2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 8, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. EPSTEIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Local Governments

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to accessory dwelling units; and to amend the executive law, in relation to including an accessory dwelling unit in the term housing accommodations in human rights law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new article 16 to read as follows:

ARTICLE 16

ACCESSORY DWELLING UNITS

Section 480. Definitions.

481. Accessory dwelling unit regulations and ordinances.

482. State review and enforcement.

483. Low and moderate income homeowners program.

484. Good cause eviction of a tenant.

485. Severability.

§ 480. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. "Accessory dwelling unit" shall mean an attached or a detached residential dwelling unit that provides complete independent living facilities for one or more persons which is located on a lot with a proposed or existing primary residence and shall include permanent provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking, and sanitation on the same lot as the single-family or multifamily dwelling is or will be situated.

2. "Accessory structure" shall mean a structure that is accessory and incidental to a dwelling located on the same lot.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD07619-02-1

1 3. "Living area" shall mean the interior habitable area of a dwelling 2 unit, including basements, cellars, and attics but does not include a 3 garage or any accessory structure.

4 4. "Local agency" shall mean a city, county, township, or borough.

5 5. "Low-income homeowners" shall mean homeowners with an income, 6 adjusted for family size, not exceeding eighty percent of the area medi-7 an income.

8 6. "Moderate-income homeowners" shall mean homeowners with an income, 9 adjusted for family size, not exceeding one hundred and twenty percent 10 of the area median income.

11 7. "Nonconforming zoning condition" shall mean a physical improvement 12 on a property that does not conform with current zoning standards.

13 8. "Passageway" shall mean a pathway that is unobstructed and extends 14 from a street to one entrance of the accessory dwelling unit.

15 9. "Proposed dwelling" shall mean a dwelling that is the subject of a 16 permit application and that meets the requirements for permitting.

17 10. "Impact fee" shall mean any payment imposed by a local agency for 18 the purpose of providing new or expanded public capital facilities or 19 infrastructure required to serve a new development.

20 11. "Division" shall mean the New York state division of homes and 21 community renewal.

22 § 481. Accessory dwelling unit regulations and ordinances. 1.
23 Notwithstanding any law, rule, policy, regulation or ordinance to the 24 contrary, a local agency shall, by ordinance, provide for the creation 25 of accessory dwelling units. Such ordinance shall:

26 (a) Designate areas within the jurisdiction of the local agency where 27 accessory dwelling units shall be permitted. Designated areas shall 28 include all areas zoned for single-family or multifamily residential 29 use, and all lots with an existing residential use.

30 (b) Authorize the creation of at least one accessory dwelling unit per 31 lot in designated areas.

32 (c) Provide reasonable standards for accessory dwelling units that 33 include, but are not limited to height, landscape, architectural review 34 and maximum size of a unit. In no case shall such standards unnecessar-35 ily impair the creation of accessory dwelling units.

36 (d) Require accessory dwelling units to comply with the following:

37 (i) Such unit may be rented separate from the primary residence, but 38 shall not be sold or otherwise conveyed separate from the primary resi-39 dence;

40 (ii) Such unit shall be located on a lot that includes a proposed or 41 existing residential dwelling;

42 (iii) Such unit shall not be rented for a term less than thirty days; 43 and

44 (iv) Such unit shall be attached to or located within the proposed or 45 existing primary dwelling, including but not limited to attached 46 garages, storage areas, basements, cellars, similar spaces, or an acces-47 sory structure or detached from the proposed or existing primary dwell-48 ing and located on the same lot as the proposed or existing primary 49 dwelling.

50 (v) If there is an existing primary dwelling, the total floor area of 51 an attached accessory dwelling unit shall not exceed fifty percent of 52 the existing primary dwelling, unless such limit would prevent the 53 creation of an accessory dwelling unit that is no greater than six 54 hundred squared feet.

