Introduced by M. of A. SIMPSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to the crime of endangering the welfare of a child and to create a new crime of endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 260.10 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 260.10 Endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree.

A person is guilty of endangering the welfare of a child in the second 5 degree when:

6 1. He or she knowingly acts in a manner likely to be injurious to the 7 physical, mental or moral welfare of a child less than seventeen years 8 old or directs or authorizes such child to engage in an occupation 9 involving a substantial risk of danger to his or her life or health; or

2. Being a parent, guardian or other person legally charged with the care or custody of a child less than eighteen years old, he or she fails or refuses to exercise reasonable diligence in the control of such child to prevent him or her from becoming an "abused child," a "neglected child," a "juvenile delinquent" or a "person in need of supervision," as those terms are defined in articles ten, three and seven of the family court act.

17 3. A person is not guilty of the provisions of this section when he or she engages in the conduct described in subdivision one of section 18 260.00 of this article: (a) with the intent to wholly abandon the child 19 by relinquishing responsibility for and right to the care and custody of 20 21 such child; (b) with the intent that the child be safe from physical 22 injury and cared for in an appropriate manner; (c) the child is left 23 with an appropriate person, or in a suitable location and the person who leaves the child promptly notifies an appropriate person of the child's 24 25 location; and (d) the child is not more than thirty days old.

26 Endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree is a class A 27 misdemeanor.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
