1 (c) does not include open-end credit or any loan that is secured by 2 real property or a dwelling; and

3 (d) does not include an extension of credit in which the covered 4 educational institution is the creditor if:

5 (i) the term of the extension of credit is ninety days or less; or 6 (ii) an interest rate or finance charge will not be applied to the 7 credit balance and the term of the extension of credit is one year or 8 less, even if the credit is payable in more than four installments.

9 2. "Private education lender", except as exempted under this article, 10 means:

11 (a) any person or entity engaged in the business of securing, making, 12 or extending private education loans; or

13 (b) any holder of a private education loan.

14 3. "Borrower" or "private education loan borrower" means a person who 15 has received or agreed to pay a private education loan for his or her 16 own educational expenses.

17 4. "Cosigner" (a) means:

18 (i) any individual who is liable for the obligation of another without 19 compensation, regardless of how designated in the contract or instrument 20 with respect to that obligation, including an obligation under a private 21 education loan extended to consolidate a borrower's pre-existing private 22 education loans; and

23 (ii) includes any person the signature of which is requested as condi-24 tion to grant credit or to forbear on collection;

25 (b) does not include a spouse of an individual described in subpara-26 graph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the signature of whom is 27 needed to perfect the security interest in a loan.

29 in a promissory note, loan agreement, or loan contract entered into with 30 a private education loan borrower or cosigner.

31 6. "Creditor" means:

32 (a) the original creditor, where ownership of a private education loan 33 debt has not been sold, assigned, or transferred;

34 (b) the person or entity that owned the private education loan debt at 41 ney for collection litigation.

42 7. "Debt collector" means any person who regularly collects or 43 attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, consumer debts originally 44 owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another. The term does not 45 include any officer or employee of a creditor who, in the name of the 46 creditor, collects debts for such creditor, but it does include any 47 creditor who, in the process of collecting its own debts, uses any name 48 other than its own which would indicate that a third person is collect-49 ing or attempting to collect such debts.

50 8. "Higher education expense" means any expense arising from higher 51 education, as defined in section two of the education law, regardless of 52 whether the higher education institution is accredited within New York

55 contract or subcontract with a private education lender or servicer to 4 section eleven hundred of this article be jointly and severally liable 5 for the actions of the entity or person in fulfilling the obligations of 6 the private educational lender or servicer under this article.

9 preempted by federal law:

10 1. Any banking organization, foreign banking corporation, national 11 bank, federal savings association, federal credit union, or any bank, 12 trust company, savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit 13 union organized under the laws of any other state; and 14 2. Any subsidiary of such entities set forth in subdivision one of 15 this section.

16 § 1103. Provisions applicable to cosigners. 1. (a) Prior to the origi-17 nation of a private education loan, the private education lender shall 18 provide to all cosigner applicants information about the rights and 19 responsibilities of the cosigner of the loan, including:

20 (i) information about how the private education loan obligation will 21 appear on the cosigner's credit;

22 (ii) information about how the cosigner will be notified if the 23 private education loan becomes delinquent, including how the cosigner 24 can cure the delinquency in order to avoid negative credit furnishing 25 and loss of cosigner release eligibility; and 26 (iii) information about eligibility for release of the cosigner's 27 obligation on the private education loan, including number of on-time 28 payments and any other criteria required to approve the release of 29 cosigner from the loan obligation.

30 (b) Lenders shall send borrowers and cosigners annual written notices 31 containing information about cosigner release, including criteria the 32 lender requires to approve the release of cosigner from the loan obli-33 gation and the process for applying for cosigner release.

34 (c) Once the borrower has met the applicable consecutive on-time 35 payment requirement to be eligible for cosigner release, the lender
36 shall send the borrower and cosigner a written notification by U.S. mail 37 and by electronic mail, where a borrower has elected to receive elec-38 tronic communications from the lender, informing the borrower and cosig-39 ner that he or she has met the applicable consecutive, on-time payments 40 requirement to be eligible for cosigner release. The notification shall 41 also include information about any additional criteria to qualify for 42 cosigner release, and the procedure to apply for cosigner release.

43 (d) Lenders shall provide written notice within fifteen days to any 44 borrower who applies for cosigner release, but whose application is 45 incomplete. The written notice must include a description of the infor-46 mation needed to consider the application complete and the date by which 47 the applicant should furnish the missing information.

