after written notice
12	and opportunity for a reply.
13	8. Members of the commission shall be reimbursed for all reasonable
14	expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in the perform-
15	ance of his or her duties under this section.
16	9. Seven members shall constitute a quorum.
17	10. The commission shall:
18	(a) adopt, amend and rescind rules and regulations defining sexual
19	harassment for state agencies, offices, and branches of government and
20	develop recommendations for the uniform distribution of the definitions
21	and policies developed pursuant to this section;
22	(b) make available forms for complaints of sexual harassment and sex
23	discrimination involving statewide elected officials, state officers or
24	employees, legislative members and employees;
25	(c) review sexual harassment filing procedures in accordance with the
26	provisions of this section;
27	(d) receive complaints and referrals alleging violations of section
28	two hundred ninety-six of the executive law, or provisions of article
29	one hundred thirty of the penal law by a statewide elected official, a
30	state officer or employee, legislative employee or legislative member;
31	(e) immediately report any allegations that, if true, would constitute
32	a crime, to law enforcement for investigation;
33 24	(f) for all other matters the commission shall determine whether a
34 25	complaint is "founded" or "unfounded" and shall issue a recommendation, in accordance with the confidentiality provisions contained in this
35 36	section and consistent with all other laws, including awards to crime
37	victims under article twenty-two of the executive law, to the appointing
38	authority as to the basis of the claims, recommendations for appropriate
39	resolution, and whether the commission approves of the use of public
40	monies, including funds of the legislature, to resolve specific claims
41	raised by the claimant. The recommendations of the commission shall be
42	fully and properly considered by the appointing authority but shall not 43	be binding. There shall be a rebuttable presumption assumed by the 44	commission that any statewide elected official, state officer or employ-
45	ee, or legislative member or employee who makes a good faith effort at
46	reporting or addressing sexual harassment shall not be held individually
47	liable under any claim or settlement;
48	(g) prepare and submit an annual report to the governor and the legis-
49	lature summarizing the activities of the commission during the previous
50	year including, but not limited to, (i) an accounting of founded and
51	unfounded claims of sexual harassment organized by legislative branch
52	and executive office or agency, and (ii) where a matter has been
53	resolved, the date and nature of the disposition and any sanctions or
54	recommendations of the commission, subject to the confidentiality

55 requirements of this section;

1	(h) provide notification to any person who has filed a sexual harass-
2	ment claim of the determination of the commission's review as well as
3	the individual's right to appeal the commission's determination pursuant
4	to subdivision twelve of this section;
5	(i) appoint an executive director who shall act in accordance with the
6	policies of the commission. The appointment and removal of the executive
7	director shall be made solely by a vote of a majority of the commission,
8	which majority shall include at least one member appointed by a legisla-
9	tive leader from each of the two major political parties. The commission
10	may delegate authority to the executive director to act in the name of 11	the commission between meetings of the commission provided such deleg-
12	ation is in writing, the specific powers to be delegated are enumerated,
13	and the commission shall not delegate any decisions specified in this
14	section that require a vote of the commission. The executive director
15	shall be appointed without regard to political affiliation and solely on 16	the basis of fitness to perform the duties assigned by this article, and
17	shall be a qualified, independent professional. The commission may
18	remove the executive director for neglect of duty, misconduct in office,
19	violation of the confidentiality, or inability or failure to discharge
20	the powers or duties of office, including the failure to follow the 20	lawful instructions of the commission;
22	(j) review and approve a staffing plan provided and prepared by the 23	executive director which shall contain, at a minimum, a list of the 24	various units and divisions as well as the number of positions in each
25	unit, titles and their duties, and salaries, as well as the various
26	qualifications for each position including, but not limited to, educa-
27	tion and prior experience for each position;
28	(k) appoint such other staff as are necessary to carry out its duties
29	under this section; and
30	(1) develop and administer an online sexual harassment orientation
31	course to be made available across the legislative and executive branch-
32	es for the purposes of a uniform and consistent policy across govern-
33	ment.
34	11. (a) When an individual becomes a member or staff of the commis-
35	sion, that individual shall be required to sign a non-disclosure state-
36	ment.
37	(b) Except as otherwise required or provided by law, testimony
38	received or any other information obtained by a commissioner or staff of 39	the commission shall not be disclosed by any such individual to any
40	person or entity outside the commission during the pendency of any
41	matter. Any confidential communication to any person or entity outside
42	the commission related to the matters before the commission may occur
43	only as authorized by the commission.
44	(c) The commission shall establish procedures necessary to prevent the 45	unauthorized disclosure of any information received by any member of the
46	commission or staff of the commission. Any breaches of confidentiality
47	shall be investigated by the inspector general and appropriate action
48	shall be taken. Any commissioner or person employed by the commission
49	who intentionally and without authorization releases confidential infor-
50	mation received by the commission shall be quilty of a class A misdemea-
51	nor.
52	12. The commission shall be deemed to be an agency of the state within
53	the meaning of article three of the state administrative procedure act
54	and shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings
55	and appeals taken pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article
56	seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules relating to the
50	Bevench-erang of the civit bractice taw and inter tetacting to the

1	assessment of penalties or findings authorized in this section. Such
2	rules, which shall not be subject to the approval requirements of the
3	state administrative procedure act, shall provide for due process proce-
4	dural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article
5	three of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need б	not be identical in terms of scope.
7	§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to settle-
8	ments entered into on and after such date.
