AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, the general business law, the insurance law and the judiciary law, in relation to recognizance procedures and bail reform; and to repeal certain provisions of such laws and of the penal law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The purpose of this legislation is to 2 reform the process by which courts in the state of New York evaluate 3 applications by criminal defendants who seek release on their own recog-
4 nizance. New York's current bail statute has been applied in a manner
5 that has led to unsatisfactory levels of pre-trial detention. The 6 purpose of this legislation is to ensure decarceration and release of 7 criminal cases by applying a rebuttable presumption of recognizance.
8 Courts in New York must consider only admissible evidence at recogni-9 zance hearings and must apply the least restrictive measures to ensure 10 an individual's return to court.

11 § 2. The title heading of title P of the criminal procedure law is
12 amended to read as follows:

13 PROCEDURES FOR SECURING ATTENDANCE
14 AT CRIMINAL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS
15 OF DEFENDANTS AND WITNESSES UNDER 16 CONTROL OF COURT--RECOGNIZANCE[~~7~~
17 ~~BAIL~~] AND COMMITMENT

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD07046-02-1

§ 3. The article heading of article 500 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

RECOGNIZANCE[~~, BAIL~~] AND COMMITMENT--DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

§ 4. Subdivisions 3, 6 and 7 of section 500.10 of the criminal procedure law, subdivisions 6 and 7 as amended by section 1-e of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

3. [~~"Fix bail." A court fixes bail when, having acquired control over the person of a principal, it designates a sum of money and stipulates that, if bail in such amount is posted on behalf of the principal and approved, it will permit him to be at liberty during the pendency of the criminal action or proceeding involved.~~] "Recognizance hearing." A hearing before the court where the principal appears for the purposes of the court considering recognizance or committing the principal to the custody of the sheriff.

6. "Order of recognizance [~~or bail~~]" means a securing order releasing a principal on the principal's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions [~~or, where authorized, fixing bail~~].

7. "Application for recognizance [~~or bail~~]" means an application by a principal [~~that~~] to the court[~~, instead of committing the principal to or retaining the principal in~~] that the principal be released instead of committed to the custody of the sheriff[~~, either release the principal on the principal's own recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions, or, where authorized, fix bail~~].

§ 5. Subdivisions 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19 of section 500.10 of the criminal procedure law are REPEALED and subdivisions 20, 21 and 22 are renumbered subdivisions 8, 9 and 10.

§ 6. The article heading of article 510 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

RECOGNIZANCE[~~, BAIL~~] AND COMMITMENT--
DETERMINATION OF APPLICATION FOR RECOGNIZANCE
[~~OR BAIL~~], ISSUANCE OF SECURING ORDERS, AND RELATED MATTERS

§ 7. Subdivision 1 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 2 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

1. When a principal, whose future court attendance at a criminal action or proceeding is or may be required, initially comes under the control of a court, such court shall, in accordance with this title, by a securing order either release the principal on the principal's own recognizance, release the principal under non-monetary conditions, or, where authorized[~~, fix bail or~~] commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. In all such cases, except where another type of securing order is shown to be required by law, the court shall release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance, unless it is demonstrated and the court makes an individualized determination that the principal poses a risk of flight to avoid prosecution. If such a finding is made, the court must select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of release, release with conditions[~~, bail~~] or remand on the record or in writing.

§ 8. The opening paragraph and paragraph (t) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, the opening paragraph as amended and paragraph (t) as added by section 2 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, are amended to read as follows:

Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions[~~, fix bail,~~] or, where the defendant is charged with a qualifying offense which is a felony, the court may commit the principal to the custody of the sheriff. A principal stands charged with a qualifying offense for the purposes of this subdivision when he or she stands charged with:

(t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person [~~ex property~~], where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on [~~his or her~~] the defendant's own recognizance or released under conditions for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person [~~ex property~~], provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. [~~For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision.~~]

§ 9. Section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended to add a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

7. The court shall inform the principal that the conditions of the securing order are subject to modification consistent with the provisions of section 510.25 of this article.

§ 10. Section 510.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 3 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.20 Application for a change in securing order.

1. Upon any occasion when a court has issued a securing order with respect to a principal and the principal is confined in the custody of the sheriff as a result of the securing order or a previously issued securing order, the principal may make an application for recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions [~~ex bail~~].

2. (a) The principal is entitled to representation by counsel in the making and presentation of such application. If the principal is financially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned to the principal.

(b) Upon such application, the principal must be accorded an opportunity to be heard, present evidence and to contend that an order of recognizance[~~,~~] or release under non-monetary conditions [~~or, where authorized, bail must or should issue, that the court should release the principal on the principal's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions rather than fix bail, and that if bail is authorized and fixed it should be in a suggested amount and form~~] be issued.

3. The court shall make a pre-trial release decision for the principal without unnecessary delay, but in no case later than forty-eight hours after the principal's initial commitment to jail.

§ 11. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding three new sections 510.25, 510.26 and 510.27 to read as follows:

§ 510.25 Prosecutor; motion.

The prosecutor may file with the court at any time, including at any time before or after the principal's release from custody, a motion seeking the pre-trial detention of the principal for which the prosecutor shall present evidence to the court demonstrating that:

1. The principal will not appear in court as required; or

2. The principal will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice or the criminal process; or

1 3. The principal would threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective
2 witness or juror.

3 § 510.26 Prosecutor; motion; evidentiary standard.

4 A motion to the court seeking pre-trial detention pursuant to section 5 510.25 of this article shall set forth admissible evidence as defined by 6 this chapter. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the principal
7 be detained pending trial if the court, upon consideration of the admis-
8 sible evidence, determines by a preponderance of the evidence that:

9 1. None of the pre-trial supervision services available would ensure 10 the principal's appearance in court when required; or

11 2. The principal would injure or intimidate a prospective witness or 12 juror if released on the principal's own recognizance.

13 § 510.27 Motion for rehearing; securing order.

14 1. The parties, after a determination by the court at a recognizance
15 hearing, at any time before trial, may submit a motion to the court
16 seeking to vacate or modify the securing order. A motion seeking to 17 vacate or modify a securing order shall include admissible evidence
18 showing a change of circumstances with respect to the conditions set 19 forth in section 510.25 of this article.

20 2. The court shall determine by a preponderance of the evidence
21 presented whether the securing order should be vacated or modified.

22 3. The court shall reopen a recognizance hearing upon its own applica-
23 tion, at any time before trial, if the court finds that information 24 exists that was not known to the prosecutor or principal at the time of 25 the recognizance hearing that has a material bearing on the conditions
26 set forth in section 510.25 of this article. The court shall make this 27 information known to the prosecutor and principal prior to the recogni-
28 zance hearing.

