1 applicable New York state statutes and regulations governing the prac-
2 tice of real estate brokers and salespersons. To establish compliance 3 with the continuing education requirements imposed by this section,
4 licensees shall provide an affidavit, in a form acceptable to the 5 department of state, establishing the nature of the continuing education
6 acquired and shall provide such further proof as required by the depart-
7 ment of state. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any 8 licensed real estate broker who is engaged full time in the real estate
9 business and who has been licensed under this article prior to July 10 first, two thousand eight for at least fifteen consecutive years imme-
11 diately preceding such renewal. For purposes of this subdivision, 12 "implicit bias" shall mean the attitudes or stereotypes that affect an 13 individual's understanding, actions and decisions in an unconscious 14 manner.

15 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 441 of the real proper-16 ty law, as amended by chapter 392 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 17 read as follows:

18 (a) No renewal license shall be issued any licensee under this article 19 for any license period commencing November first, nineteen hundred nine-20 ty-five unless such licensee shall have within the two year period imme-21 diately preceding such renewal attended at least [~~twenty-two~~] twenty-22 four and one-half hours which shall include at least three hours of 23 instruction pertaining to fair housing and/or discrimination in the sale 24 or rental of real property or an interest in real property, at least two 25 hours of instruction pertaining to implicit bias awareness and under-26 standing, at least two and one-half hours of instruction pertaining to 27 ethical business practices, at least one hour of instruction pertaining 28 to recent legal matters governing the practice of real estate brokers
29 and salespersons in New York which may include statutes, laws, regu-30 lations, rules, codes, department of state opinions and decisions, and 31 court decisions and at least one hour of instruction pertaining to the 32 law of agency except in the case of the initial two-year licensing term
33 for real estate salespersons, two hours of agency related instruction
34 must be completed, and successfully completed a continuing education 35 real estate course or courses approved by the secretary of state as to 36 method, content and supervision, which approval may be withdrawn if in 37 the opinion of the secretary of state such course or courses are not 38 being conducted properly as to method, content and supervision. For 39 those individuals licensed pursuant to subdivision six of section four 40 hundred forty-two-g of this article, in the individual's initial license 41 term, at least eleven hours of the required [~~twenty-two~~] twenty-four and 42 one-half hours of continuing education shall be completed during the 43 first year of the term. Of those eleven hours, three hours shall pertain 44 to applicable New York state statutes and regulations governing the 45 practice of real estate brokers and salespersons. To establish compli-46 ance with the continuing education requirements imposed by this section, 47 licensees shall provide an affidavit, in a form acceptable to the 48 department of state, establishing the nature of the continuing education
49 acquired and shall provide such further proof as required by the depart-
50 ment of state. For purposes of this subdivision, "implicit bias" shall 51 mean the attitudes or stereotypes that affect an individual's under-52 standing, actions and decisions in an unconscious manner.

53 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately, provided, however, that 54 section two of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the 55 same manner as section 1 of chapter 392 of the laws of 2019, takes 56 effect.
