

STATE OF NEW YORK

4276

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 1, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. JENSEN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the social services law and the public health law, in relation to criminal history records of maintenance employees in adult residential health and assisted living facilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 461-u to read as follows:

§ 461-u. Access to criminal history records. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Maintenance employee" shall mean any individual to be employed or used by a provider, including those persons employed through a temporary employment or staffing agency, and who provide supportive maintenance services to such facility, included, but not limited to beautician, security, janitorial, laundry, recreational and groundskeeping services. Such term shall not include volunteers.

(b) "Provider" shall mean an assisted living facility, residential health care facility, skilled nursing facility or any other type of facility that provides residential or institutional care to the elderly or disabled.

2. Subject to the rules and regulations of the division of criminal justice services, the department of health shall have access to criminal history records maintained by such division pertaining to any maintenance employee or such persons as the department of health at any time deems necessary to determine their criminal histories.

3. Every court in which a maintenance employee of a provider is convicted of a crime while performing their intended duties at such facility shall, within seven days after either the entry of a plea of guilty, or the verdict of the court or a jury, notify the department of health in writing of such conviction. The department of health, after

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD08648-01-1

receipt of such notification or at any time the department of health becomes aware of the conviction of such maintenance worker, shall have the authority, granted pursuant to subdivision one of this section, to have access to the criminal history records of such individual.

4. Any request for criminal history records made pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be accompanied by the fingerprints of the person who is the subject of such request.

§ 2. Subdivisions 3 and 5 of section 2899 of the public health law, as amended by chapter 331 of the laws of 2006, are amended to read as follows:

3. "Employee" shall mean any person to be employed or used by a provider, including those persons employed by a temporary employment agency, to provide direct care or supervision to patients or residents or an individual who serves as a maintenance employee as defined in section four hundred sixty-one-u of the social services law. Persons licensed pursuant to title eight of the education law or article twenty-eight-D of this chapter are excluded from the meaning of employee under this article. Such term shall not include volunteers.

5. "Prospective employee" shall mean any individual, including a potential maintenance employee, not currently an employee, who files an application for employment as an employee with a provider and the provider has a reasonable expectation to hire such individual as an employee.

§ 3. Subdivision 10 of section 2899-a of the public health law, as amended by section 7 of part RRR of chapter 58 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

10. Notwithstanding subdivision eleven of section eight hundred forty-five-b of the executive law, a certified home health agency, licensed home care services agency or long term home health care program certified, licensed or approved under article thirty-six of this chapter or a home care services agency exempt from certification or licensure under article thirty-six of this chapter, a hospice program under article forty of this chapter, or an adult home, enriched housing program or residence for adults licensed under article seven of the social services law, or an assisted living facility licensed under article forty-six-B of this chapter, or a health home, or any subcontractor of such health home, who contracts with or is approved or otherwise authorized by the department to provide health home services, including enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age, under section three hundred sixty-five-l of the social services law, except for a health home, or any subcontractor of such health home, who contracts with or is approved or otherwise authorized by the department to provide health home services to all those enrolled pursuant to a diagnosis of a developmental disability as defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law; or any entity that provides home and community based services to enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age under a demonstration program pursuant to section eleven hundred fifteen of the federal social security act may temporarily approve a prospective employee while the results of the criminal history information check and the determination are pending, upon the condition that the provider conducts appropriate direct observation and evaluation of the temporary employee, while he or she is temporarily employed, and the care recipient; provided, however, that for a health home, or any subcontractor of a health home, who contracts with or is approved or otherwise authorized by the department to provide health home services, including enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age, under section three hundred sixty-five-l of the

1 social services law, except for a health home, or any subcontractor of
2 such health home, who contracts with or is approved or otherwise author-
3 ized by the department to provide health home services to all those 4 enrolled pursuant to a diagnosis of a developmental disability as 5 defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene 6 law; or any entity that provides home and community based services to 7 enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age under a demonstration
8 program pursuant to section eleven hundred fifteen of the federal social 9 security act, direct observation and evaluation of temporary employees
10 shall not be required until July first, two thousand nineteen. The 11 results of such observations shall be documented in the temporary 12 employee's personnel file and shall be maintained. For purposes of 13 providing such appropriate direct observation and evaluation, the 14 provider shall utilize an individual employed by such provider with a 15 minimum of one year's experience working in an agency certified, 16 licensed or approved under article thirty-six of this chapter or an 17 adult home, enriched housing program or residence for adults licensed 18 under article seven of the social services law, a health home, or any 19 subcontractor of such health home, who contracts with or is approved or 20 otherwise authorized by the department to provide health home services,
21 including enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age, under section
22 three hundred sixty-five-1 of the social services law, except for a
23 health home, or any subcontractor of such health home, who contracts
24 with or is approved or otherwise authorized by the department to provide 25 health home services to all those enrolled pursuant to a diagnosis of a 26 developmental disability as defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 27 1.03 of the mental hygiene law; or any entity that provides home and 28 community based services to enrollees who are under twenty-one years of 29 age under a demonstration program pursuant to section eleven hundred 30 fifteen of the federal social security act. If the temporary employee is 31 working under contract with another provider certified, licensed or 32 approved under article thirty-six or article forty-six-B of this chap-
33 ter, such contract provider's appropriate direct observation and evalu-34 ation of the temporary employee, shall be considered sufficient for the 35 purposes of complying with this subdivision.

36 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.