29 § 12. Subdivision 1 of section 510.30 of the criminal procedure law,
30 as amended by section 5 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019,
31 is amended to read as follows:

32 1. With respect to any principal, the court in all cases, unless 33 otherwise provided by law, must impose the least restrictive kind and 34 degree of control or restriction that is necessary to secure the princi-
35 pal's return to court when required. In determining that matter, the 36 court must, on the basis of available information, consider and take 37 into account information about the principal that is relevant to the 38 principal's return to court, including:

39 (a) The principal's activities and history;

40 (b) If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;

41 (c) The principal's criminal conviction record if any;

42 (d) ~~[The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juvenile~~ 43 ~~delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family court~~
44 ~~act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant to~~ 45 ~~section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any,~~

46 ~~(e)]~~ The principal's previous record with respect to flight to avoid 47 criminal prosecution;

48 ~~[(f) If monetary bail is authorized, according to the restrictions set~~
49 ~~forth in this title, the principal's individual financial circumstances,~~
50 ~~and, in cases where bail is authorized, the principal's ability to post~~ 51 ~~bail without posing undue hardship, as well as his or her ability to~~ 52 ~~obtain a secured, unsecured, or partially secured bond,~~

53 ~~(g)]~~ (e) Where the principal is charged with a crime or crimes against 54 a member or members of the same family or household as that term is 55 defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, the follow-
56 ing factors:

(i) any violation by the principal of an order of protection issued by any court for the protection of a member or members of the same family or household as that term is defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this title, whether or not such order of protection is currently in effect; and

(ii) the principal's history of use or possession of a firearm; and
[~~(h)~~] (f) If the principal is a defendant, in the case of an application for a securing order pending appeal, the merit or lack of merit of the appeal.

§ 13. Section 510.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 6 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 as amended by section 7 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 510.40 Court notification to principal of conditions of release and of alleged violations of conditions of release.

1. Upon ordering that a principal be released on the principal's own recognizance, or released under non-monetary conditions, [~~or, if bail has been fixed, upon the posting of bail,~~] the court must direct the principal to appear in the criminal action or proceeding involved whenever the principal's attendance may be required and to be at all times amenable to the orders and processes of the court. If such principal is in the custody of the sheriff [~~or at liberty upon bail~~] at the time of the order, the court must direct that the principal be discharged from such custody [~~or, as the case may be, that the principal's bail be exonerated~~].

2. [~~Upon the issuance of an order fixing bail, where authorized, and upon the posting thereof, the court must examine the bail to determine whether it complies with the order. If it does, the court must, in the absence of some factor or circumstance which in law requires or authorizes disapproval thereof, approve the bail and must issue a certificate of release, authorizing the principal to be at liberty, and, if the principal is in the custody of the sheriff at the time, directing the sheriff to discharge the principal therefrom. If the bail fixed is not posted, or is not approved after being posted, the court must order that the principal be committed to the custody of the sheriff. In the event of any such non-approval, the court shall explain promptly in writing the reasons therefor.~~

~~3.]~~ Non-monetary conditions of release shall be individualized and established in writing by the court. At future court appearances, the court shall consider a lessening of conditions or modification of conditions to a less burdensome form based on the principal's compliance with such conditions of release. In the event of alleged non-compliance with the conditions of release in an important respect, pursuant to this subdivision, additional conditions may be imposed by the court, on the record or in writing, only after notice of the facts and circumstances of such alleged non-compliance, reasonable under the circumstances, affording the principal and the principal's attorney and the people an opportunity to present relevant, admissible evidence, relevant witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses, and a finding by clear and convincing evidence that the principal violated a condition of release in an important respect. Following such a finding, in determining whether to impose additional conditions for non-compliance, the court shall consider and may select conditions consistent with the court's obligation to impose the least restrictive condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain on the

1 record or in writing the reasons for its determination and for any
2 changes to the conditions imposed.

3 ~~[4-]~~ 3. (a) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be 4 ordered only if the court finds, after notice, an opportunity to be 5 heard and an individualized determination explained on the record or in 6 writing, that the defendant qualifies for electronic monitoring in 7 accordance with subdivision twenty-one of section 500.10 of this title,
8 and no other realistic non-monetary condition or set of non-monetary 9 conditions will suffice to reasonably assure a principal's return to 10 court.

11 (b) The specific method of electronic monitoring of the principal's
12 location must be approved by the court. It must be the least restrictive
13 procedure and method that will reasonably assure the principal's return 14 to court, and unobtrusive to the greatest extent practicable.

15 (c) Electronic monitoring of the location of a principal may be 16 conducted only by a public entity under the supervision and control of a 17 county or municipality or a non-profit entity under contract to the 18 county, municipality or the state. A county or municipality shall be 19 authorized to enter into a contract with another county or municipality 20 in the state to monitor principals under non-monetary conditions of 21 release in its county, but counties, municipalities and the state shall 22 not contract with any private for-profit entity for such purposes.
23 Counties, municipalities and the state may contract with a private for-24 profit entity to supply electronic monitoring devices or other items,
25 provided that any interaction with persons under electronic monitoring 26 or the data produced by such monitoring shall be conducted solely by 27 employees of a county, municipality, the state, or a non-profit entity
28 under contract with such county, municipality or the state.

29 (d) Electronic monitoring of a principal's location may be for a maxi-30 mum period of sixty days, and may be renewed for such period, after 31 notice, an opportunity to be heard and a de novo, individualized deter-
32 mination in accordance with this subdivision, which shall be explained
33 on the record or in writing.

34 A defendant subject to electronic location monitoring under this 35 subdivision shall be considered held or confined in custody for purposes 36 of section 180.80 of this chapter and shall be considered committed to 37 the custody of the sheriff for purposes of section 170.70 of the chap-
38 ter, as applicable.

39 ~~[5-]~~ 4. If a principal is released under non-monetary conditions, the 40 court shall, on the record and in an individualized written document
41 provided to the principal, notify the principal, in plain language and a 42 manner sufficiently clear and specific:

43 (a) of any conditions to which the principal is subject, to serve as a 44 guide for the principal's conduct; and

45 (b) that the possible consequences for violation of such a condition
46 may include revocation of the securing order and the ordering of a more 47 restrictive securing order.

48 § 14. Subdivision 1 of section 510.50 of the criminal procedure law,
49 as amended by section 9 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019,
50 is amended to read as follows:

51 1. When the attendance of a principal confined in the custody of the 52 sheriff is required at the criminal action or proceeding at a particular 53 time and place, the court may compel such attendance by directing the 54 sheriff to produce the principal at such time and place. If the princi-
55 pal is at liberty on the principal's own recognizance or non-monetary 56 conditions ~~[or on bail]~~, the principal's attendance may be achieved or

1 compelled by various methods, including notification and the issuance of 2 a bench warrant, prescribed by law in provisions governing such matters
3 with respect to the particular kind of action or proceeding involved.

4 § 15. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section
5 510.60 to read as follows:

6 § 510.60 Statistical reports.

7 The division of criminal justice services shall compile and publish
8 data on the disposition of all recognizance hearings in all courts,
9 disaggregated by county and including the following information:

10 1. The aggregate number of recognizance hearings;

11 2. The aggregate number of defendants and principals who were heard at 12 recognizance hearings;

13 3. The race, ethnicity, age and sex of each defendant or principal;

37 this article, the court, in addition to any other powers conferred upon 38 it by this chapter may issue a temporary order of protection in conjunc-

40 the sheriff or as a condition of any order of recognizance [~~or bail~~] or

54 penal law; or

55 (xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-

For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision.

§ 24. Section 530.30 of the criminal procedure law, the section heading, subdivision 1 and subdivision 2 as amended by section 17 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.30 Order of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or ~~[bail]~~ securing order; by superior court judge when action is pending in local criminal court.

1. When a criminal action is pending in a local criminal court, other than one consisting of a superior court judge sitting as such, a judge of a superior court holding a term thereof in the county, upon application of a defendant, may order recognizance~~[r]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions ~~[or, where authorized, bail]~~ when such local criminal court:

(a) Lacks authority to issue such an order, pursuant to the relevant provisions of section 530.20 of this article; or

(b) Has denied an application for recognizance~~[r]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions ~~[or bail]~~; or

(c) ~~[Has fixed bail, where authorized, which is excessive, or (d)]~~ Has set a securing order of release under non-monetary conditions which are more restrictive than necessary to reasonably assure the defendant's return to court.