55 2. A local agency shall not establish by ordinance any of the follow-56 ing:

1 (a) A minimum square footage requirement for either an attached or 2 detached accessory dwelling unit greater than two hundred square feet;

3 (b) A maximum square footage requirement for either an attached or 4 detached accessory dwelling unit that is less than fifteen hundred 5 square feet;

6 (c) Any other minimum or maximum size for an accessory dwelling unit, 7 based upon a percentage of the proposed or existing primary dwelling, or 8 limits on lot coverage, floor area ratio, open space, and minimum lot 9 size, for either an attached or detached dwelling that does not permit 10 at least an eight hundred square foot accessory dwelling unit with four-11 foot side and rear yard setbacks to be constructed in compliance with 12 other local development standards;

13 (d) A ceiling height requirement greater than seven feet;

14 (e) If an accessory dwelling unit or a portion thereof is below curb 15 level, a requirement that more than two feet of such unit's height be 16 above curb level;

17 (f) Any requirement that a passageway exist or be constructed in 18 conjunction with the creation of an accessory dwelling unit; and 19 (g) Any setback for an existing living area or accessory structure or 20 a structure constructed in the same location and to the same dimensions 21 as an existing structure that is converted to an accessory dwelling unit 22 or to a portion of an accessory dwelling unit, or any setback of more 23 than four feet from the side and rear lot lines for an accessory dwell-24 ing unit that is not converted from an existing structure or a new 25 structure constructed in the same location and to the same dimensions as 26 an existing structure.

27 3. No ordinance for the creation of accessory dwelling units pursuant 28 to subdivision one of this section shall be considered in the applica-29 tion of any local ordinance, policy, or program to limit residential 30 growth.

31 4. No parking requirement shall be imposed on an accessory dwelling 32 unit.

33 5. The local agency shall not require that off-street parking spaces 34 be replaced if a garage, carport, or covered parking structure is demol-35 ished in conjunction with the construction of an accessory dwelling unit 36 or converted to an accessory dwelling unit.

37 6. Notwithstanding any local ordinance regulating the issuance of 38 variances or special use permits, a permit application to create an 39 accessory dwelling unit in conformance with the local ordinance shall be 40 considered ministerially without discretionary review or a hearing. If 41 there is an existing single-family or multifamily dwelling on the lot, 42 the permitting agency shall act on the application to create an accesso-43 ry dwelling unit within sixty days from the date the local agency 44 receives a completed application. If the permit application to create an 45 accessory dwelling unit is submitted with a permit application to create 46 a new residential dwelling on the lot, the permitting agency may delay 47 acting on the permit application for the accessory dwelling unit until 48 the permitting agency acts on the permit application to create the new 49 dwelling, but the application to create the accessory dwelling unit 50 shall be considered without discretionary review or hearing. If the 51 applicant requests a delay, the sixty day time period shall be tolled 52 for the period of the delay. A local agency may charge a fee not to 53 exceed one thousand dollars for the reimbursement of the actual costs 54 such local agency incurs pursuant to this subdivision, including the 55 costs related to adopting or amending any ordinance that provide for the 56 creation of an accessory dwelling unit.

7. Municipalities shall establish an administrative appeal process for the denial of a permit for accessory dwelling units. When a permit to create an accessory dwelling unit pursuant to an ordinance adopted pursuant to this section is denied, the agency shall issue a notice of denial which shall contain the reason such permit application was denied and instructions on how the applicant may appeal such denial. All appeals shall be submitted to the issuing agency, or any decisional body granting such permits, or any other appellate board or body, in writing within thirty days of such denial.

8. No other local ordinance, policy, or regulation shall be the basis for the denial of a building permit or a use permit under this section.

9. If a local agency has an existing accessory dwelling unit ordinance that fails to meet the requirements of this section, that ordinance shall be null and void. Such local agency shall thereafter apply the standards established in this section for the approval of accessory dwelling unit until such local agency adopts an ordinance that complies with this section.

10. A local agency may amend its zoning ordinance or general plan to incorporate the policies, procedures, and provisions applicable to the creation of an accessory dwelling unit if such provisions are consistent with this section.

11. The local agency shall ensure that accessory dwelling units are not counted toward the allowable residential density, or any requirement respecting lot coverage or open space, for the lot upon which the accessory dwelling unit is located under the existing zoning designation for such lot. The local agency shall also ensure that accessory dwelling units are for a residential use that is consistent with the existing zoning designation for the lot. The accessory dwelling unit shall not be considered in the application of any local ordinance, policy, or program to limit residential growth.

12. No provision of the multiple dwelling law shall apply to an accessory dwelling unit, irrespective to whether such provisions of such law apply to the primary dwelling, and a dwelling otherwise exempt from the provisions of the multiple dwelling law shall not fall under the provisions of such law as a result of the addition of an accessory dwelling unit.

