AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the office of court administration to establish a searchable public database providing information regarding eviction proceedings in the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 212 of the judiciary law, is 2 amended by adding a new paragraph (cc) to read as follows:

3 (cc) establish an electronic database of all eviction proceedings in 4 the state. Such database shall include, but not be limited to, the 5 following: the docket number and date the action was filed; whether the 6 tenant had legal representation in the eviction proceeding; whether an 7 eviction has been ordered and the date on which such eviction was 8 ordered; the reason for the eviction and, where the reason is for 9 nonpayment, the amount owed; whether the tenant had a lease agreement;
10 the number of individuals evicted and the number of unique households; 11 whether the property is commercial or residential; and the zip code of 12 the property. In compliance with the tenant protection act of two thou-13 sand nineteen, any personally identifiable information shall not be 14 included in the database. Such database shall be available to the 15 public, accessible from the office's website, and able to be searched
16 and sorted into the categories required to be included in the database
17 pursuant to this paragraph. The chief administrator shall adopt rules 18 consistent with the requirements of this paragraph directing any 19 village, town or other local courts that may have eviction proceedings
20 within their subject matter jurisdiction to report their eviction
21 proceeding data to the office of court administration no less than four 22 times annually, at an interval of three months, for the purposes of 23 compiling the statewide eviction database required by this paragraph.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
