- (b) Such continuing education program shall include license renewal requirements, pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision seven of this section, including the sensitivity and de-escalation training pursuant to paragraph (h-1) of subdivision one of this section.
- (c) Promulgate rules and regulations with respect to the establishment and implementation on an ongoing basis of a continuing education program for all current and new police officers regarding the policies and procedures established pursuant to this subdivision, along with procedures and policies for periodic retraining of police officers.
- 10 § 3. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 841-e to 11 read as follows:
- § 841-e. Independent police and peace officer licensing review board.

 1. There is hereby created within the division an independent police and peace officer licensing review board composed of seven members, who shall be selected as follows:
 - (a) three shall be appointed by the governor;
 - (b) one shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate;
 - (c) one shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; and
 - (d) two shall be appointed by the attorney general.
- 20 2. The governor shall designate from among the members of the council
 21 a chairman who shall serve during the pleasure of the governor.
- 3. All members of the council shall be appointed for terms of two years, such terms to commence on April first, and expire on March thirty-first. Any member chosen to fill a vacancy created otherwise than by expiration of term shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member whom he is to succeed. Vacancies caused by expiration of a term or otherwise shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. Any member may be reappointed for only one additional term.
- 4. The review board shall be permitted to review individual cases pertaining to police and peace officers. In response, the review board may do the following if the board finds that such officer has committed professional misconduct:
 - (a) Issue licensing penalties for professional misconduct;
- 34 (b) Revoke and/or suspend licenses issued by the municipal police 35 training council;
- 36 (c) Issue fines;
- 37 (d) Require such police or peace officer to undergo therapy or treat-
 38 ment; and/or
 - (e) Require such police or peace officer to fulfill additional continuing education courses.
 - 5. The review board shall promulgate, and may from time to time amend, rules and regulations with respect to defining professional misconduct. Such definition shall include excessive force and abuse of power and may include all other acts the review board deems to qualify as professional misconduct.
 - 6. The review board shall have the power to issue subpoenas and hire an executive director and investigators to further investigate allegations of professional misconduct.
- 49 § 4. The opening paragraph of subdivision 34 of section 1.20 of the 50 criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:
- The following persons, who are licensed in good standing, as of January first, two thousand twenty-three, by the municipal police training council pursuant to subdivision seven of section eight hundred forty of the executive law, are police officers:
