- (d) The department shall on or before the date of the first publication of the notice set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision cause a copy of such notice to be posted once in its office and shall cause a copy of such notice to be posted in the county courthouse in the place provided for the posting of public notices.
- (e) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to preclude the department from providing for additional public notice of such proceeding by other means, including broadcast on the local access channel of a cable television company having a franchise within the city, town, or village.
- (f) If the substance of such notice has been incorporated into the petition of foreclosure, the requirements of this section shall be satisfied if the petition is published and posted in the manner prescribed by this section.
- 3. (a) Parties entitled to notice. The department shall, on or before the date of the first publication of the notice above set forth, cause a notice to be mailed to (i) each owner and any other person whose right, title, or interest was a matter of public record as of the date the certification was filed, which right, title or interest will be affected by a judgment divesting the owner of title to the real property, and whose name and address are reasonably ascertainable from the public record, including the records in the offices of the surrogate of the county, or from material submitted to the department pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subdivision, and (ii) any other person who has filed a declaration of interest which has not expired.
- (b) Notification method. (i) Such notice shall be sent to each such party both by certified mail and ordinary first class mail, subject to the provisions of subparagraph (iv) of this paragraph. The notice shall be deemed received unless both the certified mailing and the ordinary first class mailing are returned by the United States postal service within forty-five days after being mailed. In that event, the department shall attempt to obtain an alternate mailing address from the United States postal service. When notice is required to be sent to the commissioner of taxation and finance, an alternate notice may be used by the department, in accordance with instructions prescribed by the commissioner of taxation and finance.
  - (ii) If an alternate mailing address is found, the department shall cause the notice to be mailed to such owner at such address both by certified mail and by ordinary first class mail. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, such owner may notify the department that the property has not been abandoned or serve a duly verified answer to the petition until either the thirtieth day after such mailing, or the date specified by the notice of the proceeding as the last day for an answer, whichever is later.
- (iii) If no alternate mailing address can be found, then in the case of an owner, the department shall cause a copy of such notice to be posted as provided herein on the property to which the petition relates; in the case of a non-owner, the department shall cause a copy of such notice to be posted in the department and in the office of the clerk of the court in which the petition has been filed. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the party to whom such notice is directed may notify the department that the property has not been abandoned or serve a duly verified answer to the petition until either the thirtieth day after such posting or delivery, or the date specified by the notice of the proceeding as the last day for an answer, whichever is later.

- (iv) Where an owner is listed as "unknown" on the tax roll and the name of such owner cannot be found in the public record, the notice shall be mailed to the property address by ordinary first class mail addressed to "occupant" and a copy thereof shall be posted on the property to which the petition relates.
- (c) Posting of notice. When a notice is required to be posted on the property to which the petition relates pursuant to this section, the posting shall be deemed sufficient if it is either (i) affixed to a door of a residential or commercial structure on the premises, or (ii) attached to a vertical object, such as a tree, post or stake, and plainly visible from the road. Provided, that if, when visiting the premises for this purpose, the department should find thereon an occupant of suitable age and discretion, he or she may deliver such notice to such occupant in addition to or in lieu of posting it. The process of so posting or delivering such notice shall warrant the imposition of an extra charge of one hundred dollars against the parcel, in addition to any other charges authorized by section eleven hundred twenty-four of the real property tax law and without regard to any limitations set forth therein.
- (d) Changes of address. It shall be the responsibility of any party entitled to notice pursuant to this section to notify the department when his, her or its address changes. Such notification need not be in any particular form as long as it is in writing, affirmatively states that such party's address has changed or uses language to that effect, and sets forth the new address. It shall not suffice to submit to the department an item that merely displays the new address, such as a check upon which the new address has been imprinted, or a letter or envelope which uses the new address as the return address, unless such submission includes language clearly indicating that such address is that party's new address. In the event that a proceeding is challenged on grounds of lack of notice, and the party raising this issue failed to provide a current address to the department pursuant to this paragraph, the court having jurisdiction may take such failure into account when evaluating whether reasonable notice was given.
- (e) Public record. For purposes of this section, the public record shall be deemed to consist of the books maintained by the recording officer of the county in which the property is located pursuant to section three hundred fifteen of the real property law, the books kept by the clerk of the surrogate's court of the county in which the property is located pursuant to section twenty-five hundred two of the surrogate's court procedure act, the tax rolls in the possession of the city, town, or village dated from the certification of abandonment forward.
- 4. The notice to be so mailed shall consist of (a) a copy of the petition and, if not substantially the same as the petition, the public notice of vesting of title, provided that such copies need not include the descriptions or the names of the owners of any parcels in which the addressee does not have an interest, and (b) a statement substantially as follows: "To the party to whom the enclosed notice is addressed: You

To avoid loss of ownership or of any other rights in the property, you must interpose a duly verified answer in the proceeding. You may wish to contact an attorney to protect your rights. After..... (insert the last date to notify the Department), a court will transfer the title of the property to the ...... (Name of the city, town, or village) by means of a court judgment. Should you have any questions regarding this notice, please call..... (insert the name of the officer or employee of the Department) at..... (insert telephone number). Dated,..... (Insert date)."

