IN ASSEMBLY

March 10, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. L. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Corporations, Authorities and Commissions

AN ACT to amend the public service law and the general business law, in relation to authorizing survivors of domestic violence to be removed from phone, cable, and satellite tv contracts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 7 and 8 of section 91 of the public service
2 law, subdivision 7 as added by chapter 202 of the laws of 2013 and 3 subdivision 8 as added by chapter 186 of the laws of 2019, are amended 4 and a new subdivision 13 is added to read as follows:

5 7. Every telephone corporation, as defined in this chapter shall, at 6 its option: (a) allow a customer to use a modified or alternative name
7 for a directory listing or (b) waive the otherwise applicable charges
8 for a non-published telephone listing, where the customer requests 9 protection of its identity in connection with the customer's purchase of 10 telephone service and the customer is a victim of domestic violence, as 11 defined in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law, 12 and for whose benefit any order of protection, other than a temporary 13 order of protection, has been issued by a court of competent jurisdic-
14 tion. This waiver of charges shall be for the duration of the applica-15 ble, non-temporary, order. Any non-published listings provided in this 16 subdivision shall conform to all the same requirements of other non-17 published listings. A customer requesting such an accommodation shall 18 provide [~~a copy of the order of protection to the applicable telephone~~
19 ~~corporation~~] an attestation in writing of their eligibility as a victim 20 of domestic violence. Such telephone corporation may not require such 21 customer to disclose confidential information or details relating to 22 such customer's status as a victim of domestic violence, as a condition
23 of implementing such accommodation. Any customer requesting an accommo-24 dation pursuant to this subdivision may also request and shall be provided, at no cost to the customer, a new telephone number within fifteen days from the request for such accommodation. Such telephone corporation shall dispose of information submitted by such customer no later than thirty days after receiving such information in a manner as to maintain confidentiality of such information.

8. Every telephone corporation, as defined in this chapter, shall allow a person who is under contract including, but not limited to, a multi-year contract or bundle contract with such telephone corporation, to opt-out of such contract without fee, penalty or charge when such person is a victim of domestic violence and ~~[requests to opt-out in writing. Such victim of domestic violence shall provide to such telephone corporation any of the following documents, which shall relate to such domestic violence, within six months of the document's issuance:~~

~~(a) a valid domestic violence incident report form, as such term is defined in subdivision fifteen of section eight hundred thirty-seven of the executive law; (b) a valid police report; (c) a valid order of protection; (d) a signed affidavit from a licensed medical or mental health care provider, employee of a court acting within the scope of his or her employment, social worker, a rape crisis counselor, as defined in section forty-five hundred ten of the civil practice law and rules, or advocate acting on behalf of an agency that assists domestic violence victims]~~ provides an attestation in writing of their eligibility as a victim of domestic violence. Such telephone corporation may not require such person to disclose confidential information or details relating to such person's status as a victim of domestic violence, as a condition of permitting such person to opt-out of such contract. Further, such telephone corporation may not make release from such contract contingent on:

(a) maintaining contractual or billing responsibility of a separated line with the provider; (b) approval of separation by the primary account holder, if the primary account holder is not the person making such request; (c) a prohibition or limitation on number portability or a request to change phone numbers; or (d) a prohibition or limitation on the separation of lines as a result of arrears accrued by the account.

Such telephone corporation shall release such person from such contract no later than seven days after receiving such opt-out request. Such telephone corporation shall dispose of information submitted by such person no later than thirty days after receiving such information in a manner as to maintain confidentiality of such information. A claim for opting-out of such contract without charge shall be made in good faith. Such telephone corporation shall waive the otherwise applicable ~~[charge-~~ fee, penalty or charge for such person requesting to opt-out of such contract.

13. Every telephone corporation, as defined in this chapter, shall make information about the options and process described in subdivision eight of this section readily available to consumers on the website and any mobile application of the provider, in physical stores, and in other forms of public-facing consumer communication.

