41 shall be made by the county committee or by such other committee as the 42 rules of the party may provide, by a majority of the votes cast at a

And further provided, if there are no members of the legislative body who are members of the political party which filed such certificate, the appointment shall take effect upon the expiration of thirty days from the date that the certificate was filed. If none of the persons named in any of the certificates filed by a party are so appointed within sixty days after the filing of any such certificate, then such party may file another certificate within thirty days after the expiration of any such sixty day period recommending a different person for such appointment. If a party fails to file a certificate within the time prescribed by this section, the members of the legislative body who are members of such party may appoint any eligible person to such office.

§ 4. The section heading of section 3-212 of the election law is amended and a new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

Boards of elections; organization, proceedings, reports and records; budget reporting in the city of New York.

6. If, at any time during the city fiscal year of the city of New York, the director of management and budget of such city determines that the expenditures of the board of elections of the city of New York are reasonably likely to exceed appropriations to such board for personnel services or other than personnel services for a quarter of the fiscal year, based upon a reasonable allotment by such director of such appropriations to such quarter, or for the entire fiscal year, such director shall provide written notice of such determination to the co-executive directors of such board, the mayor of such city, the speaker of the city council of such city, and the public advocate of such city, together with any relevant requests for additional data or information that the director determines to be material to such board's level of expenditures. Within twenty days of receiving such notice, such co-executive directors shall submit to such director, mayor, public advocate and speaker a projection of whether and by what amount it will exceed its appropriations for personnel services and other than personnel services for each quarter and the entire fiscal year, together with a detailed explanation of the needs justifying any such projected excess expenditures. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prevent the director from requiring the furnishing of data and information, and answers to pertinent inquiries, at any time in accordance with section two hundred twenty-five of the New York city charter.

§ 5. Section 3-300 of the election law is amended to read as follows:

§ 3-300. Board employees; appointment. [~~Every~~] 1. Except as provided in subdivision two of this section, every board of elections shall appoint, and at its pleasure remove, clerks, voting machine technicians, custodians and other employees, fix their number, prescribe their duties, fix their titles and rank and establish their salaries within the amounts appropriated therefor by the local legislative body and shall secure in the appointment of employees of the board of elections equal representation of the major political parties. Every commissioner in each board of elections except for commissioners of the board of

1 elections of the city of New York, may approve and at pleasure remove a 2 deputy, establish his or her title and prescribe his or her duties. [~~In~~]

10 ~~the supervision of such board~~] in accordance with this subdivision. The 11 board of elections of the city of New York shall advise the co-executive 12 directors on matters of policy affecting the administration of elections
13 in the city of New York. Except as expressly provided in this subdivi-14 sion, such board shall exercise no executive power and perform no execu-
15 tive or administrative functions. Except as expressly provided in this 16 subdivision, such board shall make no individualized decisions concern-17 ing the employment of any specific person or the registration, pre-re-18 gistration, enrollment or qualifications of any specific voter or appli-19 cant. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require or 20 authorize the day-to-day supervision of the co-executive directors by 21 the board. The board may delegate powers and duties conferred upon the 22 board to the co-executive directors, to be exercised consistent with 23 paragraph (d) of this subdivision. One co-executive director shall 24 first be appointed for a term of two years and the other shall first be 25 appointed to a term of four years, with both terms commencing on March 26 first, two thousand twenty-three. Thereafter, each co-executive direc-27 tor shall be appointed for a term of four years in the manner described 28 in paragraph (b) of this subdivision. In the case of a vacancy, a 29 co-executive director shall be appointed to serve the remainder of the 30 unexpired term according to the original manner of appointment of the 31 previous co-executive director.

32 (b)(1) For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (e) of this 33 subdivision, the term "appointing authorities" shall mean the mayor of 34 the city of New York, the speaker of the city council of such city, and 35 the public advocate of such city, who shall act pursuant to this subdivi-36 vision by concurring action of at least two of such officials, provided 37 that the mayor shall be one of the concurring officials.

38 (2) No earlier than the first day of January and no later than the 39 first day of February in two thousand twenty-three and in every calendar 40 year thereafter during which the four-year term of a co-executive direc-
41 tor is to expire, the commissioners of election for each political party 42 shall file one or more certificates of party recommendation with the 43 appointing authorities, as described in this paragraph.

