such claim is based, [one year] three years after a court finds a lawsuit to be frivolous, or not later than [one year] three years after the death of the victim, provided, however, that upon good cause shown, the office may extend the time for filing. The office shall extend the time for filing where the claimant received no notice pursuant to section six hundred twenty-five-a of this article and had no knowledge of eligibility pursuant to section six hundred twenty-four of this article.

- § 3. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 627 of the executive law, as added by section 18 of part A-1 of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
- (c) the investigation and determination of claims regardless of whether the alleged criminal has been arrested, charged, apprehended or prosecuted for or convicted of any crime based upon the same incident, or has been acquitted, or found not guilty of the crime in question owing to criminal irresponsibility or other legal exemption;
- § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 631 of the executive law, as separately amended by chapters 189 and 295 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:
- 1. No award shall be made unless the office finds that: (a) a crime was committed[7]; (b) such crime directly resulted in personal physical injury to or the exacerbation of a preexisting disability, or condition, or death of, the victim[7]; and (c) either: (i) criminal justice agency records show that such crime was [promptly] reported to the proper authorities[; and in no case may an award be made where the criminal justice agency records show that such report was made more than one week after the occurrence of such crime unless the office, for good cause shown, finds the delay to have been justified. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, in cases involving an alleged sex offense as contained in article one hundred thirty of the penal law or incest as defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law or labor trafficking as defined in section 135.35 of the penal law or sex trafficking as defined in sections 230.34 and 230.34-a of the penal law or an offense chargeable as a family offense as described in section eight hundred twelve of the family court act or section 530.11 of the criminal procedure law, the criminal justice agency report need only be made within a reasonable time considering all the circumstances, including the victim's physical, emotional and mental condition and family situation[-]; or (ii) satisfactory evidence is provided to show that such crime occurred. Such evidence may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:
- (A) a written statement provided by a victim services provider who has provided services to the victim of the crime, or other eligible claimants as identified in section six hundred twenty-four of this article, in response to the impact of the qualifying crime;
 - (B) a statement provided by a witness to the qualifying crime;
- (C) a statement from the victim attesting to the victim's personal physical injury or the exacerbation of a preexisting disability, or condition provided that the office shall not require the disclosure of confidential information relating to such physical injury;
- (D) a temporary or permanent restraining order or protective order issued by a court to protect or separate the victim, or other eligible claimants as identified in section six hundred twenty-four of this article, from the person who is responsible for the qualifying crime;
- (E) a statement from a licensed medical provider, physician's assistant, nurse practitioner or other person licensed to provide medical or

1 mental health care documenting that the victim experienced physical 2 injury or the exacerbation of a preexisting disability, or condition as 3 a result of the qualifying crime; or

(F) a video, audio, or photographic recording of the commission of the qualifying crime.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "criminal justice agency" shall include, but not be limited to, a police department, a district attor-8 ney's office, and any other governmental agency having responsibility for the enforcement of the criminal laws of the state provided, however, that in cases involving such sex offense or family offense a criminal justice agency shall also mean a family court, a governmental agency responsible for child and/or adult protective services pursuant to title six of article six of the social services law and/or title one of article nine-B of the social services law, and any medical facility established under the laws of the state that provides a forensic physical examination for victims of rape and sexual assault.

17 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