In such case, such superior court judge may vacate the order of such local criminal court and release the defendant on recognizance or under non-monetary conditions, ~~[or where authorized, fix bail in a lesser amount or in a less burdensome form,]~~ whichever are the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's return to court. The court shall explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in writing.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, when the defendant is charged with a felony in a local criminal court, a superior court judge may not order recognizance~~[r]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions ~~[or, where authorized, bail]~~ unless and until the district attorney has had an opportunity to be heard in the matter and such judge and counsel for the defendant have been furnished with a report as described in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision two of section 530.20 of this article.

3. Not more than one application may be made pursuant to this section.

§ 25. Section 530.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 18 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, subdivision 4 as amended by section 4 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.40 Order of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions or ~~[bail]~~ securing order; by superior court when action is pending therein.

When a criminal action is pending in a superior court, such court, upon application of a defendant, must or may order recognizance or ~~[bail]~~ release under non-monetary conditions as follows:

1. When the defendant is charged with an offense or offenses of less than felony grade only, the court must, unless otherwise provided by

1 law, order recognizance or release under non-monetary conditions in 2 accordance with this section.

3 2. When the defendant is charged with a felony, the court may, unless 4 otherwise provided by law in its discretion, order recognizance[~~r~~] or 5 release under non-monetary conditions [~~or, where authorized, bail~~]. In 6 any such case in which an indictment (a) has resulted from an order of a 7 local criminal court holding the defendant for the action of the grand 8 jury, or (b) was filed at a time when a felony complaint charging the 9 same conduct was pending in a local criminal court, and in which such 10 local criminal court or a superior court judge has issued an order of 11 recognizance[~~r~~] or release under non-monetary conditions [~~or, where~~ 12 ~~authorized, bail~~] which is still effective, the superior court's order 13 may be in the form of a direction continuing the effectiveness of the 14 previous order.

15 3. In cases other than as described in subdivision four of this 16 section the court shall release the principal pending trial on the prin-17 cipal's own recognizance, unless the court finds on the record or in 18 writing that release on the principal's own recognizance will not 19 reasonably assure the principal's return to court. In such instances, 20 the court shall release the principal under non-monetary conditions, 21 selecting the least restrictive alternative and conditions that will 22 reasonably assure the principal's return to court. The court shall 23 explain its choice of alternative and conditions on the record or in 24 writing.

25 4. Where the principal stands charged with a qualifying offense, the 26 court, unless otherwise prohibited by law, may in its discretion release 27 the principal pending trial on the principal's own recognizance or under 28 non-monetary conditions, [~~fix bail,~~] or, where the defendant is charged 29 with a qualifying offense which is a felony, the court may commit the 30 principal to the custody of the sheriff. The court shall explain its 31 choice of release, release with conditions[~~, bail~~] or remand on the 32 record or in writing. A principal stands charged with a qualifying
33 offense for the purposes of this subdivision when [~~he or she~~] the prin-34 cipal stands charged with:

Order of recognizance or ~~[bail]~~ securing order; after conviction and before sentence.

1. When the defendant is at liberty in the course of a criminal action as a result of a prior order of recognizance~~[7]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions ~~[or bail]~~ and the court revokes such order and then, where authorized, ~~[fixes no bail or fixes bail in a greater amount or in~~

§ 28. Subdivision 6 of section 530.45 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 435 of the laws of 1974, is amended to read as follows:

6. Where the defendant is at liberty during the pendency of an appeal as a result of an order issued pursuant to this section, the intermediate appellate court, upon affirmance of the judgment, must by appropriate certificate remit the case to the criminal court in which such judgment was entered. The criminal court must, upon at least two days notice to the defendant~~[, his surety]~~ and his attorney, promptly direct the defendant to surrender himself to the criminal court in order that execution of the judgment be commenced or resumed, and if necessary the criminal court may issue a bench warrant to secure his appearance.

§ 29. Section 530.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, subdivision 1 as designated and subdivision 2 as added by section 10 of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.50 Order of recognizance or ~~[bail]~~ securing order; during pendency of appeal.

1. A judge who is otherwise authorized pursuant to section 460.50 or section 460.60 to issue an order of recognizance ~~[or bail]~~ pending the determination of an appeal, may do so unless the defendant received a class A felony sentence or a sentence for any class B or class C felony offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed or attempted to be committed by a person eighteen years of age or older against a person less than eighteen years of age.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision four of section 510.10, paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 530.20 and subdivision four of section 530.40 of this title, when a defendant charged with an offense that is not such a qualifying offense applies, pending determination of an appeal, for an order of recognizance or release on non-monetary conditions, where authorized, [~~or fixing bail,~~] a judge identified in subdivision two of section 460.50 or paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 460.60 of this chapter may, in accordance with law, and except as otherwise provided by law, issue a securing order: releasing the defendant on the defendant's own recognizance or under non-monetary conditions where authorized, [~~fixing bail,~~] or remanding the defendant to the custody of the sheriff where authorized.

§ 30. Section 530.60 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 20 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 530.60 Certain modifications of a securing order.

1. Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance, release under non-monetary conditions [~~or bail~~] issued pursuant to this chapter, and the court considers it necessary to review such order, whether due to a motion by the people or otherwise, the court may, and except as provided in subdivision two of section 510.50 of this title concerning a failure to appear in court, by a bench warrant if necessary, require the defendant to appear before the court. Upon such appearance, the court, for good cause shown, may revoke the order of recognizance[~~7~~] ~~or~~ release under non-monetary conditions[~~7~~, ~~or bail~~]. If the defendant is entitled to recognizance[~~7~~] ~~or~~ release under non-monetary conditions[~~7~~, ~~or bail~~] as a matter of right, the court must issue another such order. If the defendant is not, the court may either issue such an order or commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff in accordance with this section.

Where the defendant is committed to the custody of the sheriff and is held on a felony complaint, a new period as provided in section 180.80 of this chapter shall commence to run from the time of the defendant's commitment under this subdivision.

2. (a) Whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant charged with the commission of a felony is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance[~~7~~] ~~or~~ release under non-monetary conditions [~~or bail issued pursuant to this article~~] it shall be grounds for revoking such order that the court finds reasonable cause to believe the defendant committed one or more specified class A or violent felony offenses or intimidated a victim or witness in violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law while at liberty.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or any other law, whenever in the course of a criminal action or proceeding a defendant charged with the commission of an offense is at liberty as a result of an order of recognizance[~~7~~] ~~or~~ release under non-monetary conditions [~~or bail issued pursuant to this article~~] it shall be grounds for revoking such order [~~and fixing bail~~] in such criminal action or proceeding when the court has found, by clear and convincing evidence, that the defendant:

(i) persistently and willfully failed to appear after notice of scheduled appearances in the case before the court; or

(ii) violated an order of protection in the manner prohibited by subdivision (b), (c) or (d) of section 215.51 of the penal law while at liberty; or

(iii) stands charged in such criminal action or proceeding with a misdemeanor or violation and, after being so charged, intimidated a victim or witness in violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law or tampered with a witness in violation of section 215.11, 215.12 or 215.13 of the penal law, [~~law~~] while at liberty; or

(iv) stands charged in such action or proceeding with a felony and, after being so charged, committed a felony while at liberty.

