AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing separate taxes on inheritance income and on gift income, amending the estate tax, and establishing a gift tax

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding two new sections 604 and
2	604-a to read as follows:
3	§ 604. Separate tax on inheritance income. (a) Definitions. For the
4	purposes of this section, the following terms have the following mean-
5	ings:
б	(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section,
7	"inheritance income" means any income excluded for federal tax purposes
8	from federal adjusted gross income pursuant to subsection (a) of section
9	one hundred two of the internal revenue code that is received from any
10	estate, regardless of the residence of the decedent of such estate,
11	after the federal estate tax has been paid on such income.
12	(2) "Family member" means "member of the family" as such term is
13	defined in paragraph (2) of subsection (e) of section two thousand thir-
14	ty-two-A of the internal revenue code.

1	residents and section six hundred thirty-seven-a of this article with
2	respect to nonresidents and part-year residents.
3	(c) Exclusions from inheritance income. (1) Educational or medical
4	expenses. A qualified transfer, as such term is defined in paragraph (2)
5	of subsection (e) of section two thousand five hundred three of the б	internal revenue code, shall not be considered inheritance income for
7	purposes of this section.
8	(2) Spousal transfers. Transfers of property from a spouse shall not
9	be considered inheritance income for purposes of this section.
10	(3) Retirement accounts. Transfers of property consisting of pensions,
11	health savings accounts, or retirement accounts established pursuant to
12	sections four hundred one, four hundred three, four hundred eight, four
13	hundred eight-A, or four hundred fifty-seven of the internal revenue
14	code shall not be considered inheritance income for purposes of this
15	section.
16	(4) Certain residences. An individual subject to the tax imposed by
17	this section may claim not more than one of the following exclusions
18	from inheritance income, and may not claim either such exclusion for
19	more than one transfer of real property:
20	(A) Primary residences. For real property transferred to a resident,
21	nonresident or part-year resident individual that (i) serves as the
22	primary residence of the transferor of such property or of the resident,
23	nonresident, or part-year resident transferee for the ten consecutive
24	years preceding such transfer or (ii) serves as the primary residence of
25	such transferee for the five consecutive years following such transfer,
26	up to one million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars of the value of
27	such property shall not be considered inheritance income for purposes of
28	this section.
29	(B) Residential homes purchased with a federal housing administration
30	insured mortgage. For a residential home transferred to a resident,
31	nonresident or part-year resident individual that was purchased with a
32	federal housing administration insured mortgage, up to seven hundred
33	fifty thousand dollars of the value of such home shall not be considered

(2) Family-owned business liquidity deferral. (A) A resident, nonresi- dent or part-year resident individual who in a taxable year receives</pre>

