IN ASSEMBLY

Introduced by M. of A. ABINANTI, PAULIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to prohibiting the sale of flavored tobacco products

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and 2 declares that there has been a proliferation of flavored tobacco products in recent years. Many of these products have fruit, chocolate or other flavors that are particularly attractive to children. According to public health experts, children are more likely to choose flavored tobacco products when they start using tobacco, and thus the existence 7 of these products increases the incidence of tobacco use among children. Moreover, the earlier that an individual begins using tobacco, the more 9 likely he or she will become addicted to tobacco products and will continue to use them throughout his or her lifetime. As a result, 10 11 flavored tobacco products result in increased tobacco use, increased 12 addiction, a greater incidence of tobacco-related illnesses, increased 13 health care costs, and more tobacco-related deaths. In 2009, the United 14 States Congress enacted legislation prohibiting the sale of flavored 15 cigarettes, but such action does not apply to other tobacco products. The legislature, therefore, finds and declares that flavored tobacco products, like flavored cigarettes, present a significant threat to 17 18 public health, and that the sale of flavored tobacco products must be 19 prohibited.

2. Article 13-F of the public health law is amended by adding a new 21 section 1399-aa-1 to read as follows:

22 § 1399-aa-1. Sale of flavored tobacco products prohibited. 1. 23 person shall sell or offer for sale in this state any tobacco product, 24 as defined in subdivision two of section four hundred seventy of the tax 25 law, or any component part thereof, including but not limited to, the tobacco, paper, roll or filter, which contains a natural or artificial constituent or additive that causes such tobacco product or its smoke to 3 have a characterizing flavor.

- 2. For the purposes of this section, the phrase "characterizing flavor" shall mean a distinguishable taste or aroma, including but not limited to any fruit, chocolate, vanilla, honey, candy, cocoa, dessert, alcoholic beverage, herb or spice flavoring, but shall not include tobacco, menthol, mint, or wintergreen. In no event shall a tobacco product or any component part thereof, including, but not limited to, the tobacco, paper, roll or filter be construed to have a characterizing flavor based solely on the use of additives or flavorings, or the provision of an ingredient list made available by any means.
- 3. Any person other than a manufacturer who violates the provisions of 14 this section shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars for each individual package of tobacco product sold or offered 15 16 for sale. A manufacturer may be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed 17 fifty thousand dollars for each brand or style of such manufacturer's tobacco products that is found to have been sold or offered for sale in 18 19 violation of this section on more than one occasion during any thirty 20 day period, provided, however, that with respect to a manufacturer, it 21 shall be an affirmative defense to a finding of violation pursuant to this section that such sale or offer of sale, as applicable, occurred 22 without the knowledge, consent, authorization and involvement, direct or 23 24 indirect, of such manufacturer. Violations of this section shall be enforced pursuant to section thirteen hundred ninety-nine-ff of this 25 article, except that any person may submit a complaint to an enforcement 27 officer that a violation of this section has occurred. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to restrict local jurisdictions 28 29 from enacting more stringent laws, rules or regulations regarding the 30 subject matter referenced in this section.
- 31 4. The prohibitions contained in subdivision one of this section shall 32 not apply to a cigar bar as defined in subdivision five of section thir-33 teen hundred ninety-nine-q of this chapter, provided such business does not admit any person under the age of eighteen years old. 34
- 35 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred fiftieth day after 36 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-37 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 38 completed on or before such date. 39
