AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to clarifying that workers shall not be punished or subjected to discipline by employers for lawful absences

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 215 of the labor
2 law, as amended by chapter 564 of the laws of 2010, the closing para-3 graph as added by chapter 126 of the laws of 2019, is amended as 4 follows:

5 (a) No employer or his or her agent, or the officer or agent of any 6 corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, or any other 7 person, shall discharge, threaten, penalize, or in any other manner
8 discriminate or retaliate against any employee (i) because such employee 9 has made a complaint to his or her employer, or to the commissioner or 10 his or her authorized representative, or to the attorney general or any 11 other person, that the employer has engaged in conduct that the employ-12 ee, reasonably and in good faith, believes violates any provision of 13 this chapter, or any order issued by the commissioner (ii) because such 14 employer or person believes that such employee has made a complaint to 15 his or her employer, or to the commissioner or his or her authorized 16 representative, or to the attorney general, or to any other person that 17 the employer has violated any provision of this chapter, or any order 18 issued by the commissioner (iii) because such employee has caused to be 19 instituted or is about to institute a proceeding under or related to 20 this chapter, or (iv) because such employee has provided information to

1 the commissioner or his or her authorized representative or the attorney 2 general, or (v) because such employee has testified or is about to 3 testify in an investigation or proceeding under this chapter, or (vi) 4 because such employee has otherwise exercised rights protected under 5 this chapter, or (vii) because the employer has received an adverse 6 determination from the commissioner involving the employee, or (viii) 7 because such employee has used any legally protected absence pursuant to 8 federal, local, or state law.

9 An employee complaint or other communication need not make explicit 10 reference to any section or provision of this chapter to trigger the 11 protections of this section.

12 As used in this section, to threaten, penalize, or in any other manner 13 discriminate or retaliate against any employee includes; threatening to 14 contact or contacting United States immigration authorities or otherwise 15 reporting or threatening to report an employee's suspected citizenship
16 or immigration status or the suspected citizenship or immigration status
17 of an employee's family or household member, as defined in subdivision 18 two of section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law, to 19 a federal, state or local agency; or assessing any demerit, occurrence, 20 any other point, or deductions from an allotted bank of time, which 21 subjects or could subject an employee to disciplinary action, which may 22 include but not be limited to failure to receive a promotion or loss of 23 pay.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 25 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or 26 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 27 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed 28 on or before such date.
