1 ment. For purposes of this program, "income" shall be the total adjusted
2 gross income of the applicant and the applicant's spouse, if applicable.

3 3. Awards. (a) An applicant whose annual income is less than fifty 4 thousand dollars shall be eligible to receive an award equal to one
5 hundred percent of his or her monthly federal income-driven repayment 6 plan payments for twenty-four months of repayment under the federal 7 program. Provided, however, that the awards granted under this section 8 shall be deferred for a recipient who has been granted a deferment or 9 forbearance under the federal income-driven repayment plan. Upon 10 completion of such deferment or forbearance period, such recipient shall 11 be eligible to receive an award for the remaining time period under this 12 subdivision. A recipient who is not a resident of New York state at the 13 time any payment is made under this program shall be required to refund 14 such payments to the state. The corporation shall be authorized to 15 recover such payments in accordance with rules and regulations promul-
16 gated by the corporation. A student who is delinquent or in default on a 17 student loan made under any statutory New York state or federal educa-
18 tion loan program or has failed to comply with the terms of a service 19 condition imposed by an award made pursuant to this article or has 20 failed to repay an award shall be ineligible to receive an award under 21 this program until such delinquency, default or failure is cured.

22 (b) An applicant whose annual income is less than sixty thousand 23 dollars and currently employed at a program or service that is regu-
24 lated, operated, funded or approved by the department of mental hygiene 25 shall be eligible to receive an award equal to one hundred percent of 26 his or her monthly federal income-driven repayment plan payments for 27 thirty-six months of the repayment period under the federal program.
28 Provided, however, that the awards granted under this section shall be 29 deferred for a recipient who has been granted a deferment or forbearance 30 under the federal income-driven repayment plan. Upon completion of such 31 deferment or forbearance period, such recipient shall be eligible to 32 receive an award for the remaining time period under this subdivision. A 33 recipient who is not a resident of New York state at the time any 34 payment is made under this program shall be required to refund such 35 payments to the state. The corporation shall be authorized to recover 36 such payments in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by 37 the corporation. A student who is delinquent or in default on a student 38 loan made under any statutory New York state or federal education loan 39 program or has failed to comply with the terms of a service condition
40 imposed by an award made pursuant to this article or has failed to repay
41 an award shall be ineligible to receive an award under this program
42 until such delinquency, default or failure is cured.

43 4. Rules and regulations. The corporation is authorized to promulgate 44 rules and regulations, and may promulgate emergency regulations neces-
45 sary for the implementation of the provisions of this section, includ-
46 ing, but not limited to, limits on the award amounts to those applicants 47 currently employed at a program or service that is regulated, operated, 48 funded or approved by the department of mental hygiene based upon the 49 applicants attainment of either an associate's degree, bachelor's 50 degree, or graduate degree and a method of selecting recipients if in 51 any given year there are insufficient funds to cover the needs of appli-
52 cants currently employed at a program or service that is regulated, 53 operated, funded or approved by the department of mental hygiene and 54 already employed recipients.

55 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
