AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to requiring assessors using the comparable sales method for assessments to consider certain comparable properties in formulating the assessment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 305-a to read as follows:

3 § 305-a. Assessment using the comparable sales, income capitalization
4 or cost method. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall 5 have the following meanings:

6 (a) "Mixed-use property" means a property with a building or structure
7 used for both residential and commercial purposes.

8 (b) "Non-residential property" means a property with a building or 9 structure used for commercial purposes.

10 2. When determining the value of a mixed-use or non-residential prop-
11 erty using the comparable sales, income capitalization or cost method, 12 the following shall be considered when selecting appropriate sales or 13 rentals comparable to the subject property; provided, however, that the 14 following requirements shall apply only to assessing units other than 15 cities having a population of one million or more:

16 (a) sales or rentals of properties exhibiting similar use or the use
17 at the time of sale in the same real estate market. Comparable proper-

1 ties should include properties located in proximate location to the 2 subject property unless there is an inadequate number of appropriate 3 sales or rentals within the same market; and

4 (b) sales or rentals of properties that are similar in age, condition,
5 use or the use at the time of sale, type of construction, location,
6 design, physical features and economic characteristics including but not 7 limited to similarities in occupancy and market rent.

8 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to assess-
9 ment rolls prepared on or after January 1, 2022.