1	family-owned business, may elect to defer payment of the tax imposed by
2	this section until the time at which such individual sells such busi-
3	ness, provided that during the time of deferral interest will accrue on
4	the amount of such tax at a rate equal to the federal short-term rate as
5	provided under paragraph three of subsection (j) of section six hundred
6	ninety-seven of this article.
7	(B) For the purposes of this paragraph, "family-owned business" means
8	a business for which, at the time ownership of such business is trans-
9	ferred to a resident, nonresident or part-year resident individual, the
10	transferor of such business or family members of such transferor collec-
11	tively have retained majority ownership and have materially participated
12	in the operation of such business for the ten consecutive years proceed-
13	ing such transfer.
14	§ 604-a. Separate tax on gift income. (a) Definitions. For the
15	purposes of this section, the following terms have the following mean-
16	ings:
17	(1) "Gift income" means the value of any taxable gifts, as such term
18	is defined in section one thousand of this chapter, received by an indi-
19	vidual who is a New York state resident at the time of receiving such
20	gifts.
21	(2) "Family member" means "member of the family" as such term is
22	defined in paragraph (2) of subsection (e) of section two thousand thir-
23	ty-two-A of the internal revenue code.
24	(b) Imposition of separate tax. (1) In addition to any other tax
25	imposed by this article, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year a
26	separate tax on gift income received during such taxable year by any
27	resident or part-year resident individual.
28	(2) The tax imposed by this section shall be computed as provided in
29	section six hundred twenty-four-b of this article with respect to resi-
30	dents and section six hundred thirty-seven-b of this article with
31	respect to part-year residents.
32	(c) Exclusions from gift income. (1) Educational or medical expenses.
33	A qualified transfer, as such term is defined in paragraph (2) of
34	subsection (e) of section two thousand three of the internal revenue
35	code, shall not be considered gift income for purposes of this section.
36	(2) Spousal transfers. Transfers of property from a spouse shall not
37	be considered gift income for purposes of this section.
38	(3) Retirement accounts. Transfers of property consisting of pensions,
39	health savings accounts, or retirement accounts established pursuant to
40	sections four hundred one, four hundred three, four hundred eight, four
41	hundred eight-A, or four hundred fifty-seven of the internal revenue
42	code shall not be considered gift income for purposes of this section.
43	(4) Family farms. A transfer to a resident or part-year resident indi-
44	vidual from a donor who is a family member of such individual of farm-
45	land and farm equipment shall not be considered gift income for purposes
46	of this section provided that the total value of gift income (including
47	the value of such farmland and farm equipment) received by such individ-
48	ual from such donor does not exceed one million dollars.
49	(d) Family-owned business liquidity deferral. (1) A resident or part-
50	year resident individual who in a taxable year receives from a donor who
51	is a family member of such individual gift income totaling less than 52	five million dollars, over fifty percent of the total value of which
53	consists of equity interests in a family-owned business, may elect to
54	defer payment of the tax imposed by this section until the time at which
55	such individual sells such equity interests, provided that during the
56	time of deferral interest will accrue on the amount of such tax at a rate equal to the federal short-term rate as provided under paragraph 1 three of subsection (j) of section six hundred ninety-seven of this 2 3 article. (2) For the purposes of this subsection, "family-owned business" means 4 5 a business for which, at the time ownership of such business is transб ferred to a resident or part-year resident individual, the transferor of such business or family members of such transferor collectively have retained majority ownership and have materially participated in the 7 8 9 operation of such business for the ten consecutive years proceeding such 10 transfer. 11 § 2. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 620-b to read as 12 follows: 13 § 620-b. Credit against separate tax on inheritance income. A resident 14 shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by section six hundred four of this article in the amount of the estate tax imposed by article 15 16 twenty-six of this chapter or any estate or inheritance tax imposed by another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such 17 state, or the District of Columbia, upon any inheritance income, as such 18 19 term is defined in such section, received by such resident in a taxable 20 year. Such resident may elect to calculate the amount of such credit in 21 accordance with either subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section. (a) The amount of credit allowed pursuant to this section may be 22 23 calculated by multiplying the total amount of estate or inheritance tax 24 imposed by this state, another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia on the estate 25 26 from which such resident has received inheritance income by a fraction, 27 the numerator of which is the amount of inheritance income received by such resident from such estate and the denominator of which is the total 28 29 value of such estate after the federal estate tax has been paid but before the estate tax of this state, or any estate or inheritance tax 30 31 imposed by another state of the United States, a political subdivision 32 of such state, or the District of Columbia, has been paid. In order to 33 calculate such credit in accordance with this subsection, such resident 34 must know the total amount of estate or inheritance tax imposed on such 35 estate by this state, another state of the United States, a political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia and the total 36 value of such estate after the federal estate tax has been paid but 37 38 before the estate or inheritance tax of this state, another state of the 39 United States, a political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia, has been paid. 40 41 (b) The amount of credit allowed pursuant to this section may be 42 calculated as equal to the amount of estate tax or inheritance tax of 43 this state, another state of the United States, a political subdivision 44 of such state, or the District of Columbia, that would be imposed on the 45 estate from which such resident receives inheritance income as if such 46 inheritance income were equal to the total value of such estate. 47 § 3. The tax law is amended by adding two new sections 624-a and 624-b 48 to read as follows: § 624-a. Computation of separate tax on inheritance income received by 49 a resident individual. The amount of tax imposed under section six 50 51 hundred four of this article for any taxable year, with respect to inheritance income received by a resident individual, shall be deter-52 53 mined in accordance with the following table: 54 For taxable years beginning after two thousand twenty: 55 If the inheritance income is: The tax is: 56 Not over $250,000 0% of inheritance income
