Introduced by M. of A. DURSO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a fine reimbursement credit for taxpayers fined for operating a bar or restaurant during the COVID-19 pandemic

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new 2 subsection (kkk) to read as follows:

3 (kkk) Fine reimbursement credit. (1) For taxable years beginning Janu-
4 ary first, two thousand twenty and ending before January first, two 5 thousand twenty-two, a taxpayer who has been levied a fine between March 6 fifteenth, two thousand twenty and April fifteenth, two thousand twen-
7 ty-one for a violation of executive order number two hundred two of two 8 thousand twenty or any subsequent order relating to the operation of a 9 bar or restaurant during the COVID-19 pandemic shall be allowed a credit 10 against the tax imposed by this article in the amount of such fine. The 11 commissioner of taxation and finance, in consultation with the commis-12 sioners of the state liquor authority, shall have the authority to 13 promulgate any rules or regulations necessary for the processing, deter-
14 mination, and granting of credits and refunds under this subsection.

15 (2) If the amount of credit allowed under this subsection for any 16 taxable year exceeds the taxpayer's tax for the taxable year, the excess 17 shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in 18 accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this 19 article, provided, however, no interest will be paid thereon.

20 § 2. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
21 sion 55 to read as follows:

22 55. Fine reimbursement credit. (1) For taxable years beginning January
23 first, two thousand twenty and ending before January first, two thousand
24 twenty-two, a taxpayer who has been levied a fine between March

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
