AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a tax credit for any equipment or product purchased by a small business that is used to comply with a COVID-19 health and safety plan

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 58 to read as follows:

58. Sales tax paid on materials for COVID-19 health and safety plan compliance. (1) A taxpayer that is a small business shall be allowed a credit for sales tax paid during the eligibility period for any equipment or product, including materials used in the construction of physical barriers, including but not limited to plastic shielding walls, strip curtains, cubicle walls, plexiglass or similar materials, or other impermeable dividers or partitions, purchased by such small business in order to be in compliance with a COVID-19 health and safety plan. The eligibility period shall be the period of time beginning on May fifteenth, two thousand twenty and ending with the end of the declared COVID-19 state of emergency as set out pursuant to executive order two hundred two of two thousand twenty and as continued in each subsequent executive order.

(2) The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the fixed dollar minimum amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount or if the taxpayer otherwise pays tax based on the

1 fixed dollar minimum amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible
2 in such taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be 3 credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one
4 thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions 5 of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chap-
6 ter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

7 (3) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "small business" shall 8 mean a business with one hundred or fewer employees.

9 § 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
10 (nnn) to read as follows:

11 (nnn) Sales tax paid on materials for COVID-19 health and safety plan
12 compliance. (1) A taxpayer who owns a small business shall be allowed a 13 credit for sales tax paid during the eligibility period for any equip-
14 ment or product, including materials used in the construction of phys-
15 ical barriers, including but not limited to plastic shielding walls, 16 strip curtains, cubicle walls, plexiglass or similar materials, or other 17 impermeable dividers or partitions, purchased by such small business in 18 order to be in compliance with a COVID-19 health and safety plan. The 19 eligibility period shall be the period of time beginning on May 20 fifteenth, two thousand twenty and ending with the end of the declared
21 COVID-19 state of emergency as set out pursuant to executive order two 22 hundred two of two thousand twenty and as continued in each subsequent 23 executive order.

24 (2) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any 25 taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess 26 shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in 27 accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this 28 article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

29 (3) For purposes of this subsection, the term "small business" shall 30 mean a business with one hundred or fewer employees.

31 § 3. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 32 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xlix) to read as 33 follows:
