2 ment except as may be mandated by lawful court order.

- 2. Prior to issuing such court order the judge must review all such requests and give interested parties the opportunity to be heard. No such order shall issue without a clear showing of facts sufficient to warrant the judge to request records for review.
- 3. If, after such hearing, the judge concludes there is a sufficient basis he or she shall sign an order requiring that the personnel records in question be sealed and sent directly to him or her. He or she shall then review the file and make a determination as to whether the records are relevant and material in the action before him or her. Upon such finding the court shall make those parts of the record found to be relevant and material available to the persons so requesting.
- 4. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any district attorney or his or her assistants, the attorney general or his or her deputies or assistants, a county attorney or his or her deputies or assistants, a town attorney or his or her deputies or assistants, a town attorney or his or her deputies or assistants, a village attorney or his or her deputies or assistants, a grand jury, or any agency of government which requires the records described in subdivision one of this section, in the furtherance of their official functions.
 - § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