13. A local agency may require no more than one point of exterior access by door from the proposed or existing residential dwelling.

14. A local agency shall not require, as a condition for ministerial approval of a permit application for the creation of an accessory dwelling unit, the correction of nonconforming zoning conditions.

15. Where an accessory dwelling unit requires a new or separate utility connection directly between the accessory dwelling unit and the utility, the connection may be subject to a connection fee or capacity charge that shall be proportionate to the burden of the proposed accessory dwelling unit, based upon either its size or the number of its plumbing fixtures upon the water or sewer system. Such fee or charge shall not exceed the reasonable cost of providing such utility connection. A local agency shall not impose any other impact fee in connection with an accessory dwelling unit.

16. The first lawful occupancy of an accessory dwelling unit shall occur at a time when a unit in the primary dwelling is owner-occupied, and such owner-occupation must continue for at least one year following the first legal occupancy of the accessory dwelling unit. A local agency shall not impose any other owner occupancy requirement for either the primary dwelling or the accessory dwelling unit.

1 17. A local agency shall not impose any health or safety requirement 2 on accessory dwelling units that is not necessary to protect the health 3 and safety of the occupants of such a dwelling.

4 18. A local agency shall not issue a certificate of occupancy or its 5 equivalent for an accessory dwelling unit before the local agency issues 6 a certificate of occupancy or its equivalent for the primary dwelling.

7 19. A local agency shall adopt an ordinance pursuant to this section 8 within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of this article.

9 § 482. State review and enforcement. 1. A local agency shall submit a 10 copy of the ordinance adopted pursuant to section four hundred eighty-11 one of this article to the division within thirty days after such 12 adoption.

13 2. (a) Within sixty days of receipt of a local agency's ordinance, or 14 sixty days after expiration of the time to submit said ordinance, the 15 division shall submit written findings to the local agency as to whether 16 the local agency's ordinance complies with this article. Such findings 17 shall include a determination as to whether the local agency's ordinance 18 contains rules that are not reasonable within the meaning of paragraph 19 (c) of subdivision one of section four hundred eighty-one of this arti-20 cle. If the division finds that the local agency's ordinance does not 21 comply with this article, such division shall notify such local agency 22 and shall provide such local agency with a reasonable time, no longer 23 than thirty days, to respond to the findings before taking any other 24 action authorized under this section.

25 (b) The local agency shall consider the findings made by the division 26 pursuant to this subdivision and shall do one of the following:

27 (i) Amend the ordinance to comply with the findings of the division; 28 or

29 (ii) Adopt the ordinance without amendments to comply with the find-30 ings of the division. The local agency shall include findings in its 31 resolution adopting such ordinance that explain the reasons the local 32 agency believes that the ordinance complies with this article despite 33 the findings of the division.

34 3. (a) If, within thirty days of the local agency's response to the 35 division's findings, or thirty days after the expiration of the local 36 agency's time to respond, the division determines that the ordinance 37 does not comply with this article, the division shall:

38 (i) notify the local agency and the attorney general that the local 39 agency is in violation of state law; and 40 (ii) revise the ordinance to comply with this article and direct the 41 local agency to adopt it.

42 (b) Where a local agency is in violation of state law, the attorney 43 general may bring a civil action to enforce the requirements of this 44 article.

45 4. The division may review, adopt, amend, or repeal guidelines to 46 implement uniform standards or criteria that supplement or clarify the 47 terms, references, and standards set forth in this article.

48 5. Within one hundred days of the effective date of this article, the 49 division shall promulgate a model local ordinance that conforms to the 50 requirements of this article.

51 6. The division shall issue an annual report, on or before July first 52 of each year, that summarizes:

53 (a) the activities the division has taken pursuant to this section;

54 (b) local agencies' compliance with the terms of this article; and 55 (c) the development of accessory dwelling units in the state.

1 § 483. Low and moderate income homeowners program. 1. Within one 2 hundred eighty days of the effective date of this article, the division 3 shall establish a lending program to assist low-income homeowners and 4 moderate-income homeowners in securing financing for the creation of 5 accessory dwelling units.

6 2. An accessory dwelling unit financed with the assistance of such 7 program shall be offered for rent at a below-market rate for a period of 8 fifteen years.

9 3. The division shall promulgate program criteria and guidelines 10 necessary to carry out such program.