44 (3) Party recommendations for co-executive director shall be made by 45 the commissioners of election for each political party. Such commission-46 ers shall act jointly by majority vote to recommend no fewer than three 47 candidates for each position of co-executive director. If at any time a 48 vacancy occurs in the office of co-executive director other than by 49 expiration of term of office, or if a request for additional candidates 50 is made by the appointing authorities pursuant to subparagraph six of 51 this paragraph, party recommendations to fill such vacancy shall be made 52 within thirty days. If fewer than three candidates are recommended in a 53 timely manner by the commissioners of election for the applicable politi-54 cal party acting jointly by majority vote, then the members of the 55 city council who are members of the applicable political party may, by 56 majority vote of such members, file certificates of party recommendation

1 with the appointing authorities within fifteen days after the expiration 2 of the time for filing by the commissioners of election, so as to 3 increase the total number of candidates to three.

4 (4) Candidates recommended under this paragraph must satisfy all qual-
5 ifications required for local officers pursuant to the public officers
6 law. Further, no later than December thirty-first, two thousand twen-
7 ty-two, the state board of elections shall prescribe additional quali-8 fications for the co-executive directors, which shall apply to recommen-9 dations and appointments made thereafter. Such qualifications shall 10 thereafter be reviewed by such board at least every two years and 11 updated as necessary, and shall be prescribed only after consideration 12 of the skills and knowledge necessary or useful for the exercise of the 13 duties and responsibilities of the co-executive directors, as well as 14 the ability to recruit a sufficient number of candidates to be co-execu-15 tive directors.

16 (5) The certificates filed shall be in such form and contain such 17 information as shall be prescribed by the state board of elections.

18 (6) The co-executive directors shall be appointed jointly by the 19 appointing authorities in accordance with this subdivision, from among 20 the candidates recommended pursuant to subparagraph three of this para-21 graph; provided, however, that within thirty days after receipt of one 22 or more certificates of recommendation that include in the aggregate at 23 least three candidates, the appointing authorities may request the 24 submission of not less than two additional candidates, in which event 25 the process set forth in subparagraph two of this paragraph shall be 26 repeated. If the appointing authorities fail to jointly appoint any 27 person recommended for appointment as co-executive director pursuant to 28 this paragraph, within forty-five days after receipt of one or more 29 certificates of recommendation that include at least three candidates, 30 or within thirty days after receipt of one or more certificates that 31 include at least two additional candidates, then the commissioners of 32 election who are members of the political party which filed such certif-
33 icate may appoint one of the recommended candidates by a majority vote 34 of such commissioners. If a sufficient number of candidates, or of 35 additional candidates, are not recommended to the appointing authorities
36 by either the applicable commissioners of election or the applicable
37 members of the city council within the times prescribed by this para-
38 graph, then any holdover status of the incumbent co-executive director 39 shall terminate and the process required by this paragraph shall recom-40 mence, unless the appointing authorities jointly appoint one of the 41 recommended candidates within fifteen days after the expiration of such 42 prescribed times.

43 (7) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this paragraph, no
44 earlier than the first day of January and no later than the thirty-first 45 day of January in the last year of the term of a co-executive director, 46 the appointing authorities and commissioners of election for the appli-
47 cable political party, acting by a majority vote of such commissioners, 48 may agree to jointly issue a certificate of party recommendation and 49 appointment to reappoint such co-executive director to another term of 50 office. In such event, the process otherwise specified in subparagraphs 51 two, three and six of this paragraph shall not apply.

52 (8) A co-executive director may be removed from office for cause by 53 the appointing authorities. In addition, a co-executive director may be 54 removed without cause by the appointing authorities acting jointly with 55 the commissioners of election for the applicable political party, acting 56 by a majority vote of such commissioners. Any vacancy so resulting

1 shall be filled in the manner prescribed by this paragraph for filling 2 vacancies.

3 (9) The co-executive directors shall be subject to the training
4 requirements set forth in subdivision eight of section 3-200 of this 5 article, unless the state board of elections in its discretion
6 prescribes alternative or additional training for the co-executive 7 directors specific to their duties and responsibilities.

8 (c) The board shall have the power and duty to take the following 9 actions to the extent otherwise consistent with the jurisdiction of the 13 or any other relevant provision of this chapter;

22 construed to require the preparation of administration of competitive

25 elections of the city of New York prior to the establishment of such
