dian of an infant, a guardian appointed pursuant to article eighty-one 1 2 of the mental hygiene law, or a conservator of a conservatee and provided, further, that any charge for delivering an original mammogram 3 4 pursuant to this section shall not exceed the documented costs associ-5 ated therewith. However, the reasonable charge for paper copies shall б not exceed seventy-five cents per page and the reasonable charge for 7 copies provided in an electronic format shall be the lesser of either 8 seventy-five cents per page or a total of one hundred dollars. Α 9 release of records under this section shall not be denied solely because 10 of inability to pay. No charge may be imposed under this section for 11 providing, releasing, or delivering medical records or copies of medical records where requested for the purpose of supporting an application, 12 13 claim or appeal for any government benefit or program, provided that, 14 where a provider maintains medical records in electronic form, it shall 15 provide the copy in either electronic or paper form, as required by the 16 government benefit or program, or at the patient's request. § 2. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 2 of section 18 of the public health 17 18 law, as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read 19 as follows: 20 (e) The provider may impose a reasonable charge for all inspections 21 and copies, not exceeding the costs incurred by such provider, provided, 22 however, that a provider may not impose a charge for copying an original 23 mammogram when the original has been furnished to any qualified person 24 and provided, further, that any charge for furnishing an original mammo-25 gram pursuant to this section shall not exceed the documented costs 26 associated therewith. However, the reasonable charge for paper copies 27 shall not exceed seventy-five cents per page and the reasonable charge 28 for copies provided in an electronic format shall be the lesser of either seventy-five cents per page or a total of one hundred dollars. A 29 30 qualified person shall not be denied access to patient information sole-31 ly because of inability to pay. No charge may be imposed under this 32 section for providing, releasing, or delivering patient information or 33 copies of patient information where requested for the purpose of 34 supporting an application, claim or appeal for any government benefit or 35 program, provided that, where a provider maintains patient information

36 in electronic form, it shall provide the copy in either electronic or 37 paper form, as required by the government benefit or program, or at the 38 patient's request.

39 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
