AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to the boundaries of election districts and the designation of polling places

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 4-104 of the election law is amended by adding a 2 new subdivision 5-a to read as follows:

3 5-a. Whenever a contiguous property of a college or university 4 contains three hundred or more registrants (excluding registrants in 5 inactive status) who are registered to vote at an address on such 6 contiguous property, the polling place designated for such registrants 7 shall be on such contiguous property or at a location approved by the 8 college or university.

9 § 2. Paragraph a of subdivision 3 of section 4-100 of the election
10 law, as amended by chapter 659 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read 11 as follows:

12 a. Each election district shall be in compact form and may not be 13 partly within and partly without a ward, town, city, a village which has 14 five thousand or more inhabitants and is wholly within one town, the 15 contiguous property of a college or university which contains three 16 hundred or more registrants (excluding registrants in inactive status)
17 who are registered to vote at an address on such contiguous property, or 18 a county legislative, assembly, senatorial or congressional district.
19 Except as provided in paragraph b of this subdivision, election district 20 boundaries, other than those boundaries which are coterminous with the

1 boundaries of those political subdivisions and college or university
2 properties mentioned in this paragraph, must be streets, rivers, rail-3 road lines or other permanent characteristics of the landscape which are 4 clearly visible to any person without the need to use any technical or 5 mechanical device. An election district shall contain not more than nine 6 hundred fifty registrants (excluding registrants in inactive status) or,
7 with the approval of the county board of elections, not more than eleven 8 hundred fifty registrants (excluding registrants in inactive status), 9 but any election district may be divided for the convenience of the 10 voters.

11 § 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 8-600 of the election 12 law, as added by chapter 6 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 13 follows:

14 (a) The board of elections shall designate polling places for early 15 voting, which may include the offices of the board of elections, for 16 persons to vote early pursuant to this title. There shall be so desig-
17 nated at least one early voting polling place for every full increment 18 of fifty thousand registered voters in each county; provided, however, 19 the number of early voting polling places in a county shall not be 20 required to be greater than seven, and a county with fewer than fifty 21 thousand voters shall have at least one early voting polling place.
22 Whenever a contiguous property of a college or university contains three 23 hundred or more registrants (excluding registrants in inactive status)
24 who are registered to vote at an address on such contiguous property, 25 such contiguous property or a location approved by the college or 26 university shall be designated as an early voting polling place.

27 § 4. This act shall take effect January 1, 2024.