48 (e) After a borrower submits a complete application for cosigner 49 release, within thirty days, the lender shall send the borrower and 50 cosigner a written notice that informs the borrower and cosigner whether 51 the cosigner release application has been approved or denied. If the 52 lender denies a request for cosigner release, the lender shall inform 53 the borrower of his or her right to request all documents and informa-54 tion used in the determination, including the credit score threshold 55 used by the lender, the borrower's consumer report, the borrower's cred-
56 it score, and any other documents specific to the borrower. The lender

1 must also provide any adverse action notices required under applicable 2 federal law if the denial is based in whole or in part on any informa-3 tion contained in a consumer report.

4 2. (a) In response to any written or oral request for cosigner
5 release, lenders shall send the information described in paragraph (b) 6 of subdivision one of this section.

7 (b) Lenders shall not impose any restrictions that may permanently bar 8 a borrower from qualifying for cosigner release, including restricting 9 the number of times a borrower may apply for cosigner release.

10 (c) Lenders shall not impose any negative consequences on any borrower 11 or cosigner during the sixty days following the issuance of the notice 12 required under paragraph (d) of subdivision one of this section, or 13 until the lender makes a final determination about a borrower's cosigner 14 release application. For the purpose of this paragraph, "negative conse-15 quences" includes, but is not limited to, the imposition of additional 16 eligibility criteria, negative credit reporting, lost eligibility for 17 cosigner release, late fees, interest capitalization, or other financial 18 injury.

19 (d) Lenders shall not require greater than twelve consecutive, on-time 20 payments as criteria to apply for cosigner release. Any borrower who has 21 paid the equivalent of twelve months of principal and interest payments 22 within any twelve-month period will be considered to have satisfied the 23 consecutive, on-time payment requirement, even if the borrower has not 24 made payments monthly during the twelve-month period.

25 (e) If a borrower or cosigner requests a change that restarts the 26 count of consecutive, on-time payments required for cosigner release, 27 the lender shall notify the borrower and cosigner in writing within ten 28 days of the impact of such an arrangement and provide the borrower or 29 cosigner the right to withdraw or reverse the request to avoid such 30 impact.

31 (f) The borrower has the right to request an appeal of a lender's 32 determination to deny the cosigner release application within ninety 33 days of receiving the lender's determination, and the lender shall 34 permit such borrower to submit additional documentation evidencing that 35 the borrower has the ability, willingness, and stability to handle his 36 or her payment obligations. The borrower may request review of the 37 cosigner release determination by another employee. The lender shall 38 inform the borrower of this right in a clear and conspicuous manner on 39 the notice denying the cosigner release application.

40 (g) A lender must establish and maintain a comprehensive record 41 management system reasonably designed to ensure the accuracy, integrity, 42 and completeness of data and other information about cosigner release
43 applications. This system shall include the number of cosigner release 44 applications received, the approval and denial rate, and the primary 45 reasons for any denial.

46 (h) If a cosigner has a total and permanent disability, as determined 47 by any federal agency, state agency, or physician or doctor of osteopa-48 thy legally authorized to practice in this state, the lender shall 49 release the cosigner from the cosigner's obligation to repay the loan 50 upon receiving a notification of the cosigner's total and permanent 51 disability. The lender shall not require a new cosigner to be added to 52 the loan after the original cosigner has been released from the loan.

53 3. (a) A lender shall provide a cosigner of a private education loan 54 with access to all documents or records related to the cosigned private 55 education loan that are available to the borrower;

1 (b) If a lender provides electronic access to documents and records 2 for a borrower, it shall provide equivalent electronic access to the 3 cosigner; and

4 (c) Upon receiving notice from the borrower or cosigner, the lender 5 shall redact the contact information of the other party.

6 § 1104. Prohibition on acceleration of payments on private education
7 loans. 1. Except as provided in subdivision two of this section, a 8 private education loan executed after the effective date of this article 9 may not include a provision that permits the private educational lender 10 to accelerate, in whole or in part, payments on the private education 11 loan.

12 2. A private education loan may include a provision that permits 13 acceleration of the loan in cases of payment default.

14 3. A lender shall not place any loan or account into default or accel-15 erate a loan for any reason, other than for failure to pay.