(c) Before revoking an order of recognizance~~[7]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions, ~~[or bail pursuant to this subdivision]~~ the court must hold a hearing and shall receive any relevant, admissible evidence not legally privileged. The defendant may cross-examine witnesses and may present relevant, admissible evidence on his own behalf. Such hearing may be consolidated with, and conducted at the same time as, a felony hearing conducted pursuant to article one hundred eighty of this chapter. A transcript of testimony taken before the grand jury upon presentation of the subsequent offense shall be admissible as evidence during the hearing. The district attorney may move to introduce grand jury testimony of a witness in lieu of that witness' appearance at the hearing.

(d) Revocation of an order of recognizance~~[7]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions ~~[or bail]~~ and a new securing order ~~[fixing bail or commitment]~~, as specified in this paragraph and pursuant to this subdivision shall be for the following periods:

(i) Under paragraph (a) of this subdivision, revocation of the order of recognizance~~[7]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions ~~[or, as the case may be, bail]~~ and a new securing order ~~[fixing bail]~~ or committing the defendant to the custody of the sheriff shall be as follows:

(A) For a period not to exceed ninety days exclusive of any periods of adjournment requested by the defendant; or

(B) Until the charges contained within the accusatory instrument have been reduced or dismissed such that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a felony; or

(C) Until reduction or dismissal of the charges contained within the accusatory instrument charging the subsequent offense such that no count remains which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or violent felony offense.

Upon expiration of any of the three periods specified within this subparagraph, whichever is shortest, the court may grant or deny release upon an order of ~~[bail or]~~ recognizance or a securing order in accordance with the provisions of this article. Upon conviction to an offense the provisions of article five hundred thirty of this chapter shall apply; and

(ii) Under paragraph (b) of this subdivision, revocation of the order of recognizance~~[7]~~ or release under non-monetary conditions ~~[or, as the case may be, bail]~~ shall result in the issuance of a new securing order which may, if otherwise authorized by law, permit the principal's release on recognizance or release under non-monetary conditions, ~~[but shall also render the defendant eligible for an order fixing bail]~~ provided, however, that in accordance with the principles in this title the court must select the least restrictive alternative and condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the principal's return to court. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be interpreted as shortening the period of detention, or requiring or authorizing any less restrictive form of a securing order, which may be imposed pursuant to any other law.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision a defendant, against whom a felony complaint has been filed which charges the defendant with commission of a class A or violent felony offense or violation of section 215.15, 215.16 or 215.17 of the penal law committed while he was at liberty as specified therein, may be committed to the custody of the sheriff pending a revocation hearing for

1 a period not to exceed seventy-two hours. An additional period not to 2 exceed seventy-two hours may be granted by the court upon application of 3 the district attorney upon a showing of good cause or where the failure
4 to commence the hearing was due to the defendant's request or occurred
5 with ~~[his]~~ the defendant's consent. Such good cause must consist of some 6 compelling fact or circumstance which precluded conducting the hearing
7 within the initial prescribed period.

8 § 31. The section heading of section 530.70 of the criminal procedure
9 law is amended to read as follows:

10 Order of recognizance or ~~[bail]~~ securing order; bench warrant.

11 § 32. Section 530.80 of the criminal procedure law is REPEALED.

12 § 33. The opening paragraph of subdivision 2 of section 30.30 of the 13 criminal procedure law, as amended by section 1 of part KKK of chapter 14 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

15 Except as provided in subdivision three of this section, where a 16 defendant has been committed to the custody of the sheriff or the office 17 of children and family services in a criminal action ~~[he or she]~~ the 18 defendant must be released on ~~[bail or on his or her]~~ the defendant's 19 own recognizance, upon such conditions as may be just and reasonable, if 20 the people are not ready for trial in that criminal action within:

21 § 34. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 of section
22 30.30 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 1 of part KKK
23 of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

24 (ii) where the defendant has either escaped from custody or has failed
25 to appear when required after having previously been released on ~~[bail~~
26 ~~or on his]~~ the defendant's own recognizance, and provided the defendant
27 is not in custody on another matter, the period extending from the day 28 the court issues a bench warrant pursuant to section 530.70 of this 29 chapter because of the defendant's failure to appear in court when 30 required, to the day the defendant subsequently appears in the court 31 pursuant to a bench warrant or voluntarily or otherwise; or

32 § 35. Subdivision 3 of section 120.90 of the criminal procedure law,
33 as amended by chapter 424 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as
34 follows:

35 3. Upon arresting a defendant for an offense other than a felony 36 pursuant to a warrant of arrest in a county other than the one in which 37 the warrant is returnable or one adjoining it, a police officer, if ~~[he]~~ 38 the police officer be one to whom the warrant is addressed, must inform 39 the defendant that ~~[he]~~ the defendant has a right to appear before a 40 local criminal court of the county of arrest for the purpose of being 41 released on ~~[his]~~ the defendant's own recognizance or ~~[having bail~~
42 ~~fixed]~~ under non-monetary conditions. If the defendant does not desire 43 to ~~[avail himself of]~~ exercise such right, the officer must request 44 ~~[him]~~ the defendant to endorse such fact upon the warrant, and upon such 45 endorsement the officer must without unnecessary delay bring ~~[him]~~ the 46 defendant before the court in which the warrant is returnable. If the 47 defendant does desire to ~~[avail himself of]~~ exercise such right, or if 48 ~~[he]~~ the defendant refuses to make the aforementioned endorsement, the 49 officer must without unnecessary delay bring ~~[him]~~ the defendant before

4. Upon arresting a defendant for an offense other than a felony pursuant to a warrant of arrest in a county other than the one in which the warrant is returnable or one adjoining it, a police officer, if ~~[he]~~ the police officer be one delegated to execute the warrant pursuant to section 120.60, may hold the defendant in custody in the county of arrest for a period not exceeding two hours for the purpose of delivering ~~[him]~~ the defendant to the custody of the officer by whom he was delegated to execute such warrant. If the delegating officer receives custody of the defendant during such period, ~~[he]~~ the delegating officer must proceed as provided in subdivision three. Otherwise, the delegated officer must inform the defendant that ~~[he]~~ the defendant has a right to appear before a local criminal court for the purpose of being released on ~~[his]~~ the defendant's own recognizance or ~~[having bail fixed]~~ under non-monetary conditions. If the defendant does not desire to ~~[avail himself of]~~ exercise such right, the officer must request ~~[him]~~ the defendant to make, sign and deliver to him a written statement of such fact, and if the defendant does so, the officer must retain custody of ~~[him]~~ the defendant but must without unnecessary delay deliver ~~[him]~~ the defendant or cause ~~[him]~~ the defendant to be delivered to the custody of the delegating police officer. If the defendant does desire to ~~[avail himself of]~~ exercise such right, or if ~~[he]~~ the defendant refuses to make and deliver the aforementioned statement, the delegated or arresting officer must without unnecessary delay bring ~~[him]~~ the defendant before a local criminal court of the county of arrest and must submit to such court a written statement reciting the material facts concerning the issuance of the warrant, the offense involved, and all other essential matters relating thereto. Upon the submission of such statement, such court must release the defendant on ~~[his]~~ the defendant's own recognizance or ~~[fix bail]~~ under non-monetary conditions for ~~[his]~~ the defendant's appearance on a specified date in the court in which the warrant is returnable. ~~[If the defendant is in default of bail, the officer must retain custody of him but must without unnecessary delay deliver him or cause him to be delivered to the custody of the delegating officer. Upon receiving such custody, the latter must without unnecessary delay bring the defendant before the court in which the warrant is returnable.]~~

§ 37. Subdivision 6 of section 120.90 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 16 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