11 4. Such program shall be funded through capital projects appropri-12 ations and reappropriations set forth in the state fiscal year housing 13 program.

14 5. The division shall issue an annual report, on or before July first 15 of each year, that includes an itemized list of each project financed 16 through the program, including a brief description of the project, 17 street address, and county. Such report shall also summarize the demo-18 graphic characteristics of participating homeowners, including income, 19 race, ethnicity, and sex.

20 6. Within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of this arti-21 cle, the division shall establish a program to provide technical assist-22 ance to all homeowners seeking to create an accessory dwelling unit.

23 § 484. Good cause eviction of a tenant. 1. As used in this section, 24 the following terms shall have the following meanings:

25 (a) "Landlord" shall mean any owner, lessor, sublessor, assignor, or 26 other person receiving or entitled to receive rent for the occupancy of 27 any accessory dwelling unit or an agent of any of the foregoing.

28 (b) "Tenant" shall mean a tenant, sub-tenant, lessee, sublessee, 29 assignee of an accessory dwelling unit.

30 (c) "Rent" shall mean any consideration, including any bonus, benefit 31 or gratuity demanded or received for or in connection with the 32 possession, use or occupancy of an accessory dwelling unit or the 33 execution or transfer of a lease for such a unit.

34 (d) "Disabled person" shall mean a person who has an impairment which 35 results from anatomical, physiological or psychological conditions, 36 other than addiction to alcohol, gambling, or any controlled substance, 37 which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory 38 diagnostic techniques, and which are expected to be permanent and which 39 substantially limit one or more of such person's major life activities.

40 2. This section shall apply to all accessory dwelling units except:

41 (a) premises sublet pursuant to section two hundred twenty-six-b of 42 this chapter, or otherwise, where the sublessor seeks in good faith to 43 recover possession of such housing accommodation for their own personal 44 use and occupancy;

45 (b) premises the possession, use or occupancy of which is solely inci-46 dent to employment and such employment is being lawfully terminated; and

47 (c) premises otherwise subject to regulation of rents or evictions 48 pursuant to state or federal law to the extent that such state or feder-49 al law requires good cause for termination or non-renewal of such tenan-50 cies.

51 3. No landlord shall, by action to evict or to recover possession, by 52 exclusion from possession, by failure to renew any lease, or otherwise, 53 remove any tenant from an accessory dwelling unit except for good cause 54 pursuant to subdivision four of this section.

55 4. (a) No landlord shall remove a tenant from any accessory dwelling 56 unit, or attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that the tenant has no written lease or that the lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction entered in an appropriate judicial action or proceeding in which the petitioner or plaintiff has established one of the following grounds as good cause for removal or eviction:

(i) The tenant has failed to pay rent due and owing, provided however that the rent due and owing, or any part thereof, did not result from a rent increase which is unreasonable or imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of this section. In determining whether all or part of the rent due and owing is the result of an unreasonable rent increase, it shall be a rebuttable presumption that the rent for a dwelling not protected by rent regulation is unreasonable if said rent has been increased in any calendar year by a percentage exceeding either three percent or one and one-half times the annual percentage change in the consumer price index for the region in which the housing accommodation is located, as established the August preceding the calendar year in question, whichever is greater;

(ii) The tenant is violating a substantial obligation of his or her tenancy, other than the obligation to surrender possession, and after receiving written notice from the landlord requiring that the substantial violation be cured, the tenant has failed to cure such violation within ten days of receipt of such notice, provided however, that the obligation of tenancy for which violation is claimed was not imposed for the purpose of circumventing the intent of this section;

(iii) The tenant is committing or permitting a nuisance in such accessory dwelling unit, or is damaging the unit, whether maliciously, intentionally, recklessly, or negligently; or the tenant's conduct is such as to interfere with the comfort of the landlord or other tenants or occupants of the same or adjacent buildings or structures;

