§ 3. Subdivision 3 of section 304.1 of the family court act, as amended by section 59 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

3. The detention of a child under [~~ten~~] thirteen years of age in a secure detention facility shall not be directed under any of the provisions of this article.

§ 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 306.1 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 645 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

(a) the child is [~~eleven~~] at least twelve years of age [~~or older~~] and the crime which is the subject of the arrest or which is charged in the petition constitutes a class A or B felony; or

§ 5. Subdivision 12 of section 308.1 of the family court act, as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

12. The probation service shall certify to the division of criminal justice services and to the appropriate police department or law enforcement agency whenever it adjusts a case in which the potential respondent's fingerprints were taken pursuant to section 306.1 in any manner other than the filing of a petition for juvenile delinquency for an act which, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony, provided, however, in the case of a child ~~[eleven or]~~ twelve years of age, such certification shall be made only if the act would constitute a class A or B felony.

§ 6. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 2 of section 353.2 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 124 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

(f) make restitution or perform services for the public good pursuant to section 353.6~~[, provided the respondent is over ten years of age]~~;

§ 7. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 353.6 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 877 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of the dispositional hearing ~~[in cases involving respondents over ten years of age]~~ the court may:

§ 8. Subdivisions 1, 2, 6 and 7 of section 354.1 of the family court act, subdivision 1 as added by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982 and subdivisions 2, 6 and 7 as amended by chapter 645 of the laws of 1996, are amended to read as follows:

1. If a person whose fingerprints, palmprints or photographs were taken pursuant to section 306.1 or was initially fingerprinted as a juvenile offender and the action is subsequently removed to a family court pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of the criminal procedure law is adjudicated to be a juvenile delinquent for a felony, the family court shall forward or cause to be forwarded to the division of criminal justice services notification of such adjudication and such related information as may be required by such division, provided, however, in the case of a person ~~[eleven or]~~ twelve years of age such notification shall be provided only if the act upon which the adjudication is based would constitute a class A or B felony.

2. If a person whose fingerprints, palmprints or photographs were taken pursuant to section 306.1 or was initially fingerprinted as a juvenile offender and the action is subsequently removed to family court pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of the criminal procedure law has had all petitions disposed of by the family court in any manner other than an adjudication of juvenile delinquency for a felony, but in the case of acts committed when such person was ~~[eleven or]~~ twelve years of age which would constitute a class A or B felony only, all such fingerprints, palmprints, photographs, and copies thereof, and all information relating to such allegations obtained by the division of criminal justice services pursuant to section 306.1 shall be destroyed forthwith. The clerk of the court shall notify the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services and the heads of all police departments and law enforcement agencies having copies of such records, who shall destroy such records without unnecessary delay.

6. If a person fingerprinted pursuant to section 306.1 and subsequently adjudicated a juvenile delinquent for a felony, but in the case of acts committed when such a person was ~~[eleven or]~~ twelve years of age which would constitute a class A or B felony only, is subsequently convicted of a crime, all fingerprints and related information obtained by the division of criminal justice services pursuant to such section and not destroyed pursuant to subdivisions two, five and seven or subdi-

1 vision twelve of section 308.1 shall become part of such division's 2 permanent adult criminal record for that person, notwithstanding section 3 381.2 or 381.3.

4 7. When a person fingerprinted pursuant to section 306.1 and subse-
5 quently adjudicated a juvenile delinquent for a felony, but in the case 6 of acts committed when such person was [~~eleven or~~] twelve years of age 7 which would constitute a class A or B felony only, reaches the age of 8 twenty-one, or has been discharged from placement under this act for at 9 least three years, whichever occurs later, and has no criminal 10 convictions or pending criminal actions which ultimately terminate in a 11 criminal conviction, all fingerprints, palmprints, photographs, and 12 related information and copies thereof obtained pursuant to section 13 306.1 in the possession of the division of criminal justice services, 14 any police department, law enforcement agency or any other agency shall 15 be destroyed forthwith. The division of criminal justice services shall 16 notify the agency or agencies which forwarded fingerprints to such divi-17 sion pursuant to section 306.1 of their obligation to destroy those 18 records in their possession. In the case of a pending criminal action 19 which does not terminate in a criminal conviction, such records shall be 20 destroyed forthwith upon such determination.