6. Before bringing a defendant arrested pursuant to a warrant before the local criminal court or youth part of a superior court in which such warrant is returnable, a police officer must without unnecessary delay perform all fingerprinting and other preliminary police duties required in the particular case. In any case in which the defendant is not brought by a police officer before such court but, following ~~[his]~~ the defendant's arrest in another county for an offense specified in subdivision one of section 160.10, is released by a local criminal court of such other county on ~~[his]~~ the defendant's own recognizance or ~~[on bail]~~ under non-monetary conditions for ~~[his]~~ the defendant's appearance on a specified date before the local criminal court before which the warrant is returnable, the latter court must, upon arraignment of the defendant before it, direct that ~~[he]~~ the defendant be fingerprinted by the appro-

8 205.19 [~~or 215.56~~] of the penal law, the arrested person [~~need~~] must not 9 be brought before a local criminal court as provided in subdivision
10 one[~~, and the procedure may instead be as follows:~~

11 ~~(a) A police officer may issue and serve an appearance ticket upon the~~ 13 ~~sion two of section 150.20; or~~

14 ~~(b) The desk officer in charge at a police station, county jail or~~ 15 ~~police headquarters, or any of his superior officers, may, in such place~~ 16 ~~fix pre-arraignment bail and, upon deposit thereof, issue and serve an~~ 17 ~~appearance ticket upon the arrested person and release him from custody,~~
18 ~~as prescribed in section 150.30] of this section. Instead, a police~~
19 ~~officer must issue and serve an appearance ticket upon the arrested~~ 20 ~~person and release the arrested person from custody, as prescribed in~~ 21 ~~subdivision two of section 150.20.~~

22 § 39. Subdivision 3 of section 140.20 of the criminal procedure law,
23 as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as
24 follows:

25 3. If (a) the arrest is for an offense other than a class A, B, C or D

27 205.19 [~~or 215.56~~] of the penal law, and (b) owing to unavailability of 28 a local criminal court the arresting police officer is unable to bring 29 the arrested person before such a court with reasonable promptness, 30 [~~either~~] an appearance ticket must be served unconditionally upon the 31 arrested person [~~or pre-arraignment bail must be fixed, as prescribed in~~ 32 ~~subdivision two. If pre-arraignment bail is fixed but not posted, such~~ 33 ~~arrested person may be temporarily held in custody but must be brought~~ 34 ~~before a local criminal court without unnecessary delay]. Nothing~~ 35 contained in this subdivision requires a police officer to serve an 36 appearance ticket upon an arrested person or release [~~him~~] the arrested 37 person from custody at a time when such person appears to be under the 38 influence of alcohol, narcotics or other drug to the degree that [~~he~~]
39 such person may endanger [~~himself~~] themselves or other persons.

40 § 40. Subdivision 3 of section 140.40 of the criminal procedure law,
41 as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as
42 follows:

43 3. If the arrest is for an offense other than a class A, B, C or D

54 ~~thereof, issue and serve an appearance ticket upon the arrested person~~
55 ~~and release him from custody, as prescribed in section 150.30] of this~~ 56 ~~section. Instead, an appropriate police officer must issue and serve an~~ appearance ticket upon the arrested person and release the arrested person from custody, as prescribed in subdivision two of section 150.20.

§ 41. Subdivision 2 of section 150.20 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as follows:

2. (a) Whenever a police officer has arrested a person without a warrant for an offense other than a class A, B, C or D felony or a violation of section 130.25, 130.40, 205.10, 205.17[~~7~~] or 205.19 [~~or 215.56~~] of the penal law pursuant to section 140.10, or (b) whenever a peace officer, who is not authorized by law to issue an appearance ticket, has arrested a person for an offense other than a class A, B, C or D felony or a violation of section 130.25, 130.40, 205.10, 205.17[~~7~~] or 205.19 [~~or 215.56~~] of the penal law pursuant to section 140.25, and has requested a police officer to issue and serve upon such arrested person an appearance ticket pursuant to subdivision four of section 140.27, or (c) whenever a person has been arrested for an offense other than a class A, B, C or D felony or a violation of section 130.25, 130.40, 205.10, 205.17[~~7~~] or 205.19 [~~or 215.56~~] of the penal law and has been delivered to the custody of an appropriate police officer pursuant to section 140.40, such police officer may, instead of bringing such person before a local criminal court and promptly filing or causing the arresting peace officer or arresting person to file a local criminal court accusatory instrument therewith, issue to and serve upon such person an appearance ticket. [~~The issuance and service of an appearance ticket under such circumstances may be conditioned upon a deposit of pre-arraignment bail, as provided in section 150.30.~~]

§ 42. Subdivision 2 of section 150.75 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 360 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

2. Whenever the defendant is arrested without a warrant, an appearance ticket shall promptly be issued and served upon him, as provided in this article. [~~The issuance and service of the appearance ticket may be made conditional upon the posting of pre-arraignment bail as provided in section 150.30 of this chapter but only if the appropriate police officer (a) is unable to ascertain the defendant's identity or residence address; or (b) reasonably suspects that the identification or residence address given by the defendant is not accurate; or (c) reasonably suspects that the defendant does not reside within the state.~~] No warrant of arrest shall be issued unless the defendant has failed to appear in court as required by the terms of the appearance ticket or by the court.

§ 43. The section heading of section 170.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

Arraignment upon information, simplified traffic information, prosecutor's information or misdemeanor complaint; defendant's presence, defendant's rights[~~7~~] and court's instructions [~~and bail matters~~].

§ 44. Subdivision 7 of section 170.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

7. Upon the arraignment, the court, unless it intends to make a final disposition of the action immediately thereafter, must, as provided in subdivision one of section 530.20, issue a securing order either releasing the defendant on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance or [~~fixing bail~~] under non-monetary conditions for his future appearance in the action; except that where a defendant appears by counsel pursuant to paragraph (b) of subdivision one of this section, the court must release the defendant on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance.

1 § 45. Subdivision 2 of section 170.25 of the criminal procedure law is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 2. Such order stays the proceedings in the local criminal court pend-
4 ing submission of the charge to the grand jury. Upon the subsequent 5 filing of an indictment in the superior court, the proceedings in the 6 local criminal court terminate and the defendant must be required to 7 appear for arraignment upon the indictment in the manner prescribed in 8 subdivisions one and two of section 210.10. Upon the subsequent filing 9 of a grand jury dismissal of the charge, the proceedings in the local 10 criminal court terminate and the superior court must, if the defendant
11 is not at liberty on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance, discharge 12 him from custody [~~or exonerate his bail, as the case may be~~].

13 § 46. Subdivision 3 of 170.50 of the criminal procedure law is amended
14 to read as follows:

15 3. Upon dismissing a prosecutor's information or a count thereof
16 pursuant to this section, the court may, upon application of the people,
17 in its discretion authorize the people to resubmit the charge or charges
18 to the same or another grand jury. In the absence of such authori-
19 zation, such charge or charges may not be resubmitted to a grand jury.
20 The rules prescribed in subdivisions eight and nine of section 210.45 21 concerning the discharge of a defendant from custody [~~or exoneration of~~ 22 ~~bail~~] in the absence of an authorization to resubmit an indictment to a 23 grand jury, and concerning the issuance of a securing order and the 24 effective period thereof where such an authorization is issued, apply
25 equally where a prosecutor's information is dismissed pursuant to this 26 section.

