IN ASSEMBLY

February 10, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. PAULIN, DINOWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to clarifying the mandatory time within which the public service commission must act upon petitions submitted by regulated entities and the citizenry

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public service law is amended by adding a new section 28 to read as follows:

§ 28. Petitions; time period for action to be taken. 1. For the purposes of this section, the term:

(a) "customer" shall mean a customer or consumer of a utility service that is regulated pursuant to this chapter, who shall be either an individual; a group of individuals; the mayor of a city; the trustees of a village; the town board of a town; or the chief executive office or the legislative body of a county. For the purposes of this subdivision, "customer" shall include the division of consumer protection of the department of state.

(b) "petition" shall mean any petition or complaint filed with or submitted to the commission pursuant to this chapter by a customer, alleging or relating to:

(i) the failure or omitting to do anything required of a public utility company by any provision of this chapter, or by any regulations or an order of the commission;

(ii) any actions taken by a public utility company, its officers, employees or agents that are contrary to or in violation of the provisions of this chapter; the regulations or an order of the commission; or the terms or conditions of the franchise or charter of the public utility company;

(iii) rate charges or classification of service; or

(iv) the adequacy, efficiency or reliability of service.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02012-01-1

1 Such term shall not mean or include any petition filed or submitted by 2 a public utility corporation or any corporation that provides or 3 supplies utility services pursuant to this chapter.

4 2. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, and 5 except where a shorter time period is required pursuant to this chapter, 6 the commission shall complete its investigation and issue a determi-7 nation or decision with respect to any petition within ninety days of 8 the filing or submission of the petition.

9 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of paragraph (a) of this subdivi-10 sion, if the petition alleges an emergency or some other action that 11 threatens or impacts the health or safety of any person or the surround-12 ing area, the commission shall make a determination as soon as possible
13 but in no event more than thirty days from the date when such petition 14 was filed or submitted.

15 (c) If the commission is unable to meet the time limitations set forth 16 in this subdivision, the commission shall prepare and send to the peti-17 tioner or complainant a written document stating the reasons for the 18 failure or inability of the commission to comply with the time frames, 19 and the date when a determination will be made, except that the 20 provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to petitions described in 21 paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

22 (d) Notwithstanding any provision of this subdivision and of this 23 chapter to the contrary, if the petitioner or complainant requests an 24 opportunity to be heard on the petition, the commission shall commence 25 the hearing within ten business days of the request and shall make its 26 determination within thirty days of the last day of the hearing. If the 27 commission directs that a hearing be conducted on the petition, the 28 decision to conduct such hearing shall be made within thirty days of the 29 initial filing of the petition, and the hearing shall be completed and a 30 decision thereon issued within ninety days of the initial filing of the 31 petition.

32 3. On or before February fifteenth of each year, the commission shall 33 submit a report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the tempo-
34 rary president of the senate and the chairs of senate and assembly
35 committees on corporations, authorities and commissions setting forth:

36 (a) the total number of petitions filed or submitted with the commis-
37 sion in the previous calendar year;

38 (b) a breakdown of such petitions by utility and subject matter of the 39 petition;

40 (c) the number of such petitions upheld, dismissed or otherwise
41 resolved, broken down by utility and subject matter;

42 (d) the number and percentage of petitions that were upheld, dismissed 43 or resolved within the statutory time frame; and

44 (e) if applicable, the number of petitions that were not completed or 45 resolved within the statutory time frames, the reasons for failure to 46 meet the time frames, and the average length of time for such petitions 47 to be finally completed or resolved.

48 4. If the commission fails to meet or comply with the time frames set 49 forth in this subdivision, the petitioner or complainant may commence a 50 special proceeding against the commission pursuant to subdivision one of 51 section seventy-eight hundred three of the civil practice law and rules.
52 A prevailing petitioner or complainant shall be entitled to reasonable 53 attorney's fees and court costs.

54 § 2. On or before the one hundred eightieth day after the effective
55 date of this act, the public service commission shall make or render a 56 determination on any petition or complaint that was filed with or

1 submitted to such commission prior to the effective date of this act. As 2 soon as reasonably possible after the end of the 180 day period, the 3 public service commission shall issue a report to the governor, the 4 speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate and the 5 chairs of the senate and assembly standing committees on corporations, 6 authorities and commissions stating the total number of petitions or 7 complaints involved; the number of petitions or complaints dismissed or 8 resolved; and if such commission is unable to meet this time frame, the 9 reasons for the delay or inaction.

10 § 3. Severability. If any provision of this act or its application to 11 any person or circumstance is held invalid, this invalidity does not 12 affect other provisions or applications of this act that can be given 13 effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the 14 provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

15 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
