IN ASSEMBLY

January 31, 2022

Introduced by M. of A. LUNSFORD -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the uniform justice court act, in relation to allowing for justices to reside in any town, village or city within the same assembly district as the court such justice serves

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The uniform justice court act is amended by adding a new section 106-c to read as follows:

§ 106-c. Residency of justices.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any justice serving a term of office in a town, village or city court may reside in any town, village or city contained in whole or in part within the same assembly district as the court such justice serves.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