27 § 47. The section heading of section 180.10 of the criminal procedure
28 law is amended to read as follows:

29 Proceedings upon felony complaint; arraignment; defendant's rights[~~r~~]
30 and court's instructions [~~and bail matters~~].

31 § 48. Subdivision 6 of section 180.10 of the criminal procedure law is
32 amended to read as follows:

33 6. Upon the arraignment, the court, unless it intends immediately
34 thereafter to dismiss the felony complaint and terminate the action, 35 must issue a securing order which, as provided in subdivision two of 36 section 530.20, either releases the defendant on his own recognizance 37 [~~or fixes bail~~] or commits him to the custody of the sheriff for his 38 future appearance in such action.

39 § 49. Subdivision 4 of section 180.70 of the criminal procedure law is
40 amended to read as follows:

41 4. If there is not reasonable cause to believe that the defendant
42 committed any offense, the court must dismiss the felony complaint and 43 discharge the defendant from custody if [~~he~~] the defendant is in custo-
44 dy[~~, or, if he is at liberty on bail, it must exonerate the bail~~].

45 § 50. Subdivision 2 of section 190.75 of the criminal procedure law is
46 amended to read as follows:

47 2. If the defendant was previously held for the action of the grand 48 jury by a local criminal court, the superior court to which such 49 dismissal is presented must order the defendant released from custody if 50 [~~he~~] the defendant is in the custody of the sheriff[~~, or, if he is at~~ 51 ~~liberty on bail, it must exonerate the bail~~].

52 § 51. Subdivision 2 of section 210.10 of the criminal procedure law,
53 as amended by chapter 681 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as
54 follows:

55 2. If a felony complaint against the defendant was pending in a local 56 criminal court or if the defendant was previously held by a local criminal court for the action of the grand jury, and if the defendant is at liberty on [~~his or her~~] the defendant's own recognizance [~~or on bail pursuant to a previous court order issued in the same criminal action~~], the superior court must, upon at least two days notice to the defendant [~~and his or her surety, to any person other than the defendant who posted cash bail~~] and to any attorney who would be entitled to notice under circumstances prescribed in subdivision one, direct the defendant to appear before the superior court for arraignment on a specified date. If the defendant fails to appear on such date, the court may issue a bench warrant [~~and, in addition, may forfeit the bail, if any~~]. Upon taking the defendant into custody pursuant to such bench warrant, the executing police officer must without unnecessary delay bring the defendant before such superior court for arraignment. If such superior court is not available, the executing police officer may bring the defendant to the local correctional facility of the county in which such superior court sits, to be detained there until not later than the commencement of the next session of such court occurring on the next business day.

§ 52. The section heading of section 210.15 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

Arraignment upon indictment; defendant's rights[~~7~~] and court's instructions [~~and bail matters~~].

§ 53. Subdivision 6 of section 210.15 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

6. Upon the arraignment, the court, unless it intends to make a final disposition of the action immediately thereafter, must, as provided in section 530.40, issue a securing order, releasing the defendant on his own recognizance [~~or fixing bail~~] or committing [~~him~~] the defendant to the custody of the sheriff for [~~his~~] the defendant's future appearance in such action.

§ 54. Subdivision 8 of section 210.45 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

8. When the court dismisses the entire indictment without authorizing resubmission of the charge or charges to a grand jury, it must order that the defendant be discharged from custody if [~~he~~] the defendant is in the custody of the sheriff[~~, or if he is at liberty on bail it must exonerate the bail~~].

§ 55. Subdivision 9 of section 210.45 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

9. When the court dismisses the entire indictment but authorizes resubmission of the charge or charges to a grand jury, such authorization is, for purposes of this subdivision, deemed to constitute an order holding the defendant for the action of a grand jury with respect to such charge or charges. Such order must be accompanied by a securing order either releasing the defendant on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance [~~or fixing bail~~] or committing [~~him~~] the defendant to the custody of the sheriff pending resubmission of the case to the grand jury and the grand jury's disposition thereof. Such securing order remains in effect until the first to occur of any of the following:

(a) A statement to the court by the people that they do not intend to resubmit the case to a grand jury;

(b) Arraignment of the defendant upon an indictment or prosecutor's information filed as a result of resubmission of the case to a grand jury. Upon such arraignment, the arraigning court must issue a new securing order;

1 (c) The filing with the court of a grand jury dismissal of the case
2 following resubmission thereof;

3 (d) The expiration of a period of forty-five days from the date of 4 issuance of the order; provided that such period may, for good cause
5 shown, be extended by the court to a designated subsequent date if such 6 be necessary to accord the people reasonable opportunity to resubmit the 7 case to a grand jury.

8 Upon the termination of the effectiveness of the securing order pursu-9 ant to paragraph (a), (c) or (d), the court must immediately order that 10 the defendant be discharged from custody if he is in the custody of the 11 sheriff[~~, or if he is at liberty on bail it must exonerate the bail~~].
12 Although expiration of the period of time specified in paragraph (d)
13 without any resubmission or grand jury disposition of the case termi-14 nates the effectiveness of the securing order, it does not terminate the 15 effectiveness of the order authorizing resubmission.

16 § 56. Subdivision 6 of section 216.05 of the criminal procedure law,
17 as added by section 4 of part AAA of chapter 56 of the laws of 2009, is
18 amended to read as follows:

19 6. Upon an eligible defendant's agreement to abide by the conditions 20 set by the court, the court shall issue a securing order providing for 21 [~~bail or~~] release on the defendant's own recognizance and conditioning
22 any release upon the agreed upon conditions. The period of alcohol or 23 substance abuse treatment shall begin as specified by the court and as 24 soon as practicable after the defendant's release, taking into account
25 the availability of treatment, so as to facilitate early intervention
26 with respect to the defendant's abuse or condition and the effectiveness
27 of the treatment program. In the event that a treatment program is not 28 immediately available or becomes unavailable during the course of the 29 defendant's participation in the judicial diversion program, the court
30 may release the defendant pursuant to the securing order.

31 § 57. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 9 of section 216.05 of the criminal 32 procedure law, as added by section 4 of part AAA of chapter 56 of the 33 laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

34 (c) If the court determines that the defendant has violated a condi-
35 tion of [~~his or her~~] the defendant's release under the judicial diver-
36 sion program, the court may modify the conditions thereof, reconsider 37 the order of recognizance [~~or bail~~] pursuant to subdivision two of 38 section 510.30 of this chapter, or terminate the defendant's partic-
39 ipation in the judicial diversion program; and when applicable proceed
40 with the defendant's sentencing in accordance with the agreement.
41 Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the court may 42 impose any sentence authorized for the crime of conviction in accordance 43 with the plea agreement, or any lesser sentence authorized to be imposed
44 on a felony drug offender pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivi-45 sion two of section 70.70 of the penal law taking into account the 46 length of time the defendant spent in residential treatment and how best 47 to continue treatment while the defendant is serving that sentence. In 48 determining what action to take for a violation of a release condition,
49 the court shall consider all relevant circumstances, including the views
50 of the prosecutor, the defense and the alcohol or substance abuse treat-
51 ment provider, and the extent to which persons who ultimately success-
52 fully complete a drug treatment regimen sometimes relapse by not 53 abstaining from alcohol or substance abuse or by failing to comply fully 54 with all requirements imposed by a treatment program. The court shall 55 also consider using a system of graduated and appropriate responses or 56 sanctions designed to address such inappropriate behaviors, protect

1 public safety and facilitate, where possible, successful completion of 2 the alcohol or substance abuse treatment program.

