AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to enforcement of the warranty of habitability

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and purpose. The legislature hereby 2 finds that the rental housing market in the state of New York remains in 3 a state of crisis, due not only to severe shortages in the stock of safe 4 and affordable housing but also to the state of disrepair and blight
5 that afflicts rental housing opportunities available to people of lower 6 incomes throughout the state. The legislature further finds that the 7 warranty of habitability set forth in section 235-b of the real property
8 law represents a critical safeguard of the health and safety of tenants
9 across the state of New York by requiring that all rental housing accom-10 modations be maintained in a safe and sanitary condition for the 11 tenants; that enforcement efforts by the several agencies of the city of 12 New York and the state of New York, although often successful, are not 13 always sufficient to deter such breaches of the warranty by such owners 14 and landlords, so that in spite of the protections provided by law,
15 every year many tenants in the state of New York must endure housing 16 conditions that fail to meet the basic standards of safety required by 17 law. In light of the foregoing, the legislature hereby finds that the 18 state of New York must adopt additional measures to deter the most egre-
19 gious breaches of the warranty of habitability set forth in section 20 235-b of the real property law, and that the codification of law award-21 ing punitive damages to tenants who suffer intentional breaches of the

1 warranty is an appropriate method to realize such a purpose. The legis-
2 lature therefore enacts the following law granting the courts discretion
3 to award punitive damages in cases where the warranty of habitability
4 set forth in section 235-b of the real property law is breached inten-
5 tionally or with conscious disregard to severe risks to the life,
6 health, or safety of the tenant.

7 § 2. Section 235-b of the real property law is amended by adding a new 8 subdivision 4 to read as follows:

9 4. The court may award punitive damages to the tenant upon a finding 10 that the landlord's breach of the warranty set forth in this section was 11 intentional and malicious or demonstrates a conscious disregard of 12 severe risks to the life, health, or safety of the tenant. Punitive 13 damages under this section shall not be awarded to tenants of any such 14 multiple dwelling owned or operated by a municipal housing authority 15 organized pursuant to article thirteen of the public housing law.

16 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 17 have become a law.
