Introduced by M. of A. BARCLAY, MORINELLO, B. MILLER, SMITH, MIKULIN, NORRIS, WALCZYK, GALLAHAN, SALK, DeSTEFANO, J. M. GIGLIO -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. BROWN, LEMONDES, MANKTELOW -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, the criminal procedure law and the civil practice law and rules, in relation to crimes committed against a child

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 260.10 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 260.10 Endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree.

A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree when:

1. He or she knowingly acts in a manner likely to be injurious to the physical, mental or moral welfare of a child less than seventeen years old or directs or authorizes such child to engage in an occupation involving a substantial risk of danger to his or her life or health; or

2. Being a parent, guardian or other person legally charged with the care or custody of a child less than eighteen years old, he or she fails or refuses to exercise reasonable diligence in the control of such child to prevent him or her from becoming an "abused child," a "neglected child," a "juvenile delinquent" or a "person in need of supervision," as those terms are defined in articles ten, three and seven of the family court act.

3. A person is not guilty of the provisions of this section when he or she engages in the conduct described in subdivision one of section 260.00 of this article: (a) with the intent to wholly abandon the child by relinquishing responsibility for and right to the care and custody of such child; (b) with the intent that the child be safe from physical injury and cared for in an appropriate manner; (c) the child is left with an appropriate person, or in a suitable location and the person who leaves the child promptly notifies an appropriate person of the child's location; and (d) the child is not more than thirty days old.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02990-01-1

1 Endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree is a class A
2 misdemeanor.

3 § 2. Section 260.11 of the penal law is renumbered section 260.12.

4 § 3. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 260.11 to read
5 as follows:

6 § 260.11 Endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree.

7 A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child in the first
8 degree when:

9 1. He or she knowingly acts in a manner which creates a foreseeable
10 risk of either serious physical injury or protracted harm to the mental 11 or emotional welfare of a child less than seventeen years old; or

12 2. He or she commits the crime of endangering the welfare of a child
13 in the second degree and has previously been convicted of endangering
14 the welfare of a child in the second degree as defined in section 260.10
15 of this article or endangering the welfare of a child in the first
16 degree as defined in this section.

17 Endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree is a class D
18 felony.

19 § 4. Section 260.12 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 89 of the 20 laws of 1984 and as renumbered by section two of this act, is amended to 21 read as follows:

22 § 260.12 Endangering the welfare of a child; corroboration.

23 A person shall not be convicted of endangering the welfare of a child
24 as defined in sections 260.10 or 260.11 of this article, or of an
25 attempt to commit the same, upon the testimony of a victim who is inca-
26 pable of consent because of mental defect or mental incapacity as to
27 conduct that constitutes an offense or an attempt to commit an offense
28 referred to in section 130.16 of this chapter, without additional 29 evidence sufficient pursuant to section 130.16 of this chapter to 30 sustain a conviction of an offense referred to in section 130.16 of this
31 chapter, or of an attempt to commit the same.

32 § 5. Section 260.15 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 447 of the 33 laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

34 § 260.15 Endangering the welfare of a child; defense.

35 In any prosecution for endangering the welfare of a child, pursuant to 36 section 260.10 or 260.11 of this article, based upon an alleged failure
37 or refusal to provide proper medical care or treatment to an ill child,
38 it is an affirmative defense that the defendant (a) is a parent, guardi-
39 an or other person legally charged with the care or custody of such
40 child; and (b) is a member or adherent of an organized church or reli-
41 gious group the tenets of which prescribe prayer as the principal treat-
42 ment for illness; and (c) treated or caused such ill child to be treated
43 in accordance with such tenets.

44 § 6. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 30.10 of the criminal
45 procedure law, as amended by chapter 315 of the laws of 2019, is amended
46 to read as follows:

47 (a) A prosecution for a class A felony, or rape in the first degree as 48 defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or a crime defined or
49 formerly defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or aggravated sexu-
50 al abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal 51 law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as 52 defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or incest in the first
53 degree as defined in section 255.27 of the penal law, or predatory sexu-
54 al assault as defined in section 130.95 of the penal law or predatory
55 sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of the penal
56 law may be commenced at any time;

§ 7. Section 213-c of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 315 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 213-c. Action by victim of conduct constituting certain sexual offenses. Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this article, except as provided in subdivision (b) of section two hundred eight of this article, all civil claims or causes of action brought by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law, or rape in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.25 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.40 of the penal law, or incest in the first degree as defined in section 255.27 of the penal law, or incest in the second degree as defined in section 255.26 of the penal law (where the crime committed is rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45), or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of the penal law or predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of the penal law may be brought against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of the said conduct, within twenty years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that a criminal charge be brought or a criminal conviction be obtained as a condition of bringing a civil cause of action or receiving a civil judgment pursuant to this section or be construed to require that any of the rules governing a criminal proceeding be applicable to any such civil action.

§ 8. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 215 of the civil practice law and rules, as added by chapter 3 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Whenever it is shown that a criminal action against the same defendant has been commenced with respect to the event or occurrence from which a claim governed by this section arises, and such criminal action is for rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of the penal law, or predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of the penal law the plaintiff shall have at least five years from the termination of the criminal action as defined in section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law in which to commence the civil action, notwithstanding that the time in which to commence such action has already expired or has less than a year remaining.

§ 9. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 30.10 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(f) For purposes of a prosecution involving a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, other than a sexual offense delineated in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section, committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest in the first, second or third degree as defined in sections 255.27, 255.26 and 255.25 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law, ~~[the period of limitation shall not begin to run until the child has reached the age of twenty-three or the offense is reported to a law enforcement agency or statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment, whichever occurs earlier]~~ may be commenced at any time.