16 4. (a) In the event of the death of a cosigner, a lender shall not 17 attempt to collect against the cosigner's estate, other than for failure 18 to pay.

19 (b) Upon receiving notification of the death or bankruptcy of a cosig-20 ner, when the loan is not more than sixty days delinquent at the time of 21 the notification, a lender shall not change any terms or benefits under 22 the promissory note, repayment schedule, repayment terms, or monthly 23 payment amount or any other provision associated with the loan.

24 (c) A lender shall not place any loan or account into default or 25 accelerate a loan for any reason, other than for failure to pay.

26 § 1105. Required communications. In addition to any other information 27 required under applicable federal or state law, a debt collector shall 28 provide in the first debt collection communication with the private 29 education loan borrower or cosigner and at any other time the borrower 30 or cosigner requests such documentation:

31 1. The name of the owner of the private education loan debt;

32 2. The original creditor's name at the time of sale of the loan, if 33 applicable;

34 3. The original creditor's account number used to identify the private 35 education loan debt at the time of sale, if the original creditor used 36 an account number to identify the private education loan debt at the 37 time of sale;

38 4. The amount due at the time of default or the amount due to bring 39 the loan current if the loan is delinquent;

40 5. A schedule of all transactions credited or debited to the private 41 education loan account;

42 6. A copy of all pages of the contract, application or other documents 43 evidencing the private education loan borrower's or cosigner's liability 44 for the private education loan, stating all terms and conditions appli-45 cable to the private education loan; and 46 7. A clear and conspicuous statement disclosing that the borrower or 47 cosigner has a right to request all information possessed by the credi-48 tor related to the private education loan debt, including, but not 49 limited to the required information described in section eleven hundred 50 six of this article.

51 § 1106. Required information to be provided by creditors and debt 52 collectors. A creditor may not collect or attempt to collect a private 53 education loan debt unless the creditor or debt collector possesses the 54 following:

55 1. The name of the owner of the private education loan;

1 2. The original creditor's name at the time of sale of the loan or 2 default, if applicable;

3 3. The original creditor's account number used to identify the private 4 education loan at the time of sale or default, if the original creditor 5 used an account number to identify the private education loan at the 6 time of sale or default;

7 4. The amount due at the time of sale, or at default, or, if the loan 8 is delinquent, to bring the loan current;

9 5. A schedule of all transactions credited or debited to the private 10 education loan account;

12 whether those were imposed by the original creditor or any subsequent 13 owners of the private education loan;

14 7. The date that the private education loan was incurred;

15 8. A billing statement or other account record indicating the date of 16 the first partial payment and/or the first day that a payment was 17 missed, whichever is earlier;

18 9. A billing statement or other account record indicating the date of 19 the last payment made by the borrower or cosigner, if applicable;

20 10. Any payments, settlement, or financial remuneration of any kind 21 paid to the creditor by a guarantor, cosigner, or surety, and the amount 22 of payment received;

23 11. A copy of the self-certification form and any other "needs analy-24 sis" conducted by the original creditor prior to origination of the 25 loan;

26 12. The names of all persons or entities that owned the private educa-27 tion loan after it became delinquent or went into default, if applica-28 ble, and the date of each sale or transfer;

29 13. A log of all collection attempts made in the last twelve months 30 including date and time of all calls and letters;

31 14. Copies of all settlement letters made in the last twelve months, 32 or, in the alternative, a statement that the creditor has not attempted 33 to settle or otherwise renegotiate the debt prior to suit;

34 15. Copies of all collection letters sent to the borrower and cosigner 35 since inception of the loan;

36 16. Documentation establishing that the creditor is the owner of the 37 specific individual private education loan at issue. If the private 38 education loan was assigned more than once, the creditor must possess 39 each assignment or other writing evidencing the transfer of ownership of 40 the specific individual private education loan to establish an unbroken
41 chain of ownership, beginning with the original creditor to the first 42 subsequent creditor and each additional creditor. Each assignment or 43 other writing evidencing transfer of ownership or the right to collect 44 must contain the original creditor's account number (redacted for secu-45 rity purposes to show only the last four digits) of the private educa-46 tion loan purchased or otherwise assigned, the date of purchase and 47 assignment, and must clearly show the borrower's, and if applicable, 48 cosigner's correct name associated with the original account number. The 50 or other assignee acquired the private education loan, not a document 51 prepared for litigation or collection purposes;

52 17. A copy of all pages of the contract, application or other docu-

18. A signed affidavit or affidavits from each of the previous owners of the private education loan regarding when the previous owner accelerated the loan from delinquency status to default status, or if applicable, a statement that no such acceleration occurred.

