IN ASSEMBLY

March 12, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. STIRPE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a small business tax credit for salary and wages paid to employees for time spent at sexual harassment prevention training

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 55 to read as follows:

55. Small business tax credit; sexual harassment prevention training. (a) General. A taxpayer who has fifty employees or less, shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subdivision, against the tax imposed by this article for salary and wages paid by such taxpayer to its employees for time spent at sexual harassment prevention training required pursuant to section two hundred one-g of the labor law. Such credit shall be available on an annual basis and shall only be made available on one sexual harassment training course per year for each employee.

(b) Amount of credit. The amount of the credit authorized by this subdivision shall be equal to fifty percent of the wages and salary actually paid by the employer to each employee or fifty dollars per employee, whichever is less.

(c) Carryovers. The credit allowed under this subdivision may be claimed and if not fully used in the initial year for which the credit is claimed may be carried over, in order, to each of the five succeeding taxable years. The credit authorized by this subdivision may not be used to reduce the tax liability of the credit claimant below zero.

§ 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xlvi) to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
