Introduced by M. of A. BRONSON, LUNSFORD, CLARK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to residency requirements for certain peace officers in Monroe county

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 3-b of the public officers law, as separately amended by chapters 145 and 175 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

1. No sheriff of a county, mayor of a city, or official, or other persons authorized by law to appoint special deputy sheriffs, special constables, marshals, police officers, or peace officers in this state, to preserve the public peace or quell public disturbance, shall hereafter, at the instance of any agent, society, association or corporation, or otherwise, appoint as such special deputy, special constable, marshal, police officer, or peace officer, any person who shall not be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of New York, and entitled to vote therein at the time of his appointment, and a resident of the same county as the mayor or sheriff or other official making such appointment; provided, however, that when, in the judgment of a sheriff of a county except those counties within the city of New York a situation exists which requires temporary additional assistance, such sheriff may appoint special deputy sheriffs who are non-residents of the county but residents of the state of New York who shall hold office until such time as the appointing sheriff determines that the situation no longer exists; and no person shall assume or exercise the functions, powers, duties or privileges incident and belonging to the office of special deputy sheriff, special constables, marshal, police officer, or peace officer, without having first received his appointment in writing from the authority lawfully appointing him. Nothing herein contained, however, shall apply to the appointment of a non-resident, as an emergency special deputy sheriff, by the sheriff of any county to act when such sheriff has declared a state of special emergency pursuant to the provisions of section two hundred nine-f of the general municipal law. Provided further, that any person otherwise qualified who resides in either the county of Nassau or the county of Suffolk may at the instance of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals be appointed as a peace officer by the appropriate appointing official of either of such counties notwithstanding that such appointee does not reside in the same county as the appointing official. Provided, further, that any person qualified who resides in a county adjacent to the county of Allegany may at the instance of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals for the county of Allegany be appointed as a peace officer by the appropriate appointing official of the county of Allegany. Provided, further, that any person qualified who resides in a county adjacent to the county of Albany may at the instance of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals for the county of Albany be appointed as a peace officer by the appropriate appointing official of the county of Albany. Provided, further, that any person otherwise qualified who resides in the county of Orange or Westchester may at the instance of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals for the county of Rockland be appointed as a peace officer by the appropriate appointing official of the county of Rockland. Provided, further, that any person qualified who resides in a county adjacent to the county of Monroe may at the instance of the Humane Society of Rochester and Monroe County for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Inc., doing business as Lollypop Farm, be appointed as a peace officer by the appropriate appointing official in the county of Monroe.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
