- 1. "Meeting" means the official convening of a public body for the 5 purpose of conducting public business, including the use of teleconferencing, videoconferencing or similar technology for attendance and participation by the members of the public body. Participation by teleconferencing, videoconferencing, or similar technology shall constitute presence in person and counted for quorum purposes.
 - § 2. Subdivision (c) of section 103 of the public officers law, as added by chapter 289 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:
 - (c) A public body that uses teleconferencing or similar technology to conduct its meetings shall provide an opportunity for the public to attend, listen and observe at any site at which a member participates. Such site may include the internet address of the website streaming such meeting if such meeting is occurring wholly using teleconferencing, videoconferencing or similar technology. If such meeting is occurring partially using teleconferencing, videoconferencing or similar technology, the public body shall provide both any physical site at which a member participates and the internet website streaming such meeting. Such website shall include a means for the public to contemporaneously participate in such meetings electronically.
- 23 § 3. Section 103 of the public officers law is amended by adding a new 24 subdivision (g) to read as follows:
- 25 (q) A public body may meet remotely, in whole or in part, through the 26 use of a telephone conference, a video conference, and/or other similar
