AN ACT to amend the financial services law, in relation to requiring certain disclosures in advertisements involving virtual tokens

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision (a) of section 104 of the financial services law is amended by adding a new paragraph 6 to read as follows:

(6) "Virtual token" shall mean any interchangeable or non-interchangeable unit of data that is stored on any blockchain ledger which shall include, among other digital units that the superintendent determines to be virtual tokens in accordance with this definition, cryptocurrencies, virtual currencies, digital assets and digital tokens, whether fungible or non-fungible. Virtual tokens shall not be construed to include any of the following:

(A) digital units that: (i) are used solely within online gaming platforms; (ii) have no market or application outside of those gaming platforms; (iii) cannot be converted into, or redeemed for, fiat currency or virtual currency; and (iv) may or may not be redeemable for real-world goods, services, discounts, or purchases;

(B) digital units that can be redeemed for goods, services, or purchases as part of a customer affinity or rewards program with the issuer and/or other designated merchants or can be redeemed for digital units in another customer affinity or rewards program, but cannot be converted into, or redeemed for, fiat currency or other virtual currency; or

(C) digital units used as part of prepaid cards.

§ 2. The financial services law is amended by adding a new section 410 to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 § 410. Restrictions concerning advertising. (a) No person shall, in 2 any manner, advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broad-
3 cast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed,
4 published, distributed, or broadcasted, any statement or representation
5 with regard to any virtual token for consideration without disclosing
6 the amount of consideration, whether past or prospective, direct or 7 indirect, and the nature thereof.

8 (b) No person shall, in any manner, advertise, print, display,
9 publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised,
10 printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcasted, any state-
11 ment or representation with regard to any virtual token or other finan-
12 cial product or service if such statement or representation is, in any 13 manner, false, misleading or deceptive.

14 (c) For the purposes of this section and without limiting subdivisions
15 (a) and (b) of this section, a statement or representation shall be 16 false, misleading and deceptive if it states or implies, directly or 17 indirectly, that a person is authorized legally to offer or provide in 18 New York state or to New York state residents a virtual token or other 19 financial product or service, and such person is not so authorized.

20 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
