Introduced by M. of A. BUTTENSCHON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the military law, in relation to in-state tuition continuity for spouses and children of active duty service members

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 8 of section 1 of the military law, as amended 2 by chapter 112 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

- 8. The terms "active military service of the United States" and "in the armed forces of the United States" shall mean full time duty in the army, navy (including marine corps), air force (including space force) or coast guard of the United States.
- § 2. Section 253 of the military law, as amended by chapter 473 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:
- 253. Military service by parent; effect on child custody proceedings: in-state tuition continuity. 1. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, child custody proceedings filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in this state, involving a parent who is 12 activated, deployed, or temporarily assigned to military service shall 14 be governed by subdivision (f) of section six hundred fifty-one of the 15 family court act, section seventy-five-l or paragraph (a-2) of subdivision one of section two hundred forty of the domestic relations law.
- 17 2. A spouse or child of a member of the active military service of the United States who has been assigned to duty elsewhere immediately 18 following assignment to duty in New York shall be deemed to be an 19 20 in-state resident for the purposes of determining tuition and fees at all state institutions of higher learning, and is entitled to pay the 22 tuition fees and other fees or charges provided for New York residents as long as the spouse or child resides continuously in New York and 23 24 remains enrolled at such institution.
 - § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