§ 2. Section 399-yy of the general business law, as amended by chapter 186 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 399-yy. Cable television company providing telephone services. 1. Every cable television company, as defined in section two hundred twelve of the public service law, that provides telephone service to customers in New York shall, at its option: a. allow a customer without fee, penalty or charge to use a modified or alternative name for a directory listing or b. waive the otherwise applicable charges for a non-published telephone listing, where the customer requests protection of its identity in connection with the customer's purchase of telephone service and the customer is a victim of domestic violence, as defined in section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law~~[, and for whose benefit any order of protection, other than a temporary order of protection, has been issued by a court of competent jurisdiction. A customer requesting such an accommodation shall provide ~~[a copy of the order of protection to the applicable cable television company]~~ an attestation in writing of their eligibility as a victim of domestic violence. Such cable television company may not require such customer to disclose confidential information or details relating to such customer's status as a victim of domestic violence, as a condition of implementing such accommodation. Any customer requesting an accommodation pursuant to this section may also request and shall be provided, at no cost to the customer, a new telephone number within fifteen days from the request for such accommodation. Such cable television company shall dispose of information submitted by such customer no later than thirty days after receiving such information in a manner as to maintain confidentiality of such information.

2. Every cable television company, as defined in section two hundred twelve of the public service law, that provides television and/or telephone service to customers in New York under contract including, but not limited to a multi-year contract or bundled contract with such cable television company, shall allow a person to opt-out of such contract without fee, penalty or charge when such person is a victim of domestic violence and ~~[request to opt-out in writing. Such victim of domestic violence shall provide to such cable television company any of the following documents, which shall relate to such domestic violence, within six months of the document's issuance: (a) a valid domestic violence incident report form, as such term is defined in subdivision fifteen of section eight hundred thirty-seven of the executive law; (b) a valid police report; (c) a valid order of protection; (d) a signed affidavit from a licensed medical or mental health care provider, employee of a court acting within the scope of his or her employment, social worker, a rape crisis counselor, as defined in section forty five hundred ten of the civil practice law and rules, or advocate acting on behalf of an agency that assists domestic violence victims]~~ provides an attestation in writing of their eligibility as a victim of domestic violence. Such cable television company may not require such person to disclose confidential information or details relating to such person's status as a victim of domestic violence, as a condition of permitting such person to opt-out of such contract. Further, such cable television company may not make release from such contract contingent on: (a) maintaining contractual or billing responsibility of a separated account with the provider; (b) approval of separation by the primary account holder, if the primary account holder is not the person making such request; or (c) a prohibition or limitation on the separation as a result of arrears accrued by the account. Such cable television company shall release such person from such contract no later than seven days after receiving such opt-out request. Such cable television company shall dispose of information submitted by such person no later than thirty days after receiving such information in a manner as to maintain confidentiality of such information. A claim for opting-out of such contract without charge shall be made in good faith. Such cable television company shall waive

1 the otherwise applicable fee, penalty, or charges for such person
2 requesting to opt-out of such contract. Every cable television company 3 shall make information about the options and process described in this 4 section readily available to consumers on the website and any mobile 5 application of the provider, in physical stores, and in other forms of 6 public-facing consumer communication.

7 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 399-yyy of the general business law, as 8 added by chapter 186 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

9 1. Every direct broadcast satellite service provider, as defined in 10 this section, that provides television and/or telephone services to 11 customers in New York shall allow a person who is under contract includ-12 ing, but not limited to a multi-year contract or bundled contract with 13 such satellite television company, to opt-out of such contract without 14 fee, penalty or charge when such a person is a victim of domestic 15 violence and ~~[requests to opt out in writing. Such victim of domestic~~ 16 ~~violence shall provide to such satellite television company any of the~~ 17 ~~following documents, which shall relate to such domestic violence, with-~~

27 in writing of their eligibility as a victim of domestic violence. Such 28 satellite television company may not require such person to disclose 29 confidential information or details relating to such person's status as 30 a victim of domestic violence, as a condition of permitting such person
31 to opt-out of such contract. Further, such satellite television company 32 may not make release from such contract contingent on: (a) maintaining 33 contractual or billing responsibility of a separated account with the 34 provider; (b) approval of separation by the primary account holder, if 35 the primary account holder is not the person making such request; or (c)
36 a prohibition or limitation on the separation as a result of arrears
37 accrued by the account. Such satellite television company shall release 38 such person from such contract no later than seven days after receiving 39 such opt-out request. Such satellite television company shall dispose of 40 information submitted by such person no later than 30 days after receiv-41 ing such information in a manner as to maintain confidentiality of such 42 information. A claim for opting-out of such contract without charge 43 shall be made in good faith. Such satellite television company shall 44 waive the otherwise applicable ~~[charges]~~ fee, penalty, or charge for 45 such person requesting to opt-out of such contract. Every satellite 46 television company shall make information about the options and process
47 described in this section readily available to consumers on the website 48 and any mobile application of the provider, in physical stores, and in 49 other forms of public-facing consumer communication.

50 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
