rent based upon the rent reserved in a lease or other rental agreement which became effective on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-four may be adjusted on application of the tenant pursuant to 3 subdivision b of section nine of this act or on application of either the owner or tenant pursuant to subdivision a of such section; further provided that if a lease is entered into for such housing accommodations after the local effective date, but before the effective date of the first guidelines applicable to such accommodations, the lease may 9 provide for an adjustment of rent pursuant to such guidelines, to be effective on the first day of the month next succeeding the effective 10 11 date of such quidelines.

- § 2. Subdivision b of section 26-512 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:
- b. The initial regulated rent for housing accommodations subject to this law on the local effective date of the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four or which become subject to this law thereafter, pursuant to such act, shall be:
- (1) For housing accommodations which were regulated pursuant to this law or the city rent and rehabilitation law prior to July first, nineteen hundred seventy-one, and which became vacant on or after such date and prior to the local effective date of the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, the rent reserved in the last effective lease or other rental agreement; provided that such initial rent may be adjusted on application of the tenant pursuant to subdivision b of section 26-513 of this chapter.
- (2) For housing accommodations which were regulated pursuant to the city rent and rehabilitation law on the local effective date of the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, and thereafter become vacant, the rent agreed to by the landlord and the tenant and reserved in a lease or provided for in a rental agreement; provided that such initial rent shall not exceed the average rent for a comparable rent regulated housing accommodation, as determined by the commissioner, and may be adjusted on application of the tenant pursuant to subdivision b of section 26-513 of this chapter.
- (3) For housing accommodations other than those described in paragraphs one and two of this subdivision, the rent reserved in the last effective lease or other rental agreement.
- (4) For any plot or parcel of land which had been regulated pursuant to the city rent and rehabilitation law prior to July first, nineteen hundred seventy-one and which,
- (i) became vacant on or after July first, nineteen hundred seventy-one and prior to July first, nineteen hundred seventy-four, the rent reserved in a lease or other rental agreement in effect on June thirtieth, nineteen hundred seventy-four plus increases authorized by the rent guidelines board under this law for leases or other rental agreements commencing thereafter; provided that such initial rent may be adjusted on application of the tenant pursuant to subdivision b of section 26-513 of this chapter or,
- (ii) became vacant on or after July first, nineteen hundred seventyfour, the rent agreed to by the landlord and the tenant and reserved in lease or other rental agreement plus increases authorized by the rent guidelines board under this law for leases or other rental agreements commencing thereafter; provided that such initial rent shall not exceed 54 the average rent for a comparable rent regulated housing accommodation, as determined by the commissioner, and may be adjusted on application of the tenant pursuant to subdivision b of section 26-513 of this chapter.