3 § 58. Subdivision 4 of section 290.10 of the criminal procedure law is
4 amended to read as follows:

5 4. Upon issuing a trial order of dismissal which dismisses the entire 6 indictment, the court must immediately discharge the defendant from 7 custody if he is in custody of the sheriff[~~, or, if he is at liberty on~~ 8 ~~bail, it must exonerate the bail~~].

9 § 59. Subdivision 1 of section 330.10 of the criminal procedure law is
10 amended to read as follows:

11 1. Upon a verdict of complete acquittal, the court must immediately 12 discharge the defendant if he is in the custody of the sheriff[~~, or, if~~ 13 ~~he is at liberty on bail, it must exonerate the bail~~].

14 § 60. Subdivision 3 of section 330.20 of the criminal procedure law, 15 as added by chapter 548 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as
16 follows:

17 3. Examination order; place of examination. Upon issuing an examina-
18 tion order, the court must, except as otherwise provided in this subdi-
19 vision, direct that the defendant be committed to a secure facility
20 designated by the commissioner as the place for such psychiatric exam-
21 ination. The sheriff must hold the defendant in custody pending such 22 designation by the commissioner, and when notified of the designation,
23 the sheriff must promptly deliver the defendant to such secure facility.
24 When the defendant is not in custody at the time of such verdict or 25 plea, because [~~he~~ the defendant was previously released on [~~bail or on~~ 26 ~~his~~ the defendant's own recognizance, the court, in its discretion, may 27 direct that such examination be conducted on an out-patient basis, and 28 at such time and place as the commissioner shall designate. If, however, 29 the commissioner informs the court that confinement of the defendant is 30 necessary for an effective examination, the court must direct that the 31 defendant be confined in a facility designated by the commissioner until 32 the examination is completed.

33 § 61. Section 410.60 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 34 section 23 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 35 read as follows:

37 A person who has been taken into custody pursuant to section 410.40 or 38 section 410.50 of this article for violation of a condition of a
39 sentence of probation or a sentence of conditional discharge must forth-
40 with be brought before the court that imposed the sentence. Where a 41 violation of probation petition and report has been filed and the person 42 has not been taken into custody nor has a warrant been issued, an 43 initial court appearance shall occur within ten business days of the 44 court's issuance of a notice to appear. If the court has reasonable 45 cause to believe that such person has violated a condition of the 46 sentence, it may commit such person to the custody of the sheriff, [~~fix~~ 47 ~~bail,~~] release such person under non-monetary conditions or release such 48 person on such person's own recognizance for future appearance at a 49 hearing to be held in accordance with section 410.70 of this article. If 50 the court does not have reasonable cause to believe that such person has 51 violated a condition of the sentence, it must direct that such person be 52 released.

53 § 62. Subdivision 1 of section 410.70 of the criminal procedure law,
54 as amended by chapter 17 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as
55 follows:

1 1. In general. The court may not revoke a sentence of probation or a
2 sentence of conditional discharge, or extend a period of probation,
3 unless (a) the court has found that the defendant has violated a condi-
4 tion of the sentence and (b) the defendant has had an opportunity to be 5 heard pursuant to this section. The defendant is entitled to a hearing
6 in accordance with this section promptly after the court has filed a 7 declaration of delinquency or has committed [~~him or has fixed bail~~] the 8 defendant pursuant to this article.

9 § 63. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 1 of section 420.10 of the criminal
10 procedure law is REPEALED.

11 § 64. Subdivision 1 of section 460.50 of the criminal procedure law,
12 as amended by chapter 884 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as
13 follows:

14 1. Upon application of a defendant who has taken an appeal to an 15 intermediate appellate court from a judgment or from a sentence of a 16 criminal court, a judge designated in subdivision two may issue an order 17 both (a) staying or suspending the execution of the judgment pending the 18 determination of the appeal, and (b) either releasing the defendant on 19 [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance or [~~fixing bail pursuant to the~~ 20 ~~provisions of article five hundred thirty~~] under non-monetary 21 conditions. That phase of the order staying or suspending execution of 22 the judgment does not become effective unless and until the defendant is 23 released, either on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance or [~~upon the~~ 24 ~~posting of bail~~] under non-monetary conditions.

25 § 65. Subdivision 6 of section 460.50 of the criminal procedure law,

32 order both (a) staying or suspending the execution of the judgment pend-33 ing the determination of the appeal, and (b) either releasing the 34 defendant on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance or [~~fixing bail~~
35 ~~pursuant to the provisions of article five hundred thirty~~] under non-
36 monetary conditions. That phase of the order staying or suspending 37 execution of the judgment does not become effective unless and until the 38 defendant is released, either on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance 39 or [~~upon the posting of bail~~] under non-monetary conditions.

40 § 66. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 41 460.60 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 168 of the 42 laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

43 (ii) either releasing the defendant on [~~his~~] the defendant's own
44 recognizance or [~~continuing bail as previously determined or fixing bail~~
45 ~~pursuant to the provisions of article five hundred thirty~~] under non-
46 monetary conditions. Such an order is effective immediately and that 47 phase of the order staying or suspending execution of the judgment does 48 not become effective unless and until the defendant is released, either
49 on [~~his~~] the defendant's own recognizance or [~~upon the posting of bail~~]
50 under non-monetary conditions.

51 § 67. Section 470.45 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read

6 ~~his bail~~] or issue a securing order.

7 § 68. Subdivision 2 of section 550.10 of the criminal procedure law is
8 amended to read as follows:

9 2. If the defendant has been arraigned in the action and, by virtue 10 of a securing order, is either in the custody of the sheriff or at

49 setting any non-monetary conditions determined by the court to be 50 required to secure [~~his~~] the witness' future attendance thereat.

51 § 77. Subdivision 2 of section 620.40 of the criminal procedure law is

6 § 78. Section 620.50 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 3 as 7 amended by section 24 of part JJJ of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, is

13 evidence all facts essential to support a material witness order, and 14 any testimony so adduced must be given under oath;

15 (b) The prospective witness may testify under oath or may make an 16 unsworn statement;

17 (c) The prospective witness may call witnesses in [~~his~~] the prospec-

19 any such witness whom [~~he~~] the prospective witness reasonably wishes to 20 call, and any testimony so adduced must be given under oath;

21 (d) Upon the hearing, evidence tending to demonstrate that the 22 prospective witness does or does not possess information material to the 23 criminal action in issue, or that [~~he~~] the prospective witness will or 24 will not be amenable or respond to a subpoena at the time [~~his~~] the 25 prospective witness' attendance will be sought, is admissible even 26 though it consists of hearsay.

27 2. If the court is satisfied after such hearing that there is reason-
28 able cause to believe that the prospective witness (a) possesses infor-29 mation material to the pending action or proceeding, and (b) will not be 30 amenable or respond to a subpoena at a time when [~~his~~] the prospective
31 witness' attendance will be sought, it may issue a material witness 32 order, adjudging [~~him~~] such prospective witness a material witness and

49 1. At any time after a material witness order has been issued the 50 court must, upon application of such witness, with notice to the party 51 upon whose application the order was issued, and with opportunity to be 52 heard, make inquiry whether by reason of new or changed facts or circum-
53 stances the material witness order is no longer necessary or warranted,
54 or, if it is, whether the original [~~bail~~] non-monetary conditions
55 currently [~~appears~~] appear excessive. Upon making any such determi-
56 nation, the court must vacate the order. If its determination is that

1 the order is no longer necessary or warranted, it must~~[, as the situ-~~
2 ~~ation requires, either]~~ discharge the witness from custody ~~[or exonerate~~
3 ~~the bail]~~. If its determination is that the ~~[bail is]~~ non-monetary
4 conditions are excessive, it must issue a new order ~~[fixing bail in a~~
5 ~~lesser amount or on less burdensome terms]~~ setting less restrictive
6 non-monetary conditions.

