receipt of such notification or at any time the department of health becomes aware of the conviction of such maintenance worker, shall have the authority, granted pursuant to subdivision one of this section, to have access to the criminal history records of such individual.

- 4. Any request for criminal history records made pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be accompanied by the fingerprints of the person who is the subject of such request.
- § 2. Subdivisions 3 and 5 of section 2899 of the public health law, as amended by chapter 331 of the laws of 2006, are amended to read as follows:
- 3. "Employee" shall mean any person to be employed or used by a provider, including those persons employed by a temporary employment agency, to provide direct care or supervision to patients or residents or an individual who serves as a maintenance employee as defined in section four hundred sixty-one-u of the social services law. Persons licensed pursuant to title eight of the education law or article twenty-eight-D of this chapter are excluded from the meaning of employee under this article. Such term shall not include volunteers.
- "Prospective employee" shall mean any individual, including a potential maintenance employee, not currently an employee, who files an application for employment as an employee with a provider and the provider has a reasonable expectation to hire such individual employee.
- 3. Subdivision 10 of section 2899-a of the public health law, as amended by section 7 of part RRR of chapter 58 of the laws of 2020, amended to read as follows:
- 10. Notwithstanding subdivision eleven of section eight hundred forty-five-b of the executive law, a certified home health agency, licensed home care services agency or long term home health care program 30 certified, licensed or approved under article thirty-six of this chapter a home care services agency exempt from certification or licensure 32 under article thirty-six of this chapter, a hospice program under article forty of this chapter, or an adult home, enriched housing program or residence for adults licensed under article seven of the social services 34 law, or an assisted living facility licensed under article forty-six-B of this chapter, or a health home, or any subcontractor of such health home, who contracts with or is approved or otherwise authorized by the department to provide health home services, including enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age, under section three hundred sixty-five-l 40 of the social services law, except for a health home, or any subcontractor of such health home, who contracts with or is approved or otherwise authorized by the department to provide health home services to all those enrolled pursuant to a diagnosis of a developmental disability as 44 defined in subdivision twenty-two of section 1.03 of the mental hygiene law; or any entity that provides home and community based services to enrollees who are under twenty-one years of age under a demonstration program pursuant to section eleven hundred fifteen of the federal social security act may temporarily approve a prospective employee while the results of the criminal history information check and the determination 50 are pending, upon the condition that the provider conducts appropriate 51 direct observation and evaluation of the temporary employee, while he or 52 she is temporarily employed, and the care recipient; provided, however, 53 that for a health home, or any subcontractor of a health home, who 54 contracts with or is approved or otherwise authorized by the department 55 to provide health home services, including enrollees who are under twen-56 ty-one years of age, under section three hundred sixty-five-1 of the
