Introduced by M. of A. THIELE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Local Governments -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the town law, in relation to requiring statements of campaign expenditure and contributions to be filed by candidates for district commissioner of a special district

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The town law is amended by adding a new article 12-D to 2 read as follows:

ARTICLE 12-D

STATEMENTS OF CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURES AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Section 209-t. Expenditure and contribution statement.

209-u. Times for filing statements.

209-v. Proceedings to compel filing of campaign expenditures and contributions statements or corrected statements of campaign expenditures and contributions.

209-w. Procedures.

11 § 209-t. Expenditure and contribution statement. 1. (a) Any candidate 12 for election for district commissioner of a special district, as defined 13 in subdivision sixteen of section one hundred two of the real property 14 tax law, shall file a sworn statement of campaign expenditures and 15 contributions with the state board of elections setting forth all moneys
16 and other valuables paid, given, expended or promised by such candidate 17 or incurred for or on behalf of such candidate with his or her approval
18 by any person, firm, association, or corporation to aid the nomination 19 or election of such candidate or to aid or influence the nomination or 20 defeat of any candidate to be voted for at the election. A candidate 21 for election for district commissioner of a special district shall not 22 be required to file such statement with the board of elections if the 23 candidate did not have any expenditures or whose only expenditures were

1 for personal use which when taken together with the total expenditures
2 incurred by others on his or her behalf and with his or her approval do 3 not exceed five hundred dollars and where the aggregate amount of all 4 contributions made to such candidate does not exceed five hundred 5 dollars; provided, however, that such candidate shall file a sworn 6 statement with the board of elections stating that his or her election
7 expenditures did not exceed five hundred dollars and contributions
8 received by such candidate did not exceed five hundred dollars.

9 (b) Any campaign expenditures and contributions statements required to 10 be filed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall include:
11 the dollar amount of any receipt, contribution or transfer or the fair 12 market value of any non-monetary receipt, contribution or transfer; the 13 name and address of the transferor, contributor or person from whom such 14 contribution was received and where the transferor, contributor or 15 person is a political committee, as defined in subdivision one of 16 section 14-100 of the election law, the name of the committee and the 17 political unit represented by the committee; the date of receipt of such 18 contribution; the dollar amount of every expenditure; the name and 19 address of the person to whom such contribution was made or the name of 20 and the political unit represented by the committee to which such 21 contribution was made and the date thereof.

22 (c) No person shall make expenditures on behalf of a candidate without 23 the approval of the candidate unless such person or persons files a 24 sworn statement with the state board of elections stating that the 25 candidate did not approve such expenditure. Such expenditure shall be 26 limited to twenty-five dollars and shall not be included in determining 27 the five hundred dollars exemption authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) 28 of this subdivision.

29 2. For the purposes of this section, expenditures for personal use 30 shall have the same meaning as in section 14-130 of the election law.

31 § 209-u. Times for filing statements. 1. Campaign expenditures and 32 contributions statements required to be filed pursuant to section two 33 hundred nine-t of this article shall be filed in accordance with the 34 following schedule:

35 (a) The first statement shall be filed on or before the thirtieth day 36 next preceding the election to which such statement relates;

37 (b) A second statement shall be filed on or before the fifth day next 38 preceding the election to which such statement relates; and

39 (c) A third statement shall be filed within twenty days next succeed-40 ing the election to which such statement relates.

41 3. Each statement shall be preserved by the board with which it is 42 required to be filed for a period of five years from the date of filing 43 thereof.

44 4. Each statement filed pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision one 45 of section two hundred nine-t of this article shall constitute a part of 46 the public records of such board and shall be open to public inspection.

47 5. Unless otherwise provided, each campaign expenditures and contrib-
48 utions statement shall cover the period up to and including the day next 49 preceding the day specified for the filing thereof pursuant to subdivi-50 sion two of this section; provided, however, that any contribution or 51 loan in excess of one thousand dollars, if received after the close of 52 the period to be covered in the last statement filed before the election 53 but before such election, shall be reported, in the same manner as other 54 contributions, within twenty-four hours after receipt of such contrib-55 ution.

1 6. Each statement shall include a summary of all expenditures,
2 contributions and other information reported in each previous statement,
3 provided, however, that data reported in a previous statement shall not 4 be required to be itemized in subsequent statements.

5 7. A statement shall be deemed properly filed when deposited in an 6 established post-office within the prescribed time, duly stamped, certi-7 fied and directed to the officer or board with which such statement is 8 required to be filed. In the event a statement is not received by the 9 officer or board, such officer or board shall provide notice to the 10 candidate that the statement has not been received and the candidate 11 shall promptly file a duplicate statement with the officer or board.

12 § 209-v. Proceedings to compel filing of campaign expenditures and 13 contributions statements or corrected statements of campaign expendi-
14 tures and contributions. 1. The supreme court or a justice thereof, in a 15 proceeding instituted by any five qualified voters or by the candidate 16 voted for in the election for which campaign expenditures and contrib-17 utions statements were required to be filed, may compel by order any 18 candidate required under the provisions of this article to file a 19 campaign expenditures and contributions statement who has not filed such 20 statement within the time prescribed by this article to file such state-21 ment within five days after notice of such order.

22 2. The supreme court or a justice thereof, in a proceeding instituted 23 by any five qualified voters or by the candidate voted for in the 24 election for which campaign expenditures and contributions statements 25 were required to be filed, may compel by order any candidate or other 26 person or persons required under the provisions of this article to file 27 a campaign expenditures and contributions statement who has filed a 28 statement which does not conform to the requirements of this article in 29 respect to the truth, sufficiency in detail or other deficiency to file, 30 within five days' notice of the order, a new or supplemental statement
31 which makes the statement or statements true and complete. The state 32 board of elections shall be a necessary party in any such proceeding.

33 3. In every proceeding instituted under this section, the court may 34 confer immunity in accordance with the provisions of section 50.20 of 35 the criminal procedure law; provided, however, that no immunity shall be 36 conferred except upon twenty-four hours prior written notice to both the 37 attorney general and the appropriate district attorney having an offi-38 cial interest therein.

39 § 209-w. Procedures. A special proceeding under the foregoing 40 provisions of this article shall be heard upon a verified petition and 41 such oral or written proof as may be offered, and, upon notice to such 42 officers, persons or candidates as the court, justice or judge shall 43 direct, shall be summarily determined.

44 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
45 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
