IN ASSEMBLY

March 10, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. JACKSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to including policies and procedures for responding to students having mental health crises in school safety plans

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraphs l and m of subdivision 2 of section 2801-a of the education law, as amended by chapter 30 of the laws of 2021, are amended to read as follows:

l. the designation of the superintendent, or superintendent's designee, as the district chief emergency officer responsible for coordinating communication between school staff and law enforcement and first responders, and ensuring staff understanding of the district-level safety plan. The chief emergency officer shall also be responsible for ensuring the completion and yearly updating of building-level emergency response plans; [~~and~~]

m. protocols for responding to a declared state disaster emergency involving a communicable disease that are substantially consistent with the provisions of section twenty-seven-c of the labor law; and

n. polices and procedures for responding to students having mental health crises in a manner that does not include contacting law enforcement unless implied or direct threats of violence or other criminal activity is involved.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