(iv) Occupancy of accessory dwelling unit by the tenant is in violation of or causes a violation of law and the landlord is subject to civil or criminal penalties therefore; provided however that an agency of the state or municipality having jurisdiction has issued an order requiring the tenant to vacate the unit. No tenant shall be removed from possession of a unit on such ground unless the court finds that the cure of the violation of law requires the removal of the tenant and that the landlord did not through neglect or deliberate action or failure to act create the condition necessitating the vacate order. In instances where the landlord does not undertake to cure conditions of the housing accommodation causing such violation of the law, the tenant shall have the right to pay or secure payment in a manner satisfactory to the court, to cure such violation provided that any tenant expenditures shall be applied against rent to which the landlord is entitled. In instances where removal of a tenant is absolutely essential to his or her health and safety, the removal of the tenant shall be without prejudice to any leasehold interest or other right of occupancy the tenant may have and the tenant shall be entitled to resume possession at such time as the dangerous conditions have been removed. Nothing herein shall abrogate or otherwise limit the right of a tenant to bring an action for monetary damages against the landlord to compel compliance by the landlord with all applicable state or municipal laws or housing codes;

(v) The tenant is using or permitting the accessory dwelling unit to be used for an illegal purpose;

(vi) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the accessory dwelling unit for the purpose of making necessary repairs or

1 improvements required by law or for the purpose of showing the housing 2 accommodation to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or other person 3 having a legitimate interest therein; or

4 (vii) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of an 5 accessory dwelling unit because of immediate and compelling necessity 6 for his or her own personal use and occupancy as his or her principal 7 residence, or the personal use and occupancy as principal residence of 8 his or her spouse, parent, child, stepchild, father-in-law or mother-in-9 law, when no other suitable accommodation in such dwelling is available.
10 This paragraph shall permit recovery of only one accessory dwelling unit 11 and shall not apply to an accessory dwelling unit occupied by a tenant 12 who is sixty-two years of age or older or who is a disabled person.

13 (b) A tenant required to surrender a housing accommodation by virtue 14 of the operation of subparagraph (vii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivi-15 sion shall have a cause of action in any court of competent jurisdiction 16 for damages, declaratory, and injunctive relief against a landlord or 17 purchaser of the premises who makes a fraudulent statement regarding a 18 proposed use of the accessory dwelling unit. In any action or proceeding 19 brought pursuant to this paragraph, a prevailing tenant shall be enti-20 tled to recovery of actual damages, and reasonable attorneys' fees.

21 (c) Nothing in this section shall abrogate or limit the tenant's right 22 pursuant to section seven hundred fifty-one of the real property actions 23 and proceedings law to permanently stay the issuance or execution of a 24 warrant or eviction in a summary proceeding, whether characterized as a 25 nonpayment, objectionable tenancy, or holdover proceeding, the underly-26 ing basis of which is the nonpayment of rent, so long as the tenant 27 complies with the procedural requirements of section seven hundred 28 fifty-one of the real property actions and proceedings law.

29 5. No action shall be maintainable and no judgment of possession shall 30 be entered for accessory dwelling units pursuant to this section unless 31 the landlord has complied with any and all applicable laws governing 32 such action or proceeding and has complied with any and all applicable 33 laws governing notice to tenants, including without limitation the 34 manner and the time of service of such notice and the contents of such 35 notice.

36 6. Any agreement by a tenant heretofore or hereinafter entered into in 37 a written lease or other rental agreement waiving or modifying their 38 rights as set forth in this section shall be void as contrary to public 39 policy.

40 § 485. Severability. In the event it is determined by a court of 41 competent jurisdiction that any phrase, clause, part, subdivision, para-42 graph or section, or any of the provisions of this article, is unconsti-43 tutional or otherwise invalid or inoperative, such determination shall 44 not affect the validity or effect of the remaining provisions of this 45 article.

46 § 2. Section 292 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 47 subdivision 39 to read as follows:

48 39. The term "housing accommodation" as used in this article shall 49 include an accessory dwelling unit as defined in subdivision one of 50 section four hundred eighty of the real property law.

51 § 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 296 of the executive 52 law, as separately amended by chapters 8 and 176 of the laws of 2019, is 53 amended to read as follows:

54 (a) For an employer or licensing agency, because of an individual's 55 age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender 56 identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing

1 genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or status as a 2 victim of domestic violence, to refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to 3 discharge from employment such individual or to discriminate against 4 such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of 5 employment.

6 In the case of an accessory dwelling unit as defined in 7 subdivision one of section four hundred eighty of the real property law, 8 the exemption from the provisions of this paragraph for the rental of a 9 housing accommodation in a building which contains housing accommo-10 dations for not more than two families living independently of each 11 other, if the owner resides in one of such accommodations, shall not 12 apply.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
