AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to presumptive evidence that a person committed a hate crime

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 485.05 of the penal law, as 2 amended by chapter 8 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

3 2. (a) Proof of race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, gender 4 identity or expression, religion, religious practice, age, disability or 5 sexual orientation of the defendant, the victim or of both the defendant
6 and the victim does not, by itself, constitute legally sufficient 7 evidence satisfying the people's burden under paragraph (a) or (b) of 8 subdivision one of this section.

9 (b) If it is established that a person committed a specified offense 10 as defined in subdivision three of this section, the following facts and 11 circumstances, either individually or in combination with each other, is 12 presumptive evidence that such person committed a hate crime pursuant to 13 subdivision one of this section:

14 (i) the defendant made declarations or statements contemporaneously
15 with committing the specified offense regarding the race, color,
16 national origin, ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, reli-
17 gion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a 18 person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct;

19 (ii) the people have established the defendant's pattern of prior 20 prejudice regarding race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, 21 gender identity or expression, religion, religious practice, age, disa-22 bility or sexual orientation, and the offense committed by such defend-23 ant was against the same protected class as the defendant's established 24 prior prejudice;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD11377-01-1

1 (iii) the person against whom the offense was committed is a member of 2 a perceived group that was outnumbered by members of another group in 3 the area where the offense was committed; or 4 (iv) the people have established that the defendant made bias-related 5 drawings, markings, symbols or graffiti at or near where the offense was 6 committed.

7 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
