Introduced by M. of A. BURDICK -- read once and referred to the Committee on People with Disabilities

AN ACT in relation to directing the New York State Office for People With Developmental Disabilities, in conjunction with New York State Industries for the Disabled, to establish a voluntary training and certification program for employers that have taken the EmployAbility Pledge; and making an appropriation therefor

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. a. The New York State Office for People With Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD), in conjunction with New York State Industries for the Disabled (NYSID), shall establish a voluntary training and certification program for employers that have taken the EmployAbility Pledge and that support an inclusive workplace. The program shall promote techniques and strategies employers can implement to increase diversity in the employer's workforce through the hiring of individuals with disabilities and to increase diversity in the selection of the employer's supply chains by working with companies that employ individuals with disabilities.

- b. OPWDD will contract with NYSID to develop the content of the program and to manage the program. In developing the content of the program, NYSID shall work with vendors who provide services to or employee individuals with disabilities including, but not limited to multimedia company Our Ability. As part of the program, NYSID will develop a series of online/virtual training programs for employers for key components related to training employers on topics including:
 - (i) sensitivity training on disability disclosure;
- 19 (ii) providing reasonable accommodations to employees with disabili-20 ties;
- 21 (iii) tax credits for employers who employee individuals with disabil-22 ities;
- 23 (iv) website accessibility;
