such committee shall establish rules that provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve as members and which respect individuals' gender identity.

4 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 2-110 of the election law, as amended by 5 chapter 373 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

б 2. In the city of New York there shall be the party positions of assembly district leaders or, if the rules of the county committee shall 7 8 so provide, one assembly district leader and one associate assembly 9 district leader. Outside the city of New York there shall be such posi-10 tions when the rules of the county committee shall so provide. Such leaders shall be elected at primary elections as herein provided, within 11 every county in such city for each assembly district, or for each part 12 13 of an assembly district within such county as may be designated for the 14 purpose in the rules of the county committee, and in every county of the 15 state outside of such city where the rules so provide, for such assembly 16 district or part thereof within such county as may be designated in such rules for the purpose. Such assembly district leaders or such assembly 17 district leader and associate assembly district leader shall be of 18 [opposite sexes] different genders, if the rules of the county committee 19 20 shall so provide, and shall be enrolled voters of the party residing 21 within the assembly district and, if the rules of the county committee 22 shall so provide, within the part of the assembly district for which they are to be elected, and shall be elected at the same primary 23 24 election and for the same term as members of the county committee. When 25 any such rule provides for [equal] representation [of sexes] by gender, 26 the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for 27 such party positions separately by [sexes] gender marker. In providing for such representation, the county committee shall establish rules that 28 provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify 29 30 as a binary gender to serve as district leader and which respect indi-31 viduals' gender identity. Each shall perform such duties, powers and 32 functions as the rules of the county committee may prescribe. Vacancies 33 in such positions shall be filled by the members of the county committee within the assembly district or part thereof, as the case may be, until 34 first primary election following the creation of such vacancy or 35 the 36 vacancies for which the period for circulating designating petitions 37 ends at least seven days after the creation of such vacancy or vacan-38 cies, at which time the successor or successors shall be directly elected as herein provided. Assembly district leaders and associate 39 40 assembly district leaders shall automatically be members and shall have 41 the right to participate and vote in meetings of the county committee or 42 any subcommittee thereof. The county committee may provide by its rules 43 that the members of the state committee, elected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall possess the duties, powers and func-44 45 tions of an assembly district leader or an associate assembly district 46 leader. In such event the provisions of this section shall not apply to 47 the members of the state committee but upon his election as a member of 48 the state committee, such person shall be deemed to have also been 49 elected as an assembly district leader or an associate assembly district 50 leader.

51 § 4. Section 2-122 of the election law, as amended by chapter 177 of 52 the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

53 § 2-122. National party conventions; delegates, election. Delegates 54 and alternates to a national convention of a party shall be elected from 55 congressional districts, or partly from the state at large and partly 56 from congressional districts, as the rules of the state committee may

1 provide. Such delegates and alternates from the state at large shall be 2 elected by the state committee or by a state convention of the party, as the rules of the state committee shall prescribe. If the rules of a 3 national party provide for [equal] representation [ef the sexes] by 4 5 gender among delegates elected from districts, such district delegates б shall be elected separately by [sex] gender. District delegates and 7 alternates to national party conventions and delegates, and alternates, 8 if any, to such a state convention shall be elected at a primary. All 9 delegates and alternates to a national party convention shall be 10 enrolled members of such party. When any such rule provides for [equal] 11 representation [of the sexes] by gender, the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for such party positions separate-12 13 ly by [sex] gender marker. In providing for such representation, the 14 party shall establish rules that provide for the ability of individuals 15 who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve as delegates 16 and which respect individuals' gender identity.

17 § 5. Paragraph c of subdivision 3 of section 5-504 of the election 18 law, as amended by chapter 659 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read 19 as follows:

20 c. The board of elections maintains, as a public record, at the appro-21 priate office of the board, a complete and current alphabetized list of all registered voters, including voters in inactive status, which 22 contains next to each voter's name at least the following information: 23 address, town or city, assembly district where appropriate, election 24 25 district, registration serial number, party enrollment, date of regis-26 tration, [sex] gender, date of birth and, if the voter is in inactive 27 status, an indication of that fact.

28 § 6. Subdivision 7 of section 7-116 of the election law, as added by 29 chapter 173 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

30 7. Whenever a county board of elections or the board of elections in 31 the city of New York must conduct a primary election in the respective 32 county or the city of New York in which separate contests for [both male 33 and female] candidates of different genders for the same party position are to be printed upon the ballots, and when rules require these posi-34 35 tions be listed separately on the ballot, the respective county board of 36 elections or the board of elections in the city of New York shall deter-37 mine by lot [whether to first print the contest for the male candidates or the contest for the female candidates. After such determination, the 38 same order shall be used for all ballots printed by the board of 39 40 elections for the entire county or city of New York and for all contests 41 where there are elections separated by male and female candidates for the same party position] the order of the various gendered contests. 42 43 This lottery shall be conducted separately for each election that is 44 separated by gender.

45 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately.
