the veterans' organization relief fund during the preceding calendar year as the result of revenue derived pursuant to sections two hundred 3 nine-p and six hundred thirty-l of the tax law.

- 7. On or before the first day of February each year, the New York state director of veterans' services shall provide a written report to the temporary president of the senate, speaker of the assembly, chair of the senate finance committee, chair of the assembly ways and means committee, chair of the senate committee on veterans, homeland security and military affairs, chair of the assembly veterans affairs committee, and the public. Such report shall include how the monies of the fund were utilized during the preceding calendar year and shall include:
 - (i) the amount of money dispersed from the fund;
 - (ii) the recipients of awards from the fund;
 - (iii) the amount awarded to each recipient;
 - (iv) the purposes for which such awards were granted; and
- (v) a summary financial plan for such monies which shall include esti-16 17 mates of all receipts and all disbursements for the current and succeeding fiscal years, along with the actual results from the prior fiscal 18 19
- 20 § 2. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 209-p to read as 21 follows:
 - § 209-p. Gift for the veterans' organizations relief fund. Effective for any tax year commencing on or after January first, two thousand twenty-two, a taxpayer in any taxable year may elect to contribute to the support of the veterans' organization relief fund. Such contribution shall be in any whole dollar amount and shall not reduce the amount of the state tax owed by such taxpayer. The commissioner shall include space on the corporate income tax return to enable a taxpayer to make such contribution. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all revenues collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to the veterans' organization relief fund and shall be used only for those purposes enumerated in section eighty-nine-k of the state finance law.
- § 3. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 630-1 to read as 34 follows:
 - § 630-1. Gifts for veterans' organizations. Effective for any tax year commencing on or after the effective date of this section, a taxpayer in any taxable year may elect to contribute to the veterans' organization relief fund pursuant to section eighty-nine-k of the state finance law, for the purpose of funding the veterans' organizations. Any contributions made to such fund pursuant to this section shall be deposited into a dedicated account managed by the fund, which shall solely be used for funding veterans' organizations. Such contribution shall be in any whole dollar amount and shall not reduce the amount of the state tax owed by such taxpayer. The commissioner shall include space on the personal income tax return to enable a taxpayer to make such contrib-Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all revenues collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to the veterans' organizations relief fund.
 - § 4. The sum of one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to the division of veterans' services out of any moneys in the state treasury in the general fund to the credit of the general account, not otherwise appropriated, and made immediately available, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act. Such moneys shall be payable on the audit and warrant of the comptroller on vouchers certified or approved by the
