2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

February 22, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. THIELE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to the creation of a recovery living task force

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new section
2 19.04 to read as follows:

3 § 19.04 Recovery living task force.

4 1. Definitions. As used in this section:

5 "Recovery living residence" shall mean any residence located in New 6 York state where the owner or operator of such residence holds the resi-
7 dence out to the public as an alcohol and drug free living environment
8 for persons recovering from a chemical dependency, where no formal 9 treatment services are provided on-site.

10 2. The recovery living task force is hereby created, which pursuant to 11 the provisions of this section, shall establish best practice guidelines 12 for recovery living residences that illustrate the most appropriate and 13 effective environment for persons recovering from a chemical dependency.

14 3. The task force shall study and utilize reliable evidence and infor-
15 mation collected from organizations and programs both in New York state 16 and throughout the country to:

17 (a) Document the number of recovery residences operating in the state;

18 (b) Issue recommendations and guidelines establishing best practices
19 for recovery living residences in order to provide an alcohol and drug 20 free recovery living environment, with a focus on least restrictive
21 means of benefiting the person in recovery. In developing guidelines, 22 the task force shall consider the role of local and state government in 23 oversight and other areas; siting challenges; geographic variations in 24 what housing currently exists and in barriers to creating new suitable 25 housing; optimal standards for living space, privacy and nutrition;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 personal financial participation by tenants; work requirements, includ-
2 ing adequacy of compensation; reimbursement opportunities; discharge
3 planning, the participant's legal protections against removal from the 4 residence; what information must be provided to the participant at 5 admission, including due process rights of the participant for removal 6 from the residence; appropriate responses to relapse with the goal of 7 protecting both the person who has relapsed and other residents of the 8 residence; how to ensure access to medication assisted treatment; the 9 needs of women, and of women with children; the use of drug testing; and 10 options and requirements for formal or self-help treatment services;

11 (c) Study and issue findings regarding health and safety concerns 12 related to the occupancy and operation of recovery living residences for 13 the person in recovery;

14 (d) Study and issue findings regarding the impacts of occupancy and 15 operation of recovery living residences on neighborhoods and surrounding 16 areas;

17 (e) Issue recommendations on the feasibility of licensing, regulating,
18 registering or certifying recovery living residences in New York state; 19 and

20 (f) Issue recommendations for any other program or policy initiative 21 that the task force deems relevant.

22 4. (a) The members of the task force shall include ten members
23 consisting of the commissioner or his or her designee; the commissioner
24 of the office of mental health or his or her designee; the commissioner 25 of the office of temporary and disability assistance or his or her
26 designee; the commissioner of the office of homes and community renewal
27 or his or her designee; two members appointed by the temporary president
28 of the senate, at least one of whom shall be a current or former resi-
29 dent of a recovery living residence; two members appointed by the speak-30 er of the assembly, at least one of whom shall be a current or former 31 resident of a recovery living residence; and two members appointed by 32 the governor. The task force shall include at least one operator of a 33 recovery living residence with at least five years of experience in the 34 field who must demonstrate, to the extent practicable, that the resi-
35 dences they operate have had minimal code violations within the preced-
36 ing three years. Appointments must ensure geographic representation, to 37 the extent practicable. The commissioner shall be designated the chair-
38 person of such task force and shall select a vice-chairperson and a
39 secretary from the designees appointed by the legislature or the gover-40 nor;

41 (b) The members of the task force shall receive no compensation for 42 their services but shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and neces-
43 sarily incurred in the performance of their duties;

44 (c) No civil action shall be brought in any court against any member 45 of the recovery living task force for any act or omission necessary to 46 the discharge of his or her duties as a member of the task force, except 47 as provided herein. Such member may be liable for damages in any such 48 action if he or she failed to act in good faith and exercise reasonable
49 care. Any information obtained by a member of the task force while 50 carrying out his or her duties as prescribed in subdivision three of 51 this section shall only be utilized in their capacity as a member of the 52 task force.

53 5. No later than one year after the effective date of this section, 54 the task force shall provide a report containing the results of the 55 study, including evidence used as a basis in making such report, and its 56 recommendations, if any, together with drafts of legislation necessary

1 to carry out its recommendations by filing said report, documentation,
2 and draft legislation, with the governor, the temporary president of the 3 senate, the minority leader of the senate, the speaker of the assembly,
4 and the minority leader of the assembly. The task force shall also make 5 the report, documentation, and draft legislation public by posting a 6 copy on the website maintained by the office.

7 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
