Introduced by M. of A. JACKSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, the administrative code of the city of New York, the executive law, the court of claims act, and the retirement and social security law, in relation to requiring damages for tortious acts of police officers to be paid from money in such police officer's retirement account

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The section heading, subdivision 1 and paragraph a of 2 subdivision 6 of section 50-j of the general municipal law, the section
3 heading and subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 843 of the laws of 1975
4 and paragraph a of subdivision 6 as added by chapter 691 of the laws of 5 1986, are amended and a new subdivision 7 is added to read as follows:

6 Liability of police officers for [~~negligence~~] tortious acts in the 7 performance of duty. 1. [~~Notwithstanding the provisions of any general,~~
8 ~~special or local law, charter or code to the contrary, every city, coun-~~ 9 ~~ty, town, village, authority or agency shall be liable for, and shall~~ 10 ~~assume the liability to the extent that it shall save harmless, any~~] Any 11 duly appointed police officer of [~~such~~] a municipality, authority or 12 agency shall be liable for any negligent act or tort[~~, provided~~] commit-13 ted by such police officer while such police officer, at the time of the 14 negligent act or tort complained of, was acting in the performance of 15 his or her duties and within the scope of his or her employment.

16 a. In addition to the requirements of subdivision one of this section, 17 upon discretionary adoption of a local law, ordinance, resolution, rule
18 or regulation, any city, county, town, village, authority, or agency 19 shall provide for the defense of any civil action or proceeding brought 20 against a duly appointed police officer of such municipality, authority
21 or agency [~~and shall indemnify and save harmless such police officer~~ 22 ~~from any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction whenever such~~ 23 ~~action, proceeding or judgment is for punitive or exemplary damages,~~
24 ~~arising out of a negligent act or other tort of such police officer~~ 25 ~~committed while in the proper discharge of his duties and within the~~

1 ~~scope of his employment~~]. Such municipality, authority or agency is 2 hereby authorized and empowered to purchase insurance to cover the cost
3 of such defense and indemnification.

4 7. Any duly appointed police officer of any city, county, town,
5 village, authority or agency may be found liable for negligent acts 6 committed by such police officer while such police officer was acting in 7 the performance of his or her duties and within the scope of his or her
8 employment. If such police officer is found liable for such negligent 9 acts, any damages awarded to the plaintiff shall be paid out from the 10 money in such police officer's retirement account.

11 § 2. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by 12 adding a new section 7-213 to read as follows:

13 § 7-213 Claims for tortious acts of police. Where a judgment or 14 settlement for any negligent act or other tort committed by a police 15 officer of the city results in a payment of monetary damages to the 16 claimant, such monetary damages shall be paid out from the money in such 17 police officer's retirement account.

18 § 3. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 235 to read 19 as follows:

20 § 235. Civil actions against the state police. Any member of the state 21 police may be found liable for negligent acts or other torts committed 22 by such member while such member was acting in the performance of his or 23 her duties and within the scope of his or her employment. If such 24 member is found liable for such negligent acts, any damages awarded to 25 the plaintiff shall be paid out from the money in such member's retire-26 ment account.

27 § 4. The court of claims act is amended by adding a new section 20-b 28 to read as follows:

29 § 20-b. Civil actions against a member of the state police. Any indi-
30 vidual member of the state police may be found liable for negligent acts 31 or other torts committed by such member while such member was acting in 32 the performance of his or her duties and within the scope of his or her
33 employment. If such member is found liable for such negligent acts or 34 other torts and a judgment is entered against such member, any damages 35 awarded to the plaintiff shall be paid out from the money in such 36 member's retirement account and shall not be paid by the comptroller.
37 Any judgment entered against the division of state police as a whole 38 shall be paid by the comptroller.

39 § 5. Section 351 of the retirement and social security law is amended 40 by adding a new subdivision f to read as follows:

41 f. No member shall withdraw any accumulated contributions if a judg-
42 ment has been entered against such member for negligent acts or other 43 torts committed by such member while such member was acting in the 44 performance of his or her duties and within the scope of his or her
45 employment except to pay any damages that such member has been ordered 46 to pay. Such prohibition on withdrawals shall continue until such 47 damages are paid in full, at which time such member may withdraw any 48 accumulated contributions in accordance with the provisions of this 49 section.

51 adding a new section 13-638.7 to read as follows:

52 § 13-638.7 Withdrawals from a police pension fund. No police officer
53 of the city shall withdraw any accumulated contributions from a police 54 pension fund under chapter two of this title if a judgment has been 55 entered against such officer for negligent acts or other torts committed 56 by such officer while such officer was acting in the performance of his

1 or her duties and within the scope of his or her employment except to 2 pay any damages that such officer has been ordered to pay. Such prohibi-
3 tion on withdrawals shall continue until such damages are paid in full.
4 § 7. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 5 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or 6 repeal of any rules or regulations necessary for the implementation of 7 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or before 8 such effective date.
