Introduced by M. of A. SILLITTI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crime of criminal possession of a weapon in a polling place

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 6 of section 400.00 of the penal law, as 2 amended by chapter 104 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 3 follows:

3 6. License: validity. Any license issued pursuant to this section shall be valid notwithstanding the provisions of any local law or ordinance. No license shall be transferable to any other person or premises. A license to carry or possess a pistol or revolver, not otherwise limited as to place or time of possession, shall be effective throughout the state, except that the same shall not be valid within the city of New York unless a special permit granting validity is issued by the 10 11 police commissioner of that city. A license issued under this section 12 does not authorize any person to carry a pistol or revolver into any polling place on the day of an election or while early voting is in 13 14 progress. Such license to carry or possess shall be valid within the 15 city of New York in the absence of a permit issued by the police commissioner of that city, provided that (a) the firearms covered by such license have been purchased from a licensed dealer within the city of 17 New York and are being transported out of said city forthwith and imme-18 diately from said dealer by the licensee in a locked container during a 19 20 continuous and uninterrupted trip; or provided that (b) the firearms 21 covered by such license are being transported by the licensee in a 22 locked container and the trip through the city of New York is continuous 23 and uninterrupted; or provided that (c) the firearms covered by such 24 license are carried by armored car security guards transporting money or 25 other valuables, in, to, or from motor vehicles commonly known as

1 armored cars, during the course of their employment; or provided that (d) the licensee is a retired police officer as police officer is defined pursuant to subdivision thirty-four of section 1.20 of the crim-3 inal procedure law or a retired federal law enforcement officer, as defined in section 2.15 of the criminal procedure law, who has been issued a license by an authorized licensing officer as defined in subdi-7 vision ten of section 265.00 of this chapter; provided, further, however, that if such license was not issued in the city of New York it must 9 be marked "Retired Police Officer" or "Retired Federal Law Enforcement 10 Officer", as the case may be, and, in the case of a retired officer the 11 license shall be deemed to permit only police or federal law enforcement regulations weapons; or provided that (e) the licensee is a peace offi-12 13 cer described in subdivision four of section 2.10 of the criminal proce-14 dure law and the license, if issued by other than the city of New York, is marked "New York State Tax Department Peace Officer" and in such case 15 16 the exemption shall apply only to the firearm issued to such licensee by 17 the department of taxation and finance. A license as gunsmith or dealer 18 in firearms shall not be valid outside the city or county, as the case 19 may be, where issued. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of 20 state or local law or rule or regulation, the premises limitation set 21 forth in any license to have and possess a pistol or revolver in the licensee's dwelling or place of business pursuant to paragraph (a) 22 (b) of subdivision two of this section shall not prevent the transport 23 of such pistol or revolver directly to or from (i) another dwelling or 24 25 place of business of the licensee where the licensee is authorized to have and possess such pistol or revolver, (ii) an indoor or outdoor 27 shooting range that is authorized by law to operate as such, (iii) a 28 shooting competition at which the licensee may possess such pistol or 29 revolver consistent with the provisions of subdivision a of section 30 265.20 of this chapter or consistent with the law applicable at the 31 place of such competition, or (iv) any other location where the licensee 32 lawfully authorized to have and possess such pistol or revolver; 33 provided however, that during such transport to or from a location specified in clauses (i) through (iv) of this paragraph, the pistol or 34 35 revolver shall be unloaded and carried in a locked container, and the 36 ammunition therefor shall be carried separately; provided further, 37 however, that a license to have and possess a pistol or revolver in the licensee's dwelling or place of business pursuant to paragraph (a) or 38 39 (b) of subdivision two of this section that is issued by a licensing officer other than the police commissioner of the city of New York shall 40 41 not authorize transport of a pistol or revolver into the city of New 42 York in the absence of written authorization to do so by the police commissioner of that city. The term "locked container" shall not include 43 the glove compartment or console of a vehicle. 44

 \S 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 265.01-d to read as follows:

§ 265.02-d Criminal possession of a weapon at a polling place.

A person is guilty of criminal possession of a weapon at a polling place when he or she knowingly has in his or her possession a rifle, shotgun, or firearm in or within one hundred feet of a polling place on the day of a primary, special or general election or while early voting is in progress. Nothing in this section shall apply to a police officer in the performance of his or her duties.

Criminal possession of a weapon at a polling place is a class E felony.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
