Introduced by M. of A. FRONTUS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the ability of a school principal to alternatively code a student dropped from enrollment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3202 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-b to read as follows:

1-b. Upon a pupil being dropped from enrollment from a school, the department shall provide a principal with the ability to code such pupil as being enrolled in an educational program leading to vocational training or a GED in lieu of coding such student as being a drop out from such school.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