- 5. (a) An affidavit of mailing of such notice shall be executed.
- 16 (b) The failure of an intended recipient to receive any such notice 17 shall not invalidate the proceeding or prevent the enforcement of the 18 same as provided by law.
  - (c) The service of the notice required by this section shall be deemed to be equivalent to the service of a notice of petition pursuant to section four hundred three of the civil practice law and rules.
  - 6. (a) Nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude the department from issuing, at its discretion, a duplicate of any such notice, clearly labeled as such, through means other than ordinary first class mail, including but not limited to personal service, registered or certified mail, facsimile transmission, or electronic mail.
  - (b) Nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude the department from issuing, at its discretion, one or more informal notices to an owner or other party prior to issuing the notice required by this section.
- 31 (c) The failure of the department to mail any such discretionary, or 32 the failure of an intended recipient to receive such a notice, shall not 33 invalidate the proceeding or prevent the enforcement of the same as 34 provided by law.
  - 7. Any notice mailed by ordinary first class mail pursuant to this section may also be mailed in duplicate by certified mail at the option of the department.
  - § 1983. Commencement of proceeding. 1. After all provisions of section nineteen hundred eighty-two of this article have been complied with, the department may commence a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the commercial or industrial real property is located, to vest title to the property in the city, town, or village.
  - 2. The petition in such proceeding shall be accompanied by a copy of the certification and proof by affidavit that the provisions of section nineteen hundred eighty-two of this article have been complied with and that no party served with the notice pursuant to such section has taken the appropriate action prescribed therein in response thereto.
  - 3. A copy of the petition shall be served on all persons to whom notice was given pursuant to section nineteen hundred eighty-two of this article by personal service pursuant to article three of the civil practice law and rules. A notice of pendency shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of section sixty-five hundred one of the civil practice law and rules. A copy of the petition shall also be posted in a conspicuous place on the premises in question, accompanied by a notice that any person having or claiming an interest in the property may appear at the hearing thereon to protect his or her interest.

1 4. The petition shall be noticed to be heard not less than fifteen
2 days after service is completed on all parties to the proceeding.

- 5. A special proceeding pursuant to this article may also be commenced by order to show cause, in which case the manner of service and the time at which the order is returnable shall be as prescribed therein by the court.
- § 1984. Decision and judgment of the court. 1. If any party to the proceeding contests the issue of abandonment, the burden of proving that the commercial or industrial real property is abandoned shall be upon the department, and the court shall make a finding based on the facts before it.
- 2. (a) Upon application by any party to the proceeding, the court may order a stay of the proceeding for such time as the court deems proper to permit the mortgagee or lienor to foreclose its mortgage or lien and to permit the owner, mortgagor or lienor to enter the property to make repairs or if the property be vacant to seal or continuously guard the building as required by law. The court may impose such terms upon the owner, mortgagee or lienor as it deems proper for the issuance of said order, including the posting of such security, if any, as it may require. At the expiration of the period prescribed by the court, the court may extend the time of the owner, mortgagee or lienor to comply with the order, dismiss the proceeding if the owner, mortgagee or lienor has substantially complied with the order, or issue a judgment as provided in subdivision three of this section, if the court finds that the owner, mortgagee or lienor has failed to comply with the order.
- (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subdivision, if the department has brought a proceeding pursuant to section nineteen hundred eighty-three of this article based on a finding of abandonment pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section nineteen hundred eighty-one of this chapter, the court may not grant a stay for more than six months, nor extend it for more than an additional three months.
- 3. Upon a finding by the court that the commercial or industrial real property is abandoned, the court shall enter a final judgment in favor of the petitioner. The fact that an administrator has been appointed as to the subject property shall not prevent the court from entering a final judgment in favor of the petitioner upon a finding by the court that the commercial or industrial real property is abandoned. The final judgment shall direct such officer of the city, town, or village in which the commercial or industrial real property is located as may be designated in the judgment to execute and record a deed conveying title of the premises to the city, town, or village thirty days after entry of judgment. Upon the entry of such judgment the city, town, or village shall be seized of an estate in fee simple absolute in such land and all persons, including the state of New York, infants, incompetents, absentees and non-residents who may have had any right, title, interest, claim, lien or equity of redemption in or upon such lands shall be barred and forever foreclosed of all such right, title, interest, claim, lien or equity of redemption.
- 4. The provisions of section three hundred seventeen of the civil practice law and rules shall not apply to a proceeding instituted pursuant to this article. A motion or action to set aside a judgment in a proceeding instituted pursuant to this article on the grounds either that there was a failure to comply with the provisions of this article as to notice or that a defect in the proceeding prejudiced a substantial right of a party may be instituted within ninety days after the deed vesting title in a city has been recorded, but not thereafter.

5. The right, title and interest of a purchaser or incumbrancer of a property as to which a deed vesting title in a city, town, or village has been recorded pursuant to a judgment obtained through this article shall not be affected or impaired by a motion or action instituted more than ninety days after such deed vesting title in a city, town, or village has been recorded.

 $\S$  2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire June 30, 2025 when upon such date the provisions of this act shall be deemed repealed.
