IN ASSEMBLY

January 12, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to ambulance services which provide transportation by aircraft; and to amend a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the public health law relating to availability of air transport ambulance service providers to store and distribute blood, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4085-A and A. 2561-B, in relation to the effectiveness thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3003-b of the public health law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the public health law relating to availability of air transport ambulance service providers to store and distribute blood, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 4085-A and A. 2561-B, is amended to read as follows:

§ 3003-b. Availability of ~~[air transport]~~ ambulance service ~~[providers]~~ that provides transportation by aircraft to store and distribute blood and initiate and administer blood transfusions. 1. ~~[As used in this section, "air transport services" shall mean emergency medical care and the transportation of sick or injured persons by aircraft to, from, or between general hospitals or other health care facilities.]~~

~~2.]~~ An ambulance service ~~[provider]~~ licensed under this article that provides ~~[air transport services]~~ transportation by aircraft may store and distribute human blood and blood products at all their facilities and qualified medical and health personnel, as defined in this article, operating within an ambulance service licensed under this article, may initiate and administer human blood and blood product transfusions while providing air transport services. As used in this section, "air transport services" means emergency medical care and the transportation of sick or injured persons by aircraft to, from or between general hospitals or other health care facilities.

~~[3.]~~ 2. Notwithstanding ~~[section]~~ title five ~~[hundred seventy-four]~~ of article five of this chapter, any ambulance service ~~[provider]~~ licensed ~~[pursuant to]~~ under this article that provides transportation by

1 aircraft and only for purposes of providing air transport services, may 2 store and distribute human blood and blood products in accordance with 3 ~~[section thirty one hundred of this chapter; provided, however, an ambu-~~ 4 ~~lance service provider shall meet or exceed all]~~ standards for the stor-
5 age of blood products of the United States Food and Drug Administration 6 and any rules, regulations, guidance or minimum standards established 7 pursuant to this section.

8 3. Prior to storing and distributing blood or allowing qualified 9 medical and health personnel to initiate and administer blood trans-
10 fusions under this section, the ambulance service shall ensure that it 11 is in compliance with the rules, regulations, guidance or minimum stand-12 ards established pursuant to this section and other applicable emergency 13 medical service requirements, and shall provide notification of intent 14 to store and distribute blood or allow qualified medical and health 15 personnel to initiate and administer blood transfusions as part of their 16 air transport services at least sixty days prior to beginning such care.

17 4. The state emergency medical services council, with the approval of 18 the commissioner, shall promulgate rules and regulations to effectuate 19 the purposes of this section.

20 § 2. Section 2 of a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the public
21 health law relating to availability of air transport ambulance service 22 providers to store and distribute blood, as proposed in legislative 23 bills numbers S. 4085-A and A. 2561-B, is amended to read as follows:

24 § 2. This act shall take effect ~~[immediately]~~ on the ninetieth day 25 after it shall have become a law.

26 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately, provided however that 27 section one of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the 28 same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the public health 29 law relating to availability of air transport ambulance service provid-30 ers to store and distribute blood, as proposed in legislative bills
31 numbers S. 4085-A and A. 2561-B, takes effect.
