

STATE OF NEW YORK

7246--A

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

April 29, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. RICHARDSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to requiring persons possessing a firearm to hold a firearms safety certificate

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 6, 7 and 8 of section 265.01 of the penal law,
2 as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2013, are amended and a new
3 subdivision 9 is added to read as follows:

4 (6) He or she is a person who has been certified not suitable to
5 possess a rifle or shotgun, as defined in subdivision sixteen of section 6 265.00 of this article, and refuses to yield possession of such rifle or
7 shotgun upon the demand of a police officer. Whenever a person is certi-
8 fied not suitable to possess a rifle or shotgun, a member of the police
9 department to which such certification is made, or of the state police,
10 shall forthwith seize any rifle or shotgun possessed by such person. A 11 rifle or shotgun seized as [~~herein~~] provided in this subdivision shall 12 not be destroyed, but shall be delivered to the headquarters of such 13 police department, or state police, and there retained until the afore-
14 said certificate has been rescinded by the director or physician in 15 charge, or other disposition of such rifle or shotgun has been ordered 16 or authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction[~~-~~]; or

17 (7) He or she knowingly possesses a bullet containing an explosive
18 substance designed to detonate upon impact[~~-~~]; or

19 (8) He or she possesses any armor piercing ammunition with intent to 20 use the same unlawfully against another[~~-~~]; or

21 (9) He or she possesses a firearm, not being the holder of a valid
22 firearms safety certificate issued pursuant to section 400.15 of this 23 chapter.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

LBD03324-03-1

§ 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 400.15 to read as follows:

§ 400.15 Firearms safety certificate.

1. For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the police department of a city having a population of one million or more.

(b) "Sheriff" means the sheriff of the county in which an applicant resides, except in a city having a population of one million or more.

2. No person shall possess a firearm unless such person holds a firearms safety certificate issued pursuant to this section.

3. Every person applying for a firearms safety certificate shall submit an application to the sheriff or the commissioner if such person resides in a city with a population of one million or more. Such application shall be in such form and content as shall be established by the sheriff or the commissioner, and shall include:

(a) the applicant's name, address, residence telephone number, gender, race, height, weight, date of birth, citizenship, thumbprint and driver's license or non-driver identification card number;

(b) the applicant's signature; and

(c) an oath that all information in the application is true, subject to the penalties of perjury.

4. The course of instruction for the issuance of a firearms safety certificate shall include the successful completion by the applicant of:

(a) not less than five hours of classroom instruction on:

(i) the safe use and handling of firearms;

(ii) the methods for safely storing and securing firearms, and keeping children safe when such weapons are present; and

(iii) the applicable federal, state and local laws relating to the purchase, sale, possession, transportation and storage of firearms;

(b) not less than two hours of live firing instruction at a shooting range using the type of firearm the applicant anticipates purchasing, possessing or acquiring. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person attending a course of instruction for the issuance of a firearm safety certificate may possess a firearm for the limited purpose of fulfilling the requirements of this paragraph while under the supervision of his or her instructor; and

(c) a safe-handling of a firearm demonstration as attested to by a duly authorized instructor.

5. Every firearms safety course, for the completion of which an applicant is granted a firearms safety certificate, shall be approved by the sheriff or the commissioner and shall be conducted by a duly authorized instructor. The sheriff or the commissioner may, for the purposes of firearms safety courses required by this section, provide for the approval of firearm safety courses required or provided for pursuant to any federal or state law.

6. Upon the successful completion of a firearms safety course by an applicant, the duly authorized instructor of such course shall provide the applicant with a signed affidavit attesting to the applicant's successful completion of the course. Such affidavit shall include the name, address and telephone number of the duly authorized instructor; the name of the applicant; and the dates and places that the course was conducted.

7. Upon receipt of the affidavit required by subdivision six of this section, the applicant shall submit a copy of such affidavit to the sheriff or the commissioner and he or she shall administer a written

1 examination, established by him or her, demonstrating knowledge of
2 firearms safety and laws applicable to firearms.

3 (a) A firearms safety certificate shall be issued to an applicant who
4 scores seventy-five percent or higher on such examination.

5 (b) If an applicant fails such written examination, he or she may 6 retake such examination at least twenty-four hours after a prior
7 attempt. The same version of such written examination shall not be given
8 to an applicant upon any two consecutive takings thereof. No applicant
9 shall be offered the written examination more than three times. After 10 the third failure by an applicant, he or she shall be required to again
11 successfully complete the requirements of subdivisions four and six of 12 this section.

13 (c) Applicants may be charged a fee to cover the costs of administer-
14 ing the written examination.

15 8. Upon successful completion of the requirements of subdivision seven 16 of this section by an applicant, the sheriff or the commissioner shall
17 issue such applicant a firearms safety certificate. Firearms safety
18 certificates shall not be transferable. The holder thereof shall store
19 such certificate in the place where his or her firearms are stored,
20 except that such certificate shall be carried on the person of the hold-
21 er if a firearm is possessed outside of the holder's residence or place
22 of business. Upon request of a police officer, a firearms safety certif-
23 icate shall be displayed by the holder to such officer.

24 9. Every firearms safety certificate issued pursuant to this section
25 shall be valid for a period of two years, and may be renewed upon
26 completion of the requirements of this section.

27 10. No person shall sell or transfer possession of a firearm to any 28 person who does not hold a firearms safety certificate.

29 11. A firearms safety certificate shall be revoked:

30 (a) for the violation of any provision of law relating to firearms;

31 (b) for fraud, misrepresentation or bribery in the application for and 32 issuance of the firearms safety certificate;

33 (c) if the holder is disqualified from possessing a firearm; or

34 (d) the occurrence of any circumstance which would have disqualified
35 the holder from being issued a firearms safety certificate.

36 12. This section shall not apply to:

37 (a) police officers as defined in subdivision thirty-four of section
38 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, or retired police officer, who upon 39 separation from a law enforcement agency was immediately entitled to 40 receive retirement benefits pursuant to the retirement and social secu-
41 rity law or the administrative code of the city of New York;

42 (b) peace officers as defined in section 2.10 of the criminal proce-
43 dure law;

44 (c) licensed manufacturers, transporters and sellers of firearms who 45 possess such weapons for purposes of wholesale or retail sales, while 46 engaged in the scope of their licensed activities;

47 (d) nonresidents of the state participating in any lawful recreational 48 firearms related activity, and while in the course of traveling to and 49 from such recreation activity; or

50 (e) any person who temporarily possesses a firearm in the residence or 51 place of business of the holder of a firearms safety certificate, and 52 such possession occurs in the course of using deadly physical force
53 authorized by article thirty-five of this chapter.

54 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
55 ing the date on which it shall have become a law; provided, however,
56 that the provisions of subdivision 9 of section 265.01 of the penal law,

1 as added by section one of this act, and subdivision 2 of section 400.15
2 of the penal law, as added by section two of this act, shall not apply
3 to any person who possesses a firearm on the effective date of this act,
4 until the ninetieth day after such date.