§ 1107. Enforcement. 1. All private education lenders, creditors and debt collectors shall comply with the provisions of this article.

2. Any borrower or cosigner who suffers damage as a result of the failure of a private education lender, creditor, or debt collector covered by the provision of this article may bring an action on their own behalf and on behalf of a similarly situated class of consumers against that person to recover or obtain any of the following:

(a) Actual damages, but in no case shall the total award of damages be less than five hundred dollars per person, per violation.

(b) Punitive damages.

(c) Correction of that person's credit report.

(d) Injunctive relief.

(e) Any other relief that the court deems proper.

3. In the case of any successful action to enforce the foregoing liability, a private education lender, creditor, or debt collector is liable for the costs of the action, together with reasonable attorneys' fees as determined by the court.

4. The attorney general or the district attorney of any county may bring an action in the name of the people of the state to restrain or prevent any violation of this article or any continuance of any such violation.

5. Nothing in this article shall limit any statutory or common law right of any person to bring any action in any court for any act, or the right of the state to punish any person for any violation of any law.

§ 1108. Rules and regulations. 1. In addition to such powers as may otherwise be prescribed by this chapter, the superintendent of financial services is hereby authorized and empowered to promulgate such rules and regulations as may in the judgment of the superintendent be consistent with the purposes of this article, or appropriate for the effective administration of this article, including, but not limited to:

(c) such rules and regulations as may define the terms used in this article and as may be necessary and appropriate to interpret and implement the provisions of this article; and

(d) such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this article.

2. The superintendent is hereby authorized and empowered to make such specific rulings, demands and findings as the superintendent may deem necessary for the proper conduct of the private education loan industry.

§ 1109. Penalties. In addition to such penalties as may otherwise be applicable by law, including but not limited to the penalties available under section forty-four of the banking law, the superintendent of financial services or the attorney general may, after notice and hearing, require any person found violating the provisions of this article or the rules or regulations promulgated hereunder to pay to the people of this state a penalty for each violation of the article or any regu-

1 lation or policy promulgated hereunder a sum not to exceed the greater 2 of (i) ten thousand dollars for each offense; (ii) a multiple of two 3 times the aggregate damages attributable to the violation; or (iii) a 4 multiple of two times the aggregate economic gain attributable to the 5 violation.

6 § 2. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new 7 section 3012-c to read as follows:

52 each assignment or other writing evidencing the transfer of ownership of 53 the specific individual private education loan to establish an unbroken
54 chain of ownership, beginning with the original creditor to the first 55 subsequent creditor and each additional creditor. Each assignment or

1 must contain the original creditor's account number (redacted for secu-
2 rity purposes to show only the last four digits) of the private educa-
3 tion loan purchased or otherwise assigned, the date of purchase and

21 (xxii) A signed affidavit or affidavits from each of the previous 22 owners of the private education loan stating when the previous owner

25 sale; and

26 (2) A representative of the creditor personally reviewed the informa-27 tion set forth in paragraph one of this subdivision for factual accuracy 28 and confirmed the factual accuracy of the allegations set forth in the 29 complaint and any supporting affidavits or affirmations filed with the 30 court, as well as the accuracy of the notarizations contained in the 31 supporting documents filed therewith.

32 (b) Copies of the documentation identified in subparagraphs (xvii), 33 (xviii) and (xxii) of paragraph one of subdivision (a) of this section 49 cosigner, or upon notice from the attorney general or superintendent of 50 financial services on behalf of a group of borrowers, to a creditor or 51 debt collector stating that the creditor or debt collector has failed to 52 comply with this section, the creditor or debt collector shall:

53 (i) Provide proof of compliance with the provisions of this section; 54 or

55 (ii) Take the following actions:

5 (2) If a creditor or debt collector fails to comply with paragraph one 6 of this subdivision, the borrower or cosigner may bring an action on his

9 (i) An order setting aside or vacating any judgment entered against 10 the borrower or cosigner;