21 § 9. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 409-a of the social 22 services law, as amended by chapter 87 of the laws of 1993, subparagraph 23 (i) as amended by chapter 342 of the laws of 2010, and subparagraph (ii) 24 as amended by section 22 of part C of chapter 83 of the laws of 2002, is 25 amended to read as follows:

26 (a) A social services official shall provide preventive services to a 27 child and his or her family, in accordance with the family's service 28 plan as required by section four hundred nine-e of this chapter and the 29 social services district's child welfare services plan submitted and 30 approved pursuant to section four hundred nine-d of this chapter, upon a 31 finding by such official that (i) the child will be placed, returned to 32 or continued in foster care unless such services are provided and that 33 it is reasonable to believe that by providing such services the child 34 will be able to remain with or be returned to his or her family, and for 35 a former foster care youth under the age of twenty-one who was previous-36 ly placed in the care and custody or custody and guardianship of the 37 local commissioner of social services or other officer, board or depart-38 ment authorized to receive children as public charges where it is 39 reasonable to believe that by providing such services the former foster 40 care youth will avoid a return to foster care or (ii) the child is the 41 subject of a petition under article seven of the family court act [~~, or~~ 42 ~~has been determined by the assessment service established pursuant to~~ 43 ~~section two hundred forty-three-a of the executive law,~~] or by the 44 probation service [~~where no such assessment service has been desig-~~ 45 ~~nated~~], to be at risk of being the subject of such a petition, and the 46 social services official determines that the child is at risk of place-47 ment into foster care or (iii) the child is under the age of twelve, and 48 their behavior but for their age would bring them within the jurisdic-49 tion of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court 50 act, and the social services official determines that the child is at 51 risk of placement into foster care. Such finding shall be entered in the 52 child's uniform case record established and maintained pursuant to 53 section four hundred nine-f of this [~~chapter~~] article. The commissioner 54 shall promulgate regulations to assist social services officials in 55 making determinations of eligibility for mandated preventive services 56 pursuant to this subparagraph.

§ 10. Article 6 of the social services law is amended by adding a new title 12-A to read as follows:

TITLE 12-A

DIFFERENTIAL RESPONSE PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN UNDER TWELVE

Section 458-o. Differential response programs for children under twelve.

§ 458-o. Differential response programs for children under twelve. 1. Each local social services district, upon the approval of the office of children and family services, shall establish a program that implements differential responses to provide services to children under twelve years of age whose behavior, but for their age, would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court act. Such programs shall establish and utilize appropriate assessments and services for youth, in order to help reduce future interaction with the juvenile justice and/or child welfare systems. Such assessments shall be used to determine what, if any, services are needed, and such services shall utilize the least restrictive intervention protocols available. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall apply only to those cases involving children under twelve years of age whose behavior but for their age would bring them within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of the family court act.

2. To establish a differential response program, each local social services district, as part of their district-wide child welfare services plan, as defined in section four hundred nine-d of this article, shall include a plan to serve the youth described in subdivision one of this section while utilizing certain criteria to be promulgated in regulation by the office of children and family services including but not limited to the following:

(a) the types of assessment to determine whether services are necessary, services and interventions to be provided to children and families included in the differential response program for such children and a description of how the services will be offered. Such services shall include, but not be limited to, those services set forth in section four hundred nine-a of this article and section four hundred fifty-eight-m of this article;

(b) a description of the process to be followed for planning and monitoring the services provided under the differential responses;

(c) a description of how the differential response program will enhance the ability of the district to reduce future interactions with the juvenile justice and child welfare systems, ensure the safety and well-being of such children, and ways to ensure such program addresses adverse impacts on minority communities;

(d) a description of the training that will be provided to district and any non-district staff to be used in the differential response program including, but not limited to, a description of the training set forth in section eight hundred forty of the executive law for police officers whose main responsibilities are juveniles and the laws pertaining thereto; and

(e) a description of any additional funding that may be utilized to enhance the differential response program.

3. (a) All records created as part of the differential response program for children described in subdivision one of this section shall include, but not be limited to, the initial and any subsequent reasons why a differential response is recommended for a child, documentation of all services offered and accepted by such child and their family, the

1 plan for supportive services for the child and their family, and all 2 evaluations and assessments of the child's progress.

