IN ASSEMBLY

June 1, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. GONZALEZ-ROJAS, EPSTEIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to including individuals who do not identify exclusively as a binary gender in eligibility for party positions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 4 of section 2-102 of the election law, as 2 amended by chapter 373 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 4. [~~The state committee may provide by rule for equal representation~~
5 ~~of the sexes on said committee.~~] When any [~~such~~] rule of the state 6 committee provides for [~~equal~~] representation [~~of the sexes~~] by gender, 7 the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for 8 such party positions separately by [~~sexes~~] gender marker. In providing 9 for such representation, the state committee shall establish rules that 10 provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify 11 as a binary gender to run for those positions and which respect individ-12 uals' gender identity.

13 § 2. Subdivision 2 of section 2-104 of the election law, as amended by 14 chapter 234 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

15 2. If[, ~~pursuant to section one of article thirteen of the constitu-~~ 16 ~~tion,~~] such committee or a state convention of the party shall provide 17 by rule for [~~equal~~] representation [~~of the sexes~~] by gender on such 18 committee, the rules of such committee relative to additional members, 19 either from election districts or at large, shall be formulated and 20 applied in such manner that the whole membership shall [~~consist of an~~ 21 ~~even number, equally~~] be divided [~~between the sexes~~] among genders as 22 provided by the rules of such committee. When any such rule provides for 23 [~~equal~~] such representation [~~of the sexes~~], the designating petitions 24 and primary ballots shall list candidates for such party positions sepa-
25 rately by [~~sexes~~] gender marker. In providing for such representation,

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 such committee shall establish rules that provide for the ability of 2 individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve 3 as members and which respect individuals' gender identity.

4 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 2-110 of the election law, as amended by 5 chapter 373 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

6 2. In the city of New York there shall be the party positions of 7 assembly district leaders or, if the rules of the county committee shall 8 so provide, one assembly district leader and one associate assembly
9 district leader. Outside the city of New York there shall be such posi-10 tions when the rules of the county committee shall so provide. Such 11 leaders shall be elected at primary elections as herein provided, within 12 every county in such city for each assembly district, or for each part 13 of an assembly district within such county as may be designated for the 14 purpose in the rules of the county committee, and in every county of the 15 state outside of such city where the rules so provide, for such assembly 16 district or part thereof within such county as may be designated in such 17 rules for the purpose. Such assembly district leaders or such assembly 18 district leader and associate assembly district leader shall be of 19 [~~opposite sexes~~] different genders, if the rules of the county committee 20 shall so provide, and shall be enrolled voters of the party residing 21 within the assembly district and, if the rules of the county committee 22 shall so provide, within the part of the assembly district for which 23 they are to be elected, and shall be elected at the same primary 24 election and for the same term as members of the county committee. When 25 any such rule provides for [~~equal~~] representation [~~of sexes~~] by gender, 26 the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for 27 such party positions separately by [~~sexes~~] gender marker. In providing 28 for such representation, the county committee shall establish rules that 29 provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify 30 as a binary gender to serve as district leader and which respect indi-31 viduals' gender identity. Each shall perform such duties, powers and 32 functions as the rules of the county committee may prescribe. Vacancies 33 in such positions shall be filled by the members of the county committee 34 within the assembly district or part thereof, as the case may be, until 35 the first primary election following the creation of such vacancy or 36 vacancies for which the period for circulating designating petitions 37 ends at least seven days after the creation of such vacancy or vacan-38 cies, at which time the successor or successors shall be directly 39 elected as herein provided. Assembly district leaders and associate 40 assembly district leaders shall automatically be members and shall have 41 the right to participate and vote in meetings of the county committee or 42 any subcommittee thereof. The county committee may provide by its rules 43 that the members of the state committee, elected in accordance with the 44 provisions of this chapter, shall possess the duties, powers and func-45 tions of an assembly district leader or an associate assembly district 46 leader. In such event the provisions of this section shall not apply to 47 the members of the state committee but upon [~~his~~] their election as a 48 member of the state committee, such person shall be deemed to have also 49 been elected as an assembly district leader or an associate assembly 50 district leader.

51 § 4. Section 2-122 of the election law, as amended by chapter 177 of 52 the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

53 § 2-122. National party conventions; delegates, election. Delegates 54 and alternates to a national convention of a party shall be elected from 55 congressional districts, or partly from the state at large and partly 56 from congressional districts, as the rules of the state committee may

1 provide. Such delegates and alternates from the state at large shall be 2 elected by the state committee or by a state convention of the party, as 3 the rules of the state committee shall prescribe. If the rules of a 4 national party provide for [~~equal~~] representation [~~of the sexes~~] by 5 gender among delegates elected from districts, such district delegates 6 shall be elected separately by [~~sex~~] gender. District delegates and 7 alternates to national party conventions and delegates, and alternates, 8 if any, to such a state convention shall be elected at a primary. All 9 delegates and alternates to a national party convention shall be 10 enrolled members of such party. When any such rule provides for [~~equal~~] 11 representation [~~of the sexes~~] by gender, the designating petitions and 12 primary ballots shall list candidates for such party positions separate-13 ly by [~~sex~~] gender marker. In providing for such representation, the 14 party shall establish rules that provide for the ability of individuals 15 who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve as delegates 16 and which respect individuals' gender identity.

17 § 5. Paragraph c of subdivision 3 of section 5-504 of the election
18 law, as amended by chapter 659 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read 19 as follows:

20 c. The board of elections maintains, as a public record, at the appro-21 priate office of the board, a complete and current alphabetized list of 22 all registered voters, including voters in inactive status, which 23 contains next to each voter's name at least the following information:
24 address, town or city, assembly district where appropriate, election 25 district, registration serial number, party enrollment, date of regis-26 tration, [~~sex~~] gender, date of birth and, if the voter is in inactive 27 status, an indication of that fact.

28 § 6. Subdivision 7 of section 7-116 of the election law, as added by 29 chapter 173 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

30 7. Whenever a county board of elections or the board of elections in 31 the city of New York must conduct a primary election in the respective 32 county or the city of New York in which separate contests for [~~both male~~ 33 ~~and female~~] candidates of different genders for the same party position 34 are to be printed upon the ballots, and when rules require these posi-35 tions be listed separately on the ballot, the respective county board of 36 elections or the board of elections in the city of New York shall deter-37 mine by lot [~~whether to first print the contest for the male candidates~~ 38 ~~or the contest for the female candidates. After such determination, the~~ 39 ~~same order shall be used for all ballots printed by the board of~~ 40 ~~elections for the entire county or city of New York and for all contests~~ 41 ~~where there are elections separated by male and female candidates for~~ 42 ~~the same party position.~~] the order of the various gendered contests.
43 This lottery will be conducted separately for each election that is 44 separated by the gender.

45 § 7. Section 3-102 of the election law is amended by adding a new 46 subdivision 18 to read as follows:

47 18. promulgate rules and regulations to provide for the ability of 48 individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to run 49 for positions elected in gendered contests which respect the individ-
50 uals' gender identity. In no case shall the board of elections promul-51 gate rules that are inconsistent with a system that requires individuals 52 filing for candidacy to self-identify their gender markers as "M", "F" 53 or "X", requires all candidates to run in a single race, and maintains 54 requirements for gender diversity.

55 § 8. This act shall take effect immediately.
