AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to creating a disabled person retrofit tax credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (kkk) to read as follows:

(kkk) Disabled person retrofit tax credit. (1) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-two, a taxpayer who has a disability shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by this article. The amount of the credit shall be equal to thirty percent of the cost of the expenditures made by the taxpayer with respect to the installation of qualified improvements at a dwelling occupied by the taxpayer as his or her domicile and may be allowed in the following year in which the expenditure is incurred; provided that the lifetime credit allowable with regard to expenditures for the installation of qualified improvements at a particular dwelling by any taxpayer shall not exceed five thousand dollars in the aggregate for improvements made to that dwelling. Subject to the provisions of this subsection, a taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, not to exceed five thousand dollars in the aggregate, for each dwelling that the taxpayer occupies as his or her domicile and at which the taxpayer installs qualified improvements.

(2) As used in this subsection "disability" means:

(A) a physical, mental or medical impairment resulting from anatomical, physiological, genetic or neurological conditions which prevents the exercise of a normal bodily function or is demonstrable by medically accepted clinical or laboratory diagnostic techniques;

(B) a record of such an impairment; or

(C) a condition regarded by others as such an impairment.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (3) As used in this subsection "qualified improvements" means the 2 installation of:

3 (A) a no-step entrance or entrances allowing access into the resi-
4 dence;

5 (B) interior passage doors providing at least a thirty-two inch wide
6 opening;

7 (C) reinforcements in bathroom walls allowing installation of grab
8 bars around the toilet, tub and shower; and

9 (D) light switches and outlets placed in locations accessible to disa-
10 bled persons.

11 (4) If the amount of credit allowable under this subsection shall 12 exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess may be carried over
13 to the following year or years and may be deducted from the taxpayer's
14 tax for such year or years.

15 (5) (A) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any
16 dwelling owned solely for commercial purposes. In the case of a building 17 where less than the entire building is used as a residence of the 18 taxpayer, only the portion of the total expenditures made in the build-19 ing that is attributable to the residence of the taxpayer shall be 20 treated as qualified expenditures for the purposes of this subsection.

21 (B) If the taxpayer occupies the dwelling as his or her domicile for 22 only a portion of a tax year in which a credit under this subsection is 23 claimed, the amount of the allowable credit shall be reduced in propor-
24 tion to the amount of time the taxpayer did not occupy the dwelling as 25 his or her domicile.

26 (C) In the case of a dwelling that is owned by and is a residence of 27 two or more persons, other than a husband and wife, the portion of the 28 total expenditures made in the rehabilitation of the building that is 29 attributable to each taxpayer shall be equal to the taxpayer's share of 30 ownership in such building.

31 (6) The taxpayer shall furnish such information as the commissioner
32 determines is necessary to determine any credit under this subsection.

33 (7) The aggregate amount of tax credits allowed shall be five hundred
34 thousand dollars each year. Such aggregate amount of credits shall be 35 allocated by the department.

36 (8) The credit provided for under this subsection shall be limited to 37 taxpayers who are able to furnish any and all requested information to 38 the commissioner to determine eligibility for such credit.

39 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to 40 have been in full force and effect on and after January 1, 2022;
41 provided further, this act shall apply to all tax years commencing on or 42 after January 1, 2022.