7 2. At any time when a witness is at liberty ~~[upon bail]~~ under non-8 monetary conditions pursuant to a material witness order, the court may, 9 upon application of the party upon whose application the order was 10 issued, with notice to the witness if possible and to ~~[his]~~ the witness'
11 attorney if any and opportunity to be heard, make inquiry whether, by 12 reason of new or changed facts or circumstances, the original ~~[bail is]~~ 13 non-monetary conditions are no longer sufficient to secure the future
14 attendance of the witness at the pending action. Upon making such a 15 determination, the court must vacate the order and issue a new order
16 ~~[fixing bail in a greater amount or on terms]~~ setting non-monetary 17 conditions more likely to secure the future attendance of the witness.

18 § 80. Section 620.70 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read
19 as follows:

20 § 620.70 Material witness order; compelling attendance of witness who 21 fails to appear.

22 If a witness at liberty ~~[on bail]~~ under non-monetary conditions pursu-
23 ant to a material witness order cannot be found or notified at the time 24 ~~[his]~~ the witness' appearance ~~[as a witness]~~ is required, or if after 25 notification ~~[he]~~ the witness fails to appear in such action or proceed-
26 ing as required, the court may issue a warrant, addressed to a police
27 officer, directing such officer to take such witness into custody
28 anywhere within the state and to bring ~~[him]~~ the witness to the court 29 forthwith.

30 § 81. Subdivision 3 of section 640.10 of the criminal procedure law is
31 amended to read as follows:

32 3. Witness from another state subpoenaed to testify in this state. If

36 this state, is a material witness in a prosecution pending in a court of 37 record in this state, or in a grand jury investigation which has 38 commenced or is about to commence, a judge of such court may issue a 39 certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specify-
40 ing the number of days the witness will be required. This certificate 41 shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in 42 which the witness is found.

43 If said certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immedi-44 ate custody and delivered to an officer of this state to assure ~~[his]~~ 45 the witness' attendance in this state, such judge may direct that such 46 witness be forthwith brought before ~~[him]~~ the judge; and the judge being 47 satisfied of the desirability of such custody and delivery, for which 48 determination said certificate shall be prima facie proof, may order 49 that said witness be forthwith taken into custody and delivered to an 50 officer of this state, which order shall be sufficient authority to such 51 officer to take such witness into custody and hold ~~[him]~~ the witness 52 unless and until ~~[he]~~ the witness may be released by ~~[bail]~~ non-monetary 53 conditions, recognizance, or order of the judge issuing the certificate.

54 If the witness is summoned to attend and testify in this state ~~[he]~~ 55 the witness shall be tendered the sum of ~~[ten]~~ fifty cents a mile for 56 each mile and ~~[five dollars]~~ one hundred dollars for each day that ~~[he]~~

1 the witness is required to travel and attend as a witness. Such fees
2 shall be a proper charge upon the county in which such criminal prose-
3 cution or grand jury investigation is pending. A witness who has 4 appeared in accordance with the provisions of the subpoena shall not be 5 required to remain within this state a longer period of time than the 6 period mentioned in the certificate, unless otherwise ordered by the 7 court. If such witness fails without good cause to attend and testify as 8 directed in this subpoena, ~~he~~ the witness shall be punished in the 9 manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a subpoe-
10 na issued from a court of record in this state.

11 § 82. Subdivision 5 of section 705.00 of the criminal procedure law,
12 as added by chapter 744 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as

16 chapter, any criminal act as defined in subdivision one of section
17 460.10 of the penal law, ~~[bail jumping in the first and second degree as~~ 18 ~~defined in sections 215.57 and 215.56 of such law]~~, or aggravated 19 harassment as defined in subdivisions one and two of section 240.30 of 20 such law.

21 § 83. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 3 of section 722.20 of the criminal
22 procedure law, as added by section 1-a of part WWW of chapter 59 of the 23 laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

24 (c) If there is not reasonable cause to believe that the defendant
25 committed any criminal act, the court must dismiss the felony complaint
26 and discharge the defendant from custody if ~~he~~ the defendant is in 27 custody~~[, or if he is at liberty on bail, it must exonerate the bail]~~.

28 § 84. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 3 of section 722.21 of the criminal
29 procedure law, as added by section 1-a of part WWW of chapter 59 of the 30 laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

31 (c) If there is not reasonable cause to believe that the defendant
32 committed any criminal act, the court must dismiss the felony complaint
33 and discharge the defendant from custody if ~~he~~ the defendant is in 34 custody~~[, or if he is at liberty on bail, it must exonerate the bail]~~.

35 § 85. Subdivision 2 of section 730.20 of the criminal procedure law is
36 amended to read as follows:

37 2. When the defendant is not in custody at the time a court issues an 38 order of examination, because ~~he~~ the defendant was theretofore

40 non-monetary conditions, the court may direct that the examination be 41 conducted on an out-patient basis, and at such time and place as the 42 director shall designate. If, however, the director informs the court
43 that hospital confinement of the defendant is necessary for an effective 44 examination, the court may direct that the defendant be confined in a 45 hospital designated by the director until the examination is completed.

46 § 86. Subdivision 1 of section 730.50 of the criminal procedure law,
47 as amended by chapter 7 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as

2 such court (a) must issue a final order of observation committing the 3 defendant to the custody of the commissioner for care and treatment in 4 an appropriate institution for a period not to exceed ninety days from 5 the date of such order, provided, however, that the commissioner may 6 designate an appropriate hospital for placement of a defendant for whom 7 a final order of observation has been issued, where such hospital is 8 licensed by the office of mental health and has agreed to accept, upon 9 referral by the commissioner, defendants subject to final orders of 10 observation issued under this subdivision, and (b) must dismiss the 11 indictment filed in such court against the defendant, and such dismissal
12 constitutes a bar to any further prosecution of the charge or charges
13 contained in such indictment. Upon the issuance of a final order of 14 observation, the district attorney shall immediately transmit to the 15 commissioner, in a manner intended to protect the confidentiality of the 16 information, a list of names and contact information of persons who may 17 reasonably be expected to be the victim of any assault or any violent 18 felony offense, as defined in the penal law, or any offense listed in 19 section 530.11 of this ~~chapter~~ part which would be carried out by the 20 committed person; provided that the person who reasonably may be 21 expected to be a victim does not need to be a member of the same family
22 or household as the committed person. When the indictment charges a 23 felony or when the defendant has been convicted of a felony, it must 24 issue an order of commitment committing the defendant to the custody of 25 the commissioner for care and treatment in an appropriate institution
26 or, upon the consent of the district attorney, committing ~~[him or her]~~
27 the defendant to the custody of the commissioner for care and treatment 28 on an out-patient basis, for a period not to exceed one year from the 29 date of such order. ~~[Upon the issuance of an order of commitment, the~~ 30 ~~court must exonerate the defendant's bail if he or she was previously at~~ 31 ~~liberty on bail, provided, however, that exoneration of bail is not~~
32 ~~required when a defendant is committed to the custody of the commission-~~
33 ~~er for care and treatment on an out-patient basis.]~~ When the defendant 34 is in the custody of the commissioner pursuant to a final order of 35 observation, the commissioner or ~~[his or her]~~ the commissioner's desig-
36 nee, which may include the director of an appropriate institution, imme-