3 (b) Records created under the differential response program for the 4 children described in subdivision one of this section shall be main-5 tained for five years after a child is referred to a local social 6 services district for intervention as described in this section or until 7 the child reaches the age of twelve, whichever is sooner.

8 (c) All reports assigned to, and records created under, the differen-9 tial response program, including but not limited to reports made or 10 written as well as any other information obtained or photographs taken 11 concerning such reports or records shall be confidential, shall be made 12 available only to an entity listed below which has been involved in the 13 particular youth's service delivery, and shall not be redisclosed, 14 except as authorized pursuant to subparagraph (vi) of this paragraph, 15 utilizing non-identifying aggregated information. Such entities shall 16 include:

17 (i) staff of the office of children and family services and persons 18 designated by the office of children and family services;

19 (ii) the social services district responsible for the differential 20 response program for children described in subdivision one of this 21 section;

22 (iii) a community-based agency that has a contract with the social 23 services district to carry out activities for the district under the 24 differential response program;

25 (iv) a provider of services under the differential response program;

26 (v) the child, or to their parent or legal guardian, and the attorney 27 for the child; and

28 (vi) the office of children and family services and social services 29 districts for the sole purpose of preparing the report required pursuant 30 to subdivision five of this section.

31 4. Expenditures by a social services district pursuant to this section 32 shall be reimbursable from the annual appropriations available for 33 social services district expenditures for child welfare services which 34 shall include, but not be limited to, preventive services provided 35 pursuant to section four hundred nine-a of this article, funding for 36 family support services programs as set forth in section four hundred 37 fifty-eight-n of this article and supervision and treatment services for 38 juveniles program as set forth in section five hundred twenty-nine-b of 39 the executive law. Nothing shall preclude a social services district 40 from seeking private funds for support of their differential response 41 programs.

42 5. The office of children and family services shall report on the 43 differential response programs established pursuant to this section, 44 including the local social services district's efforts to reduce future 45 interactions with the juvenile justice and child welfare systems, how 46 the local social districts are ensuring the safety and well-being of 47 such children, and how the program is addressing adverse impacts on 48 minority communities, on an annual basis beginning one year from the 49 start of every local social services district's differential response 50 program.

51 § 11. Subdivision 1 of section 458-m of the social services law, as 52 added by section 18-b of part K of chapter 56 of the laws of 2019, is 53 amended to read as follows:

54 1. As used in this title, the term "family support services programs" 55 shall mean a program established pursuant to this title to provide 56 community-based supportive services to children and families with the

1 goal of (i) preventing a child from being adjudicated a person in need 2 of supervision and help prevent the out of home placements of such youth 3 or (ii) preventing a petition from being filed under article seven of 4 the family court act, or (iii) to help reduce future interaction with 5 the juvenile justice and/or child welfare system for children under 6 twelve years of age whose behavior but for their age would bring them 7 within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of 8 the family court act.

9 § 12. Paragraph (j) of subdivision 1 of section 840 of the executive 10 law, as amended by chapter 617 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read 11 as follows:

12 (j) (1) Development, maintenance and dissemination of written policies 13 and procedures pursuant to title six of article six of the social 14 services law and applicable provisions of article ten of the family 15 court act, regarding the mandatory reporting of child abuse or neglect, 16 reporting procedures and obligations of persons required to report, 17 provisions for taking a child into protective custody, mandatory report-18 ing of deaths, immunity from liability, penalties for failure to report 19 and obligations for the provision of services and procedures necessary 20 to safeguard the life or health of the child; (2) establishment and 21 implementation on an ongoing basis, of a training program for all 22 current and new police officers regarding the policies and procedures 23 established pursuant to this paragraph; and (3) establishment of a 24 training program for police officers whose main responsibilities are 25 juveniles and the laws pertaining thereto, including children under 26 twelve years of age whose behavior but for their age would bring them 27 within the jurisdiction of the family court pursuant to article three of 28 the family court act, which training program shall be successfully 29 completed before such officers are accredited pursuant to section eight 30 hundred forty-six-h of this chapter.

31 § 13. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become 32 a law; provided, however, that the amendments to subparagraph (ii) of 33 paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 409-a of the social services 34 law made by section nine of this act shall not affect the expiration of 35 such subparagraph and shall be deemed to expire therewith